

Fitness Competition Planned For Festival

The U.S. Marine Corps and the Founders Festival will present for the first time a youth physical fitness competition on Thursday, July 26, opening day of the four-day event.

A five part sequence of events will be used for each entrant in four categories: 11-12, 13-14, 15-16, and 17-18. Girls and boys are invited to participate in the event.

Special trophies, ribbons and certificates will be awarded after the judging.

Entry forms must be filled out before the event and can be picked up at the Farmington Chamber of Commerce office, or from Sgt. Jack Armstrong of the Marine recruiting office in Livonia. Late applications cannot be accepted.

Entry deadline is Monday, July 16.

Seeking Festival Publicity?

FARMINGTON
Chairmen of all events in the Farmington Founders Festival are urged to contact the Farmington Enterprise and Observer before Friday, July 13 with information about their activities. A special section dealing with details of all the events of the four-day celebration is being prepared.

To be included in the section, activity chairmen should contact this newspaper with details of the events as soon as possible. Ask for Farmington Editor Dan McCosh or Doug Johnson.

Calendar

FILM CLASSIC

Thursday, July 12, at 7 p.m. in the Farmington Public Library, 30737 W. 12 Mile Rd., the Humphrey Bogart classic, "Treasure of the Sierra Madre," will be shown. Admission is free.

SENIOR CITIZENS

Friday, July 13, at noon, the Senior Citizens Social Club of Farmington will meet in the First United Methodist Church social room, Warner and Grand Rivers. Cards and games will follow the lunch.

LET ASTRO HELP YOU STOP WASTING GAS

If your car hasn't been tuned up in the past six months, you could be wasting 20 per cent of the gas you buy. On one tank of gas per week, that means about every five weeks, some $8.00 worth of gas goes out your car's exhaust! In six more months that could cost you $40.00! The Car Care Council recommends a tune-up to help you get approximately three miles more per gallon of gas. Let Astro help you improve your gas mileage. Call 455-5610 for details about our --
