Around The Circle In Staman Acres

MRS. WILLIAM SMITH GR. 4-8292

It is pleasant to say Happy Easteride and welcome to two old neighbors who have moved into Staman Acres recently. Lilian and Ed Bylski, 3207 Rocky Crest Road, have been busy settling in. Ed most certainly has been seen working on his drive and yard.

The Bylskis have three children: Julie Anne, 3, Jeffrey, almost 2, and Allan, 8 months. The family moved here from North-west Detroit and Ed has a short jaunt to work each morning to the Lincoln plant of the Ford Motor Company.

Ness and Barney (Bernard) Polard, farther down on Rocky Crest, in their attractive tri-level, moved to the Acres from Dearborn. They have four children, starting with Agnes, 11, through Cynthia, 8, Barney, Jr., 6, and a Patty, 2. Barney is in business with his father in Detroit. The company known as the B. J. Polard Company.

The Staman Sitchers pinning meeting will be held next Thursday morning at 9 o'clock sharp in the home of Charlotte Waskowski. Her address is 3176 Stamen Circle. Anyone wishing to join the group is welcome to do so. Call Charlotte at GR 4-6615 if you are a new pinner or a regular member intended to attend.

Doris Ann Carruthers celebrated her birthday April 3 with a real old fashioned birthday party given by Mrs. In Carruthers, in her home on Rocky Crest Road. Those in attendance included Randi and Cheryl Lutzen, Ronita Westfall, Mike Brock, Mark Deong huc, Keith Larson, Jimmy Ellis, and Debbie Schaffer.

Last Thursday the Carruthers family packed up for an Easter trip to Illa's home in Kane Pennsylvania. It was to be a family reunion with Illa's two sisters and children from Eric and Hopwood. Pennsylvania, and her brother and his three boys from Kane. Of course, the reunion centered around Mom and Dad, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McCauley.

Visitors from Pittsburgh greeted the Unks of Orchard Lake Road recently. It was a surprise for Millie and Ray and the three boys, when Aunt, Mrs. Leah Loper, and her son and his family Mr. and Mrs. Richard Loper, Jimmy, Timmy, and Danny, knocked on the door, and they greeted their relatives with true Staman Acres spirit.

Millie had previously outdone the fate that did Ed Wheeler. It seems Margaret and Leo Sivy and Margaret and Ed Wheeler were planning to see "My Fair Lady" together but Ed intercepted Ed before he had time to slip the tickets in his pocket, and he was sick-shed the night night. The Sivy and Margaret Wheeler graciously asked Millie to go in his stead and Millie just as graciously consented. Her report was that it was marvelous and the service for Ed, she enjoyed the play twice as much, once for him.

With the dawn of Easter came a birthday for the same Mr. Wheeler, and helping him celebrate with Easter breakfast after attending Mass at Our Lady of Sorrows Church were the same Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler. They invited Margaret and Leo Sivy and Charlotte and Vic Waskowski to come by later to toast their neighbor, Ed, in an Easter and birthday drink.

Theater goes last week, too, were Pat and Jack Burke and Joe (one yours truly) and Bill Smith. The play was "Dinner at Eight" and it was refreshingly done with never a dull moment and many a happy one provided by the lively and young actors on stage. After the Tuesday night performance the couples stopped in at Chuck's Red Lion for pleasant rehashing of the night's entertainment.

Gwynne Hart was confirmed a week ago Sunday at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. She is the daughter of Gladys and Dick Hart of Rocky Crest Road. Following the Easter Sunday Confirmation service her parents gave a reception in their home, serving buffet supper to thirty-five relatives and friends. Those from Farmington included Betty Fulcher, Julia West, Janice Schweitzer, and Steven Schultz.

Spring surely has come and a sure sign is a small boy and his accidents. The first, and we'd like to hope the last, of this year befell Randy Haines, four year old son of Jean and J. R. Haines, of Staman Court.

Ready and several playmates were on territory usually designated as "Off Limits" by parents, and usually the best place to play, according to small children. He suffered a broken arm but was glimpsed playing as nonchalantly as ever by your correspondent last Saturday afternoon.

We will say this mishap caused a stern lecture at our house and in several others we know of, warning the kid kiddies to stay away from houses under construction and from any equipment parked near them.

It is with mixed feelings that I write my farewell to the Staman Acres column. Though true, that's true. I am sorry to have to say I shall be too busy to write the news about my friends, but glad I can pick up the Enterprise from now on and read real news about the Acres that I didn't know about before! And the luxury of not worrying about next week's deadline... that I'll enjoy.

I hope you will continue to have fun, work hard, and report all to the new correspondent, Colleen Chadwick. Colleen, Mrs. Al Chadwick, lives at 31972 Rocky Crest Drive, with husband and son Glen. Her phone number is GR 4-6863, so call in your glad tidings to Colleen regularly, or drop the notes in her mailbox. Thank you.
