

Councilman Wants Badge

FARMINGTON Hills Councilman William Orman asked Public Safety Director Ronald Holko to see if he could get badges for the city council, when the director presented a request for new badges for the police and fire departments.

The proposal was met with silence by the remainder of the council.

Holko asked for $2,000 to change the badges, and put new decals on the squad cars marking the change from "Farmington Township" to "Farmington Hills."
