Hungarian Clothes Drive A Big Success

The collection of used clothing made throughout the area by the Farmington Junior Chamber of Commerce last Sunday, December 9, for Hungarian refugees was termed a huge success by Jack Hinbern, collection chairman.

The truckload of clothing collected has now been delivered to Reverend Tibor Toth of the Hungarian Reformed Church. He will see that the clothing is packed and shipped to Hungarian refugees still in Europe.

Westbrook PTA To Hold Meeting December 17

The Westbrook PTA will meet on Monday evening, December 17, at 8 p.m. at the Westbrook School.

Program topic will be "Moral and Spiritual Growth of the Adult and Child." A film on Christmas Spirit will also be shown.

A canned ham makes a fine gift at Christmas time. To make the gift seem more personal, type up one or two of your favorite ham recipes and attach them to the package. (This might be the solution to the "hard-to-buy-for" name on your list.)

Toys For Tots Drive Underway

Members of the Marine Corps Reserve in this area are now in full swing in their "Toys For Tots of Farmington" drive. It was disclosed this week:

Letters have been sent out to several residents of the area asking that they contribute toys and barrels for the deposit of toys for needy children have been placed in several stores. All who have already done so are asked to add a toy for a needy child to their shopping list.

Toys may either be dropped in a "Toy for Tots of Farmington" barrel at a store or be picked up at the door. A pickup at your home may be arranged by calling either Ron E. Spjeldestad, 22954 Colchester, GR. 4-2299, or Ken Samuels, 52327 Cloverdale, GR. 4-0654.

It is asked that all toys be turned in as soon as possible and not later than December 19 in order to insure that time will be sufficient to have them turned over to the Farmington Goodfellows for distribution to needy children prior to Christmas time.

Novi Girl Scout News

Brownie Troop 602 made Christmas gifts for their fathers at their last meeting. They also planned what they had done to help their mothers through the week. Treats were furnished by Dixie Dique and Velma Ponder.

Intermediate Troop 402 made Christmas tree balls from flash bulbs and presents for their fathers. They also reviewed requirements for their cooking badge.

Brownie Troop 149 made peanut butter bird feeders and learned a square dance.

Intermediate Troop 491 made puppets for making cookies and decorations for tray favors as well as planning a toboggan party. Intermediate troop started making Christmas presents. The troop is looking for uniforms and asked that anyone having one not being used contact Leader Dora Eby.

Senior Troop met at the home of Phyllis Bassett. The girls worked on stars and made plans to go caroling. Treats were brought by Jacqueline Bailey.

At a meeting of the Novi Neighborhood of Girl Scouts held recently reports from all troops were heard. Plans were also made for a card party in February. Wilma Marchetti was named chairman and will be assisted by Eve Tuck, Mary Louise Taylor, Clara Wilk, Audrey, Pauline Bassett and Shirley Poor. A report was also given by Shirley Poor and Eve Tuck on their trip to a scout convention in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, recently.

West Farmington

The Walled Lake Women's Christian Temperance Union met at the home of Mrs. Richard Heliker last week with 11 members present. Boxes for shut-ins were filled and several cards were sent to sick in the area.

Gifts were exchanged by those in attendance and a cake in honor of Mrs. Elmer Seel's birthday on December 10 served. A short business meeting followed.

Sharon Heliker, Susie Green, Edith Green, Alice Green and Karen Lee took part in the Walled Lake School Christmas play and song fest.

Mr. and Mrs. Alden Green are the proud parents of a baby boy born December 5 at St. Joseph Hospital in Pontiac. He weighed 9 pounds, 4 ounces at birth. The Greens have four other children.

Mrs. Jack Hetrick is reported recovering slowly at her home following a recent operation.

Mrs. Grace Halverson spent Monday with her sister, Mrs. Floyd Howard. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Howard have left for a vacation in Florida.

The West Farmington Farm Bureau Christmas dinner will be held at the Walled Lake Baptist Church dining room on Tuesday, December 18.

Twenty commercial stations and 23 educational stations regularly broadcast University of Michigan programs. These stations include every city in Michigan having television broadcasting facilities.

Middlebelt Area Girl Scout Units Work On Christmas Projects

Girl Scouts and Brownies of the Middlebelt Area are very proud of their recent calendar sales. They sold over eight hundred calendars as compared to three hundred and fifty last year. This increase was partly due to the efforts of new troops, the fact that the Brownies parents helped and the extra hard work done by regular scouts.

Girl Scout Troop 174 under the leadership of Mrs. Steve Santo and Mrs. Bruno Blatbeut have been very busy preparing their Christmas Party. They have made Christmas wreaths of pines, cones and berries for the front door of their homes for the whole family to enjoy. The girls attended the Kiwanis Club films of the Colorado series. Their service project for this month was working at the Roundup of Middlebelt School. This was their annual bazaar and the Girl Scouts were working in the Chuck Wagon. They put in a full day cleaning tables and washing dishes and helping in the kitchen.

Troop 76, now under the leadership of Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. Decker, are working on Christmas gifts that will give them credit toward second class rank. Some new girls are working on Tenderfoot requirements and are looking forward to their investiture.

A new troop recently formed at Shawwassee School under the leadership of Mrs. Betty Parker now has a membership of fifteen girls. They have planned a Christmas party and will sing Christmas Carols in their neighborhood for the first portion of their party. After this they will return to their meeting place for games and goodies. They have made Christmas gifts for their mothers and are working hard to prepare for their investiture ceremony scheduled for the first of January. This troop will soon be registered and will be assigned their number then.

