Mrs. Grace Heliker came up from Florida last week to be with her sister, Mrs. Bertha Day, who is very ill.

Mrs. Clara Green called on Mr. and Mrs. Roland Green Sunday.

W.C.T.U. To Meet
December 28

The Farmington Women's Christian Temperance Union will hold their Christmas party at the Methodist Church School rooms at 1:30 p.m. on Friday, December 28.

The devotionals will be led by Miss Elsie Barnard followed by a short business meeting. A program will then be given by the younger students of Mrs. Landecker's School Expression. This will be followed by a dedication of children to a life of purity and temperance.

All members and friends of temperance are urged to be present at the meeting.

At the close of the meeting refreshments furnished by Mrs. Winfield Werden, Mrs. Trombley, Mrs. Lightfoot, Mrs. Steel, Mrs. McCullough and Mrs. Landecker will be served.

Miss L. A. Ault GR. 4-4294

The Sunshine Sisters held their annual Christmas party in Neighborhood Church last Wednesday afternoon. After a carol sing and devotional service, there was some discussion on appropriate topics.

Afterward came a grab-bag exchange of gifts. A cake, prepared by Bessie Muir, and baked to represent a decorated Christmas tree, was sliced and served.

The ladies brought contributions toward a box of goodies to be sent as a Christmas gift to an elderly man who, for a number of years, has been a hospital patient.

A similar remembrance was being made up for an elderly couple in the neighborhood.

The New Year's meeting of the Sunshine Sisters will be held at 2 p.m. on Wednesday, January 2.

A large group of young folks from the Neighborhood Bible School section enjoyed a Christmas grab-bag in the church on Saturday afternoon. After each boy and girl had drawn and inspected a gift to take home, a supply of Christmas cookies speedily disappeared.

A celebration honoring the sixty-third birthday of John Aittama was held at the family home on Shady-side Avenue Sunday, December 18. Only relatives were present. A large birthday cake was the center of attraction. A beautiful gift was presented to Mr. Aittama.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Ault of Hubbard Avenue were in Flint Saturday, December 15, attending a celebration honoring the seventy-third birthday of Mrs. Ault's father, Mr. Updigrave.

Mrs. Kenneth Skow of Mayfield Avenue entertained Wednesday evening, December 19, honoring the tenth birthday of her eldest daughter, Beverly.

Mrs. Mildred Schull of Shady-side Avenue attended a stock shower Friday night, December 14, honoring her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Fred Schull. The affair was held at the home of friends on Orchard Lake Road, Farmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Roberts and their four children from Monroe were Sunday evening guests of Mrs. Roberts' mother, Mrs. Emerson Ault, on Mayfield Avenue.

Ervin and Yvett Bohlinger from Loon Lake were recent evening visitors at the Joe Roberts home on Mayfield Avenue.

Little Miss Cathie Ring from Detroit was a guest last weekend of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Varhol on Shady-side Avenue.

Mrs. Dwight Atabury from Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived to spend a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Purser, on Farmington Road.

En route with her family to Tennessee, Mrs. Dave Kelbert of Hugo Avenue, Farmington, stopped in at the home of the Norfolk Avenue Aults Monday. The Kelberts will spend Christmas with Mrs. Kelbert's mother in Tennessee.

Mrs. Louis Jennings of Norfolk Avenue was a visitor in Lambertville, Michigan, Thursday. Her mother, Mrs. Lawrence Smith, returned with her to be a guest at the Jennings home.

Mrs. E. W. Stange and her son, Edward, Jr., of Mayfield Avenue, have both been quite ill.

After a week's severe illness, Mrs. Charles A. Armstrong of Mayfield Avenue is considerably improved.

Blue Star Mothers
L. MCINTYRE

The Farmington Blue Star mothers held their December business meeting at the Clarenceville First Hall, Thursday, December 20.

President Margaret Kahrt opened the meeting. Following the opening program there were greetings read from National President Audrey Jonechal of California and Department of Michigan President Bessie Hathaway of Big Rapids, Michigan.

Greetings were also read from several veterans in Maybury Sanatorium at Northville and others who have enjoyed the kindness of the Farmington Chapter this past year.

A report was given on the Christmas party held at the home of Mrs. Elta Vanderburgh, where 35 Mothers enjoyed a dinner followed by the exchange of gifts to members and their secret pals.

A report on the Thanksgiving and Christmas party given the veterans in Maybury Sanatorium was also given and reported as highly successful.

Election of 1957 officers was held at the meeting. Officers elected were President, Irene Kruger; first vice president, Mary Fox; second vice president, Mabel Lyons; financial secretary, Ethel Lint; recording secretary, Mae Jarrett; treasurer, Lettie McIntyre.

After the close of the meeting, a birthday cake was served in honor of Lucille Langley and Ethel Whitefoot, who have December birthdays.

The installation of the 1957 officers will be held in the Clarenceville Methodist Church, 28312 Grand River, Wednesday, January 9 at 1 p.m. Lunch will be served by the Past Presidents of Farmington Chapter.

Novi Girl Scout News

Senior Girl Scouts met at the home of Pauline Bassett last week and completed Christmas projects.

Also presented Christmas songs for caroling. Janet Race brought treats.

Brownie Troop 602 wrapped Christmas presents at their last meeting and enjoyed treats brought by their leaders. Brownie Troop 149 exchanged gifts, made popcorn balls and danced an Igloo dance.

Intermediate Troop 493 wrapped gifts and played games at a Christmas party. Treats were furnished by leaders of the Troop. At their party, Intermediate Troop 492 exchanged gifts; rehearsed Christmas carols and made plans for earning their cooking badge.

Several different girls brought treats. It is reported that two used uniforms are available and for sale.

Intermediate Troop 491 exchanged Christmas gifts and made door decorations from greens donated by Mrs. Gillette. They also made plans to go caroling. Treats were brought by Freda Angle and Marion Slentz.

Intermediate Troop 116 celebrated with a Christmas party for their entire families held at the Methodist Church last Saturday. Festivities, planned by the girls, consisted of games, song singing and eating candy. As a special surprise, Mrs. Bennett, their leader, arranged to have Santa present.

Pfc Jack Phelps, stationed in San Diego, California, will play with the Marine Corp Band at the Rose Bowl game on New Year's Day, it was disclosed this week.

Jack will be granted a furlough on January 2 and will come to visit his parents, the Marion Phelps at 2823 West Parkway, Detroit. Jack graduated from Farmington High in 1955.

Mrs. John T. Buck and children Tommy and Judy arrived here Saturday to spend the Christmas holidays. Mrs. Buck will be remembered as the former Nancy Isley, daughter of Mrs. Mary Isley of Oakland Avenue.

Nancy came with her children from Larado, Texas, where Lt. John Buck is stationed. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Buck of Macomb flew down last week to attend John's graduation from Jet Training School there. His wife Nancy pinned on his gold bars while his parents looked on proudly.

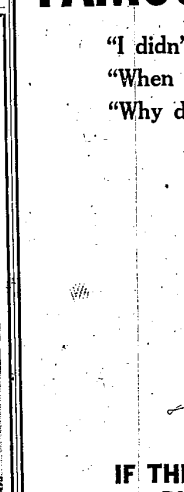

Mrs. Buck and Nancy along with the children flew here Saturday. Lt. Buck and his father are coming up by auto and were expecting to arrive in time to celebrate Christmas here.

Around the middle of January, Lt. Buck will report for duty at William's Air Force Base in Arizona.
