DANCER'S DEPARTMENT STORES

Among the rare books and manuscripts which Mrs. Brewer displayed were a Nuremberg Chronicle published in 1493, some copies of original pages of the Gutenberg Bible and a first edition, 1718, of Robinson Crusoe. She also showed samples of rare book bindings and art work in wood cuttings and metal work.

Criticizes Present Township Board

Dear Sir:

With the coming of spring we begin once again to hear the pleadings of the citizens, "our street is impassable, can't we have something done? Why should we, year after year have to beg to have this work done?"

At the last meeting of the Township Board a resident and taxpayer offered to share the cost of having his street made passable.

When you sit and listen to a resident there is twenty-three thousand dollars in the road budget, with three weeks of the fiscal year to go, can any intelligent person find an honest answer to the question, "Why should we, year after year have to beg to have this work done?"

At the last meeting of the Township Board a resident and taxpayer offered to share the cost of having his street made passable.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Township Board has obtained a Legal Opinion to the effect that building permits can not be cancelled or denied. However, Certificates of Occupancy can be refused where there are inadequate water and sewer facilities.

People Blamed

To the Editor:

There have been various letters to the Editor for the past month or so—blaming the Republicans for the thirty-year water shortage, the lack of action on the road situation, the lack of proper book-keeping methods in the township office, the lack of a proper audit of the books, etc.

I would like to bring to the attention of the voters of Farmington Township that in a democracy such as ours the people get exactly the type of government they deserve, as the elected officials are put in there by the people, and can be removed by the people. Apparently, the majority of the people have been satisfied with the situation in Farmington Township for the past thirty years.

The present sad state of affairs is not the fault of the present incumbents. It should be laid at the door of the unregistered Democratic voters in the township who strive to do the job all year, not only at election time.

Farmington Township passed away suddenly at her home on Sunday morning, March 10.

Mrs. Lahr was born December 20, 1895 in Woodstock, Ontario. She attended school in Woodstock and on May 26, 1911 was united in marriage to Fred W. Lahr, Mr. and Mrs. Lahr have lived in Farmington for the past 33 years.

Funeral services took place on Tuesday at 2 p.m. from the Thayer Funeral Home with Reverend Henry Butterworth of United Church, Detroit, officiating. Interment took place in Glen Eden Memorial Cemetery.

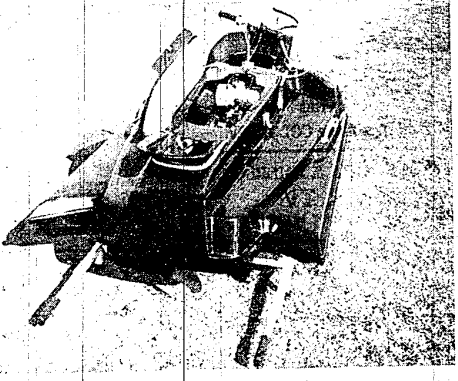

Surviving besides her husband are one daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Brackon of Farmington and three sons, Fred W. of Northville, Jack of Stanton, Michigan and Robert of Southfield Township. She also leaves one brother, Ed Trotter of Woodstock, Ontario and ten grandchildren.

complain bitterly at the Township Board meetings and to their groups of friends, but do not take the trouble of registering and voting, and expressing their opinions and desires in the usual democratic manner. It is a matter of record that there are more Democrats than Republicans, yet our Republican friends seem to have more community spirit and more interest in the affairs of our community. If you are an unregistered Democrat, YOU ARE TO BLAME!!!

Warner Farms Assn. To Meet March 19

A general meeting of the Warner Farms Improvement Association will be held on Tuesday, March 19, at the Farmington Senior High School cafeteria starting at 8 p.m. All residents of Warner Farms Subdivision have been invited to attend.

A major item of business to be conducted will be to vote on proposed revisions in the present by-laws of the association.

When a recipe says to let your yeast dough rise 'til double in bulk, it simply means that the impression made by one finger in the side of the risen dough or by two fingers plunged into the top of a ball of risen dough remains there instead of filling up again.

To Give Fish Chip Dinner At Orchard Methodist

A fish and chip dinner will be sponsored by the Adult Fellowship of the Orchard Methodist Church at the church on Friday evening, March 15. Dinners will be served starting at 5:30 p.m. and continuing until 7 p.m.

An invitation is extended to all in the community to attend. Tickets may be obtained at the door. Proceeds from the dinner will be used for a new church building fund.
