WEST POINT PARK NEWS

MISS L. A. AULT
Phone GR. 4-4294

Friday, March 1, in Mt. Carmel Hospital, Detroit, a 9 pound, 11 ounce son, Joseph Frances, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Centers of Westmore Avenue. Mrs. Centers' mother, Mrs. Sexton, from Cleveland, has, for the last ten days, been at the Centers' home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith of W. Eight Mile Road are new grandparents. Sunday, March 3, son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Alan Smith of Lathers Avenue, Livonia. Alan Smith is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith.

Announcement has been made of the birth of a daughter, Sharon Lynne Kay to Mr. and Mrs. Dal Sullivan, in Highland Park. The new father is of the Tallman family who until recently resided on Mayfield Avenue.

Children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Ault gathered at the family home on Shady Side Avenue, Sunday, March 3, and tendered a rousing celebration to Mr. Ault, whose birthday had been the Wednesday previous.

At the home of his daughter, Mrs. George Thorne, near Ypsilanti, Sunday, March 3, a festive birthday party honored the birthday of Austin Ault, Brentwood Avenue. All Michigan members of the Ault family were present. He was presented with a number of handsome gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. John Aittama of Shady Side Avenue were in attendance Wednesday evening, March 6, at a celebration honoring the 5th birthday of their eldest grandchild, Gill Ellen Highland. The party was held at the home of the little girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Holland in Detroit.

Announcement was recently made of the betrothal of Paul Centers of Farmington Road and Miss Mary Lou Gade of Birmingham.

Richard Varhol of the U.S. Navy, stationed in Philadelphia, spent last weekend visiting among relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Mrs. Louis Jennings of Norfolk Avenue and Mrs. V. C. Reddy of Shady Side Avenue were visiting in Lambertville Wednesday. Returning with them was Mrs. Jennings' daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Smith who, for a time, will be a guest at the Jennings' home.

Mrs. Homer Coolman of Shady Side Avenue, spent a few days of this past week visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Norbert Schmidt and her family in Delaware.

Mrs. Clarence Parks and her daughter Mrs. Ralph Phillips of Hubbard Avenue, accompanied by the former's mother-in-law, Mrs. Parks, of Parker Avenue spent Tuesday with relatives in Monroe.

Pheasants are more than plentiful in most parts of West Point Park. Saturday, March 2, one flew through the bedroom window of storm widow and all of the Howard Middlewood home on Farmington Road. Shattered window panes and feathers were scattered all over. The bird was so badly injured that it died soon afterward.

Since Tuesday, Joe Roberts of Mayfield Avenue, has been a patient under observation at the Veterans Hospital in Dearborn. Mrs. Roberts and a neighbor, Mrs. Helton, visited him Wednesday evening.

Peter, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stoughton, recently of Wooding Avenue, Livonia, though now residing near Milford, underwent surgery at Harper Hospital Tuesday. He has now returned home and is reported convalescing satisfactorily.

David Hankins, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hankins, Norfolk Avenue, is quite ill.

The first week in March is birthday week at the Dick Fellrath home. Mrs. Fellrath's birthday is on the 4th, was celebrated with two parties, one given by friends in Dearborn and another by friends in Huntington Woods. Virginia celebrated on the 5th with a family dinner party.

Ann Felrath has been notified that she is a winner in the Detroit News contest for high school students in the writing field. Ann, who is 15 and attends Our Lady of Sorrows High School, chose as her subject "Automobile Town—USA."

A complete list of the winners will appear in the Detroit News March 24, and awards will be given at Rackham Memorial Building, May 2.

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Schlottbeck are rejoicing with the arrival of their new granddaughter, Julia Ann, born to their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gary Lynn on Thursday, March 7, at Detroit Osteopathic Hospital. The baby weighed 7 pounds, 3 ounces.

The Lynns will stay with the Schlottbecks for several weeks before returning to their home in Ypsilanti.

A record number of ladies turned out last Tuesday for the celebration of the Woodcreek Farms Women's Association. Among the 29 present were several newcomers: Sunny LaFaye, Maxine Dowling, Genevieve Shepherd and Agnes Wright.

Cosponsors were Pat Tenney and Betty Mereshak.

Bits Of News from Kendallwood

MRS. G. T. BIRD
GR. 4-3459

Kendallwood is about to have 22 new T.V. actors residing in the subdivision. The Clubmaster has arranged with Harry Averill, an executive of CKLW and a Kendallwood resident, to send some of Cub Scout Pack 123 boys to participate in the Justice Colt Show, Channel 9, at 4 p.m. Friday and Monday.

There were 9 boys who earned more than one award since the Pack was formed, so they were selected. All other boys had one or no awards so the balance of the boys going are the sons of parents who are most active in the Pack.

Don Benner has chosen the following to go on Monday, March 18, driven by James Cate: Richard Ryndak, Phil Lassiter, Jim and Bill Cate, Ricky North, Bob J. Davis, Dale Graczyk, Lewis Grusec, David Thomas, Lynn Patrick (tied for 2nd place in awards earned), and Forrest Hayford (1st place winner). Driven by Fred C. O. K. Jewart Blaskely, Robert V. Davis, Bill Oldershaw, Larry Pederson, 30 Stevens, Mike Coles, Ricky Maki, Ricky Nye (third place in awards earned) and Randy Benner (tied for 2nd place).

Treasurer, William McNeill, reports that Kendallwood was the first association to contribute its share of the expense of the current investigations which may lead to a League of Subdivision Associations. The Temporary Organization has budgeted such expense at $50.00, with the share per association set at $5.00.
