Springbrook Civic News

Mildred Hug
GR. 4-1926

The Springbrook Civic Association is resuming publication this week with a new correspondent, Donna Lord and Harriet Kierchner did such a good job of writing, that it was sorely missed when circumstances forced them to drop it. We hope we can make it as interesting.

Ed and Vera Smith have received news via postcard of ex-residents Billy and Loretta Trueman. They are touring the South, currently stopping at Pompano Beach, Florida. They plan to return to their Osceola home after May 1.

A polo clinic was held Wednesday evening March 27 at Our Lady of Sorrows Parish Hall. This is one of the first projects sponsored by the newly organized Parents Teachers Association. Mrs. Robert Hug, this year's president, and Mrs. W. Brennan were in charge of arrangements.

The Womans Suburban Golf League, had a record turnout Tuesday March 19, at Glen Oaks Golf Club for a combined luncheon and business meeting. Peggy Mork, Alice Ferner and Mildred Hug, the three of the members who plan to play. The Tuesday group is closed but at this writing the Friday group had ten openings.

Twelve women of the subdivision met last Thursday evening to form a circle of Our Lady of Sorrows Star Society. Jo Cervin, Vera Smith, Helen Hug, Peggy Lorenger, Mildred Hug, Virginia Grand, Anabel Fitzpatrick, Willie Ulbrich, San Brandwell, Dorothy Cody, Phyllis Orlovski were those present. The group began work on ideas for the Christmas Fair in November.

The Jim Cody's of Westmoreland were sponsors March 17 for their little niece Kathleen O'Malley of Flint. The ceremony took place in Dexter since both sets of grandparents reside there.

March 17 was the day chosen by Mrs. Bernard Lorenger for her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Werts of Dearborn. It was Mrs. Werts' 81st birthday. A centerpiece composed of a shillelagh, brought from Roscommon County, Ireland, by Peggy's grandfather and green leprechauns (ceramic) were a highlight of the party.

Don Pember, Jerry Badaluce and Linda Chambers, three teens of the subdivision, received honors recently. Don, son of Cecil and Ward Pember, and Linda, daughter of Jan and John Chambers, were elected to the National Honor Society for outstanding scholastics and leadership qualities. Jerry, son of Pete and Peggy Badaluce, was made an Eagle Scout, scoring the highest honor, when Troop 10 held their Court of Honor in February.

Mrs. and Mrs. John Tice of Lake and Drive had the pleasure of entertaining Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lesperance of Cleveland, Ohio, last weekend. An evening at home with mutual friends and dinner at the Detroit Yacht Club were two of the diversions planned for the guests.

KENDALLWOOD NEWS

The Kendallwood Association will hold their semi-annual meeting April 1, at the Farmington Senior High School at 7:45 p.m.

The Board of Directors met recently to discuss final arrangements and short written committee reports. There are many matters involved in trying to make a truly fine community that time on the agenda must be percolated out carefully and these matters will be discussed at the meeting.

Area directors will be elected and membership cards are required to vote.

The following men have been nominated by the Nominations Committee as Area Directors—Southeast: Mickey Harris and Joseph Ziska; Southwest: Pat Beurie and Raymond Eckley; Northeast: Robert MacLaren, Thomas Johnson and Dawson Munro; North: Roy Rystand and Jack Shy; Middle Area: Thomas Czubiak and William Mathews.

Additional nominations may be made from the floor at the meeting. Refreshments will be served!

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Day of Bayview Road entertained twenty guests at an evening buffet Saturday evening celebrating the Detroit Industrial Hockey League Championship for 1956-57. Paul Day is a member of the team that won the league championship. Their guests were team members and their wives all of Detroit.

The Sewing Club will hold their meeting Tuesday, April 2, at the home of Mrs. Thomas Smith, 2819 Cherry Brook Road. Everyone is welcome. Prizes will be given.

The men of Kendallwood II have had two meetings recently, both held at the home of Robert Backoff, 28282 Kendallwood Drive. The first meeting with a favorable turnout led to a working committee meeting held Tuesday, March 26. Plans are now underway to ward forming a men's organization in Kendallwood II.

There has been an excellent response for hostesses at parties to raise funds for the Community House during the month of March stated Mrs. Allen Heyn, co-chairman of the Drive.

Some of the women who have volunteered as hostesses are: Mrs. George Cairns who had three tables of cards with prizes won by Mrs. Joseph Ziska, a lapel pin donated by Von Burg's Jewelry, and Mrs. Edmund Jara, cologne donated by Oak Pharmacy. Hostess Mrs. Harold Pederson entertained her bridge group and Mrs. Richard Armstrong won a set of cello plates donated by Gamble's Hardware.

Another hostess was Mrs. Basil Crouse and the prize at her party was won by Mrs. Orla Orthals, a certificate from Melody House. Hostess Mrs. Gerald Thayer has three tables of bridge. Mrs. Philip Lock won cologne and dusting powder donated by Bradley Rexall Drugs and Mrs. Paul Payton won a wall plaque donated by Bel Aire 5 & 10.

Robert Nelson of Hawberry Road an active organizer for a League of Subdivision Associations, is currently requesting time on the agenda of Subdivision Association meetings to explain and answer questions concerning the proposal for a League of Subdivision Associations.

Cub Scout Pack 153 of the Kendallwood area will hold a meeting Thursday, March 28 at 7:30 p.m. at Farmington Senior High School in the Band Room. Through the month of March each Den has been following an Indian theme and making Indian articles. At the Pack meeting Donald Renner will be in full dress as an Indian Chief.
