

Any increase in net income for Michigan farmers in 1957 will have to come from more efficient farm operation, say M. S. U. farm economists.

Discuss Proper C.H.S. Boys Dress

Clarenceville's Student Council conducted a panel discussion on the proper dress for boys Wednesday, December 19. The discussion was held before the entire student body in an attempt to improve the appearance of the boys. Mr. Hixon, of the Clarenceville faculty, acted as moderator of the discussion. Panel members included Don Melton, Roy Carlton, Russ Waack, Marie Wyss, Darlene Hamlin, Linda Gould, Bob Leeds and Dennis Norvick.

The problem of boys' dress has been discussed at great length by the Student Council over a period of months. As a result, the Student Council has issued several recommendations in an effort to emphasize the need for good appearance in all aspects of life.

The Council stated that their views on the matter were stated as suggestions, not rules. A plea has been issued for student co-operation on the problem.

Following the panel discussion, members of the student body were allowed to ask questions and state opinions on the matter.

Girls Busy With Volleyball, Table Tennis, Bowling

Last week's Clarenceville GAA volleyball tournament play saw the "Stompers" defeated by the "Keweenaw" by a score of 27-8. The "Tags" scored a victory over the "SS and Overs" 17-14; the "Niki Hokers" scored 24 points to the "Rovers" 10 points. The "Tags" and "Stompers" ended a thrilling game with a 19-19 tie. The girls have now completed six games, with six remaining.

In the ten tournament games in bowling, the freshmen "Rolling Pins," junior "Strikettes" and senior "Pin-ets" ended in a three-way tie for first place.

The members of the "Rolling Pins" include: Joanne Nelson, Karen Chappel, Dianne Squair and Connie Braseth. The "Strikettes" are composed of Nancy Burd, Nancy Brust, Sharon Butler and Gretchen VanCamp. The "Pin-ets" are Marian Dailey, Catherine Barnes, Diane Benson and Elda Dossena. High averages of the bowling tournament were made by Sarah McKiddie, 179, and Carol Rickert and Lorraine Reaume, with 114 points each.

In the doubles table tennis match, Mary Snell and Lorraine Reaume, topped serving honors. Singles will begin on Thursday, January 4, after the Christmas holidays.

The way things are headed now, says John Clappison, who is sponsoring work sessions to interrupt the coffee breaks.

Future Teachers Get Practical Classroom Work

The John C. Kennedy division of the Future Teachers of America Club is starting a program of teaching for Clarenceville members. The program, under the guidance of Robert Young, assisted by Mrs. Lydia Lear, is designed to give Clarenceville students a taste of actual teaching.

F. T. A. members will visit classes in the elementary schools once a week for an eight week period. The club members will have an opportunity to meet with the teacher and discuss the various problems and situations that arise in the classroom.

The members of the F. T. A. Clarenceville have been acting in the capacity of substitute teachers in the elementary schools. Mr. Young and Mrs. Lear are planning to continue the program through-out the next semester and introduce actual supervised teaching into the program.

The following elementary teachers are acting as supervisors for the F. T. A. teaching program: Mrs. Joan Leary, Mrs. Betty Robbins, Mrs. Ruth House, Miss Lorraine Teubert, Mrs. Loretta Fox, Mr. Ray Marshall, Mrs. Ann Anderson and Mrs. Ruth Sharland.

May Peace be your gift at Christmas and your treasure during the year.
