

Margaret Allen, a senior studying in the school of Education at Western Michigan College in Kalamazoo, will visit elementary schools in Grosse Pointe, Dearborn, Ferndale and Ann Arbor this week with a group of other elementary education students. They are seeking a broader perspective on junior education.

Margaret is engaged in student teaching in the elementary grades at Paw Paw elementary school this semester.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen, 28716 Salem Road, Farmington.

Three Students Win League Band Berths

Tryouts for the Wayne-Oakland League Band were held at Clarkson, January 3. One hundred and fifty students participated in the tryouts and from these, seventy were selected for the W.O.C.L. Band.

Clarenceville High School placed the following students: Mike Koller, trumpet; Beverly Hildgranth, clarinet; and Gretchen Van Camp, flute; Cliff Wellman, trombone, was chosen as an alternate.

The W.O.C.L. Band will present four concerts this season. The first concert will be held at the Clarenceville High School Auditorium, February 1, at 8 p.m.

Volleyball, Bowling Take GAA Spotlight

The team presently leading in GAA volleyball tournament play is the U-Stompers. Following not far behind are the other teams who are competing for the privilege of having their names placed on the GAA championship board.

Two teams are tied for first place in bowling tournament play. Tied are the Junior team—Strickies, consisting of Sharon Butler, Nancy Burd, Nancy Brust, and Gretchen Van Camp; the Freshman team—the Bowling Pins, consisting of Karen Chappel, Joanne Nelson, Dianne Squair, and Connie Brasch are the contenders.

There will be two more weeks of play before the winner will be officially declared.

Report cards, with both third marking period and semester grades should be completed prior to the opening of school on Wednesday, January thirtieth.

Classes will resume on Monday, January 28 as scheduled.

Exams Scheduled January 23, 24

On Wednesday and Thursday, January 23 and 24, semester examinations will be held at Clarenceville High. Mr. Max Miller, high school principal, posted the schedule of exams, Thursday, January 24.

Regular afternoon classes will be held on Wednesday morning and first and third period examinations will be given in the afternoon. On Thursday, fifth, second, fourth and sixth period examinations will be administered. There will be no school on Friday, January 25.

Students who wish to study in the high school building during examination periods must go to the study hall or gym bleachers. Students will not be allowed in the halls or in the lavatories except with approved passes, Mr. Millard stated.

Report cards, with both third marking period and semester grades should be completed prior to the opening of school on Wednesday, January thirtieth.

Classes will resume on Monday, January 28 as scheduled.

C.H.S. Debate Team Splits

Clarenceville High School debaters traveled to Northville Tuesday, January 8 for the third Wayne-Oakland League Debate. The affirmative team composed of Sharon Edgar and Mary Ann Crouch was dropped by Clarkson's negative team, while the C.H.S. negative won by default to West Bloomfield.

West Bloomfield has withdrawn from the W.O.C.L. debate and new arrangements will be made in the current debate schedule. The next league debate will be held on January 27, 1957 at Bloomfield High School.

Miss Marilyn Anderson coaches the Clarenceville Debate squad. Miss Anderson also serves as chairman of W.O.C.L. debate league.

this question:

In a small office such as mine, there doesn't seem to be much chance for an employee to get hurt. Still, there's the paper cutter, some electric office machines, and a couple of steps to climb. Are workmen's compensation insurance rates geared down for a small-risk business like mine?
