Final Preparations Being Made For Symphony Here Sunday

Final preparations are now being made for the presentation of the second annual concert of the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra to be given at the Farmington Senior High School auditorium on Shawassee Road this Sunday afternoon. The concert will begin at 4 o'clock.

WAYNE DUNLAP

Planned as a family affair, music which should appeal to all age groups will be played. Among the selections to be played by the symphony orchestra will be "The Carnival of the Animals" by Saint-Saens, "The Overture to Il Trovatore" by Giuseppe Verdi, "Symphony Fantastique" by Berlioz, "Dance of the Comedians" from "The Bartered Bride" by Smetana, "Pleasure Train Polka" by Strauss, and Sousa's "Stars and Stripes Forever." Conductor of the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra is Wayne Dunlap.

The Arts Committee of the Farmington Branch of the American Association of University Women is sponsoring the symphony concert here again this year for the entertainment of Farmington area families and aid for financial gain. Students studying musical instruments in the Farmington and Clarencville schools will receive complimentary tickets to the concert from their respective band instructors.

The Arts Committee has stated that a large attendance is anticipated and urges all persons wishing to attend to purchase their tickets in advance. No one will be admitted to the auditorium during the first number, it was pointed out. Both individual and family tickets will be sold. They may be purchased at the Melodie House on Farmington Road or by calling either GR 4-6281 or MA 6-3899.

James Sweet Completes Training At Great Lakes

James P. Sweet, son of Dave Sweet of 27533 Shawassee Road, graduated from recruit training April 6, at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Illinois.

The nine weeks of "boot camp" included drill and instruction in seamanship, gunnery, life saving, sea survival, boat handling, and the use of small arms.

Following two weeks leave, graduates report to shipboard duties or service schools, depending on the qualifications each has demonstrated.

Herb Philbrick To Speak In Area

As a non-profit community project a group of Redford Township residents have incorporated to bring a new kind of culture to the area in the form of a Town Hall Series. The eventual aim of the group is to use any excess funds to build a community center building.

The first and only speaker of the current season is Herbert A. Philbrick, author of "I Led Three Lives," who will appear at Thurston High School, 26255 Schoolcraft, May 3 at 8 p.m. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

In the fall a series of six lectures is planned with Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt as the tentative first speaker commencing in October.

Goodwill Pick-Up Scheduled April 29
