Plan To Sponsor German Family

The by word at Trinity Episcopal Church as of late is—"The Surek's are coming."
The Surek's family is composed of Erich, father, Hildegard, mother, and 19 year old Thaddeus, their son. They make up a refugee family from Germany whom the members of the Trinity Episcopal Church have decided to obligate themselves to resettle.
A committee of ten women from the church are now busy engaged in seeking housing, employment, furnishings, food, etc. in preparation for the family's arrival here sometime this month.
Erich has worked as an automobile body builder and miner. Hildegard as a saleswoman and Thaddeus as a minor. It is reported that the committee reports that any support or advice which can be given or help can be given in any way is asked to contact Mrs. Heit at GR. 4-5210.

Plan Men's Night At Area Church

Thursday, February 14, marks the first Men's Night at North Congregational Church. North-western Highway and Lahser.
It will be held in the nature of a box supper at 7 p.m. Reverend Ralph H. Read, minister of North Church, has secured Reverend Herman F. Reissig, International Relations Secretary of the Congregational Christian Churches, as speaker of the evening.
Reverend Reissig, in his early career, held several pastorates before becoming active in international affairs. Between 1938 and 1941, he made five trips to Europe as exchange preacher and relief director, and has in recent years visited 26 countries.
His talk, "My Trip to the Soviet Union with Observations on the World Situation and the Near East," will be based on his observations of the world situation with special emphasis on conditions in the Near East.
Reverend Read will introduce the speaker. All men interested in hearing Reverend Reissig's talk are invited to attend.

First Methodist Plans Pot-Luck Supper Series

The First Methodist Church of Farmington announced a series of pot-luck suppers for February 8, 15, and 22.

Mrs. Leonard Stidwell, president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, states that each family is asked to bring dishes and silverware, milk and rolls for their own family's use as well as a dish to pass and share with others.

Ross Patterson, chairman of the Commission on Social Education and Action, and Bert Fyov, chairman of the Commission on Education, state that a fine series of programs is planned for these events. They extend a warm welcome to all to join with the Methodist Church on these Friday evenings for a time of fellowship as well as spiritual and social enlightenment.

Three separate programs will be offered for the adults, each one running concurrently with the others. The speaker for the "Family Life Series" in February 8 will be Reverend Donald Schroeder, director of Family Life Education of the Detroit Council of Churches and his topic will be "Helping Our Children Reach Maturity."

A talk and discussion on "The Social Creed of the Methodist Church" will be led by Reverend James Bratton, Executive Director for Council for Social Education and Action of the Methodist Church and his topic will be "Social and Economic Relations."

The third program is called "Pot Luck for the Mind"—and that is just what it is. For February 8, three films will be presented: "Quest for the Red Trail," "The Littlest Giant," and "Remodeling with Red Cedar."

Special programs and nursery care will be offered for children of all ages.

These programs are being prepared to serve the family as a whole, officials said. Keeping that in mind, it is hoped that the evening's activities will be close by 8:30 p.m. so that the younger members of the family will not be too fatigued by the program. Those planning to attend are asked to call the church office GR. 4-6273.

Grace Lutheran Orains Deacons And Elders Jan. 27

A Valentine luncheon and card party will be given by the Ladies Guild of Grace Lutheran Church, Grand River at Imperial Highway, on Wednesday, February 13 beginning at 12:00 p.m. Mrs. Emma DePotey and Mrs. Dorothy Kirsch are in charge of the affair.

The Men's Club of Grace Church will hold its next meeting on Thursday, February 7, with supper beginning at 6:15 p.m. Walter Schmitz, president, will preside at the meeting following the meal.

The Mr. and Mrs. Club will meet next Saturday, February 9, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schmitz, 3284 Hillcrest, Farmington. This will be a Valentine Party and will begin at 8 p.m. On Sunday, January 27, the Rev. Victor Halboth confirmed 41 adults.

Revival Services To Open At Assembly Of God

A one-week revival will be open Sunday morning, February 17, at the Farmington Assembly of God Church, at 2920 Grand River Avenue.

Reverend David E. Pace, evangelist, will be speaker at both the morning and evening services at the church on Sunday. He will also speak at nightly evening services throughout the week.

The public is extended a cordial invitation to attend any of the revival services.

Children balk at a heavy breakfast. Don't coax—give them small portions and variety instead. Real molasses works magic with many breakfast standbys. Add a teaspoon to hot or cold cereal. Molasses butter on toast encourages young appetites, too. Add a little molasses to a glass of milk and watch milk disappear to the last drop.

Farm, First Presbyterian Church

The congregation of the First Presbyterian Church of Farmington elected for a three year term Deacons: Mrs. James Robertson, Deacon Floyd Seeley and Deacon Wilbur Steinkamp. Elder Harold Wilham Johnson, Elder Donald Liphardt and Elder Benjamin J. Dearing. These new elders and deacons were ordained at the regular Saturday morning service on January 27.

Elder Max Sowers of this church was elected Elder Commissioner to General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A. The general assembly will meet in Omaha the third week of May.

Conversation and bible study periods have been resumed at the Knox House on Thursday evenings at 8 p.m. Questions and ideas presented by participants are discussed at these sessions.

Twenty new members were received into the church membership last Sunday morning at a communion service.

The Sr.-Hi-Westminster Fellowship is to be in charge of both Sunday morning services next week. Terry Davis, Dennis Liphardt and Shyl Lange will be the speakers and Elaine Hanson will assist a solo. Other young people from this group will take other parts of the service.