The Brownie Troops of Middlebelt Area now number six. Troop 218, under the leadership of Mrs. Clifford Terry, has brought its own books and prepared the material for a Christmas Party in Alpena. They will include with these books stockings which they are making and will fill them with candy. They will also have a Christmas Party at the home of their leader.

Troop 168 has made snow men and decorated candles for its Christmas project. They have planned a Christmas Party for December 17 when they will exchange gifts, wear their party dresses, and after the party they will be caroling in their area of Floral Park.

A new troop, No. 890, under the leadership of Mrs. B. Shider and Mrs. George Griffin, has made earrings for mother and are now working on a gift for father. They have also made candle holders and plan a Christmas party with gift exchanging.

Another new Brownie Troop under the leadership of Mrs. James Luker has made bird feeders for their December project. They are planning a Christmas party also and will soon be registered.

Troop 224 under the leadership of Mrs. Martin has made gifts for mother and father and will also exchange gifts at their Christmas party which will be held at their leader's home. They have made their own decorations for their Brownie tree and will be able to take them home to use. This troop recently invested seven new girls.

Brownie Troop 203 has Mrs. G. Carlson as their new leader and they are now meeting at the First Hall. They recently have invested five new girls. They made Christmas bells by covering paper cups with tinfoil, and are also planning a Christmas party with a grab bag of gifts.

Local Garden Club Officers Elected

Officers for the coming year were elected at the annual Presidential Tea of the Farmington Garden Club held at the home of Mrs. W. J. Spicer on Farmington Road Monday afternoon, December 11.

Elected as president of the organization for the coming year was Mrs. A. F. Grosscup. Other officers elected were: Mrs. Walter Gaertner, first vice-president; Mrs. Terrill Houston, second vice-president; Mrs. L. W. Clark, third vice-president; Mrs. H. E. Mansfield, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Vincent Kierchner, treasurer, and Miss Meriah Andrews, chairman.

Preceding the election of officers was the giving of annual reports by outgoing officers and by the various committee chairmen. Past presidents were honored at the meeting and presented with corsages. Honored were: Mrs. Clarence Hickling, Mrs. Clarence Johnson, Mrs. Ray Eichler, Mrs. Henry, Mrs. Paul Calkins, Mrs. H. L. Richards and Mrs. James Robertson.

Accompanied at the piano by Mrs. William Harris, Mrs. Keith Williams led the group in Christmas songs and carols prior to the serving of tea in a setting of blue candles, rose colored balls, and pine boughs arranged on a duobonnet cloth by Mrs. Philip Henault.

Holiday eating calls for epicurean embellishments, and dates fill the need very nicely. Dates are great when served with cereal or in salads, and go with muffins and other baked foods. They're fine for eating out of hand too, according to your consumer marketing agent.

Gill Road PTA Special Christmas Program Planned

The Gill Road School PTA will present a special program for its Christmas meeting, Monday evening, December 17, at 8:00 p.m.

Reverend Russell Sursaw of the First Methodist Church will present the Christmas story and Lloyd Smith, director of music in the Farmington schools, will present a music group in Christmas instrumental music.

As an added feature, the film, "Pueblo Boy" will be shown. This film is reported to be unusually interesting, showing the Pueblo Indians, the oldest known inhabitants of the New World. Their art, drama, religion and democratic form of government are rooted in a thousand years of American history.

Produced in color in the heart of the Pueblo country near Albuquerque, New Mexico, "Pueblo Boy" shows the family life, education, work and play of these truly American people. Their traditional dances form an outstanding feature of the film. Shown, too, is the annual Indian Festival at Gallup, New Mexico, where many tribes gather to join in the colorful celebration.

Refreshments will be served following the program.

To make hashed brown potatoes, mix two cups cooked and chopped Michigan potatoes with 1 tablespoon flour and 1 teaspoon salt. Heat two tablespoons butter in a fry pan and pour in the potato mixture. Spread it out evenly and cook slowly until brown underneath. Invert on a plate, add another tablespoon butter to the pan and gently slide the potatoes back, cooked side up. Brown, and serve in four portions.

Scout Troop 162 Gives Chili Dinner

Newly organized Boy Scout Troop 162 started off activities with a bang by sponsoring a chili dinner on Thursday evening, December 6, at the Shawwassee elementary school.

Over 100 persons were served at the dinner. Boys of the troop waited on table and helped in the kitchen. Proceeds from the dinner will be used to purchase equipment for the troop with which to carry on an active program.

The newly organized troop is still open to and looking for new members. Anyone interested in having their sons enrolled in the troop is asked to contact Mrs. Walter Gaertner, GR. 4-2298, Mr. Stuart Ruelle, GR. 4-2151, or Mrs. James Tesch, GR. 4-1367. Other adults assisting with the new troop are Mrs. Edward Hammond, Mrs. David Edwards, Mrs. Howard Heinbecker and Mrs. George Hunt.

First Methodist To Hold Progressive Paper Drive

The Church School of the First Methodist Church is now conducting an all out campaign to put the building fund to build a new Sunday School building over the top.

One of the projects now under way is a progressive paper drive. For those in attendance, papers and magazines may be brought to the Church on any Sunday morning. On December 27 a home collection will be made. You are asked to call the chairman of the commission on education, Bert Pryor at MA. 6-2875, or Walter Gale, GR. 4-4428 or the church office, GR. 4-6573, if you wish to have a pick-up at your home.
