Political Advertisements

Dobar Sir:

A petition went up and down our street to renominate Judge J. Schulte for Municipal Judge. I hesitafed to sign as I do not know Judge Schulte. It was quickly explained that signing the petition would not hold me to any promise and that it was just to get a list of names for nomination.

tion.

Now, why should the names of people signing the petition be princed in the paper in advertising form to help re-elect Judge Schule? I do not like this and I do not intend to be held to any promise to yote for him.

A Yoter

Dear Sir:
Il wish to object to the use of my name in a political advertisement because I had signed a nominating petition.
Il have signed many such petitions for various offices and have solicited them on other occasions. However, a nominating petition mether implies support nor permits public use of the name of the signer.
Constant bublic use of the signer of the
