Bel-Air Hills News Tidbits

MRS. H. ALLEN
GR. 4-6141

The kindergarten children in Bel-Air enjoyed an outing to the zoo last Friday. They went with their classes and teachers of the Ten Mile School.

The Past Worthy Advisors of Rainbow Victory Assembly, numbering thirty-one, held their annual card party at the home of Mrs. Frank Nelson on Lamar Drive on May 20.

An evening of playing pinocle was preceded by a look at the latest in jewelry shown by Mrs. Wendell Johnson. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served. Twenty-eight persons were present including Mrs. Nelson's mother, Mrs. Frank Nelson of Detroit, and Mrs. A. Nowels, Mrs. Ralph Yoder, and Mrs. James Atkinson of Farmington.

Mrs. Elwood Sutter of Lamar Drive enjoyed a week's visit from her sister, Miss Eleanor Troutman, recently. Miss Troutman was visiting from Charlotte, North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. William Filochowski of Prospect, enjoyed a recent visit from their daughter, Second Lt. Shirley Filochowski. Shirley is stationed at the Lowry Air Force Base Hospital in Denver, Colorado.

With only four days left, Shirley flew to Willow Run Airport, where she was met by her parents, and after a brief one day visit, drove back to the base in her automobile. Shirley is hoping for a longer leave soon to spend with her parents and visit her neighbors and friends.

Mrs. Kenneth Hill of Leelanau Road was the hostess for a luncheon at her home on Friday. Guests were Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mrs. Bud Coleman, and Mrs. John Rowe. The occasion was the birthday of Mrs. Johnson.

Mrs. Abe Frankford, Mrs. Byron Sutherland, Mrs. Warren Edmonds, Mrs. William Engstrom and Mrs. Betty Williams enjoyed an evening together in Detroit on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Baker and children, Jimmy and Sharon, of Colchester, returned Monday evening from a ten day vacation. The Baker family drove through the Shenandoah National Park on the Skyline Drive, visiting the Skyline Caverns. They followed the Blue Ridge Parkway to Mount Mitchell with an elevation of 8975. They visited Natural Bridge in Virginia and spent an enjoyable time visiting at the Cherokee Indian Reservation in Cherokee, North Carolina.

Crossing the Smoky Mountains they spotted a mother bear and her babies as they traveled. The Bakers enjoyed the Algonquin Museum at Oak Ridge, Tennessee, and on the return home stopped to see friends in Knoxville, Tennessee, Cincinnati, Ohio, and Lorraine, Ohio.

Mrs. Irene Sutter was hostess for a Pinocle Club at her home on Lamar, May 18. The members who were present were Mrs. Mary Miller, Mrs. Joan Borchardt, Mrs. Lois Motylinski, Mrs. Ann Ball, Mrs. Al Campbell, Mrs. Margie Joiner, Mrs. Verna Kulbaba, Mrs. Joan Maloney, Mrs. Pat Gearin and Mrs. Mary Moss.

Bill Schrader's bowling team, The Pick-Ups, of the American Legion Leagues, won the Championship honor this year. Mr. Schrader bowled in the Bowling Tournament of Champions in Lincoln Park last Saturday evening. Mr. Norman Curtis, a neighbor, was a substitute on the team.

Mrs. Willis Gregory of Lamar, is reportedly improving after an

Mansfields To Leave For Europe In June

When the American Bar Association convenes in London, England, the week of July 24, Walter A. Mansfield of Farmington, long active in Association affairs, will be one of those in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield are flying to Paris in June, sightseeing about the continent in advance of their arrival in London. They will return from Southampton on the Queen Mary, arriving at their home on Spring Valley Drive about the middle of August.

IT'S A BOY

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Wilcox of 28455 Hawberry Road are the proud parents of a baby boy, Michael R., born May 14 at William Beaumont Hospital.

The baby, who weighed 6 pounds and 11 ounces, was greeted at home by the two other Wilcox children. Also welcoming his arrival home were maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L.F. Scribner of Detroit and paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray B. Wilcox of Holly, Michigan. Mrs. Wilcox is the former Marjorie Scribner.

Engstrom and Carol Murphy. The menu consisted of sloppy joe, carrot sticks, some macaroni and milk, followed by toasted marshmallows.

The Brownies went for a hike on the Sassafras Trail looking for four things along the way, something to see, hear, touch and smell and at the end of the trail these things were discussed.

Mrs. Lee O'Connor and Mrs. Frank Nelson the troop leaders were helped out by Mrs. Bruce Simonsen, chairman of the committee mothers.

All in all the Schraders visited the states, Washington, D. C., New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Ohio, Delaware, Virginia, West Virginia, and Maryland, returning home through Canada.

Lee O'Connor of Lamar has been elected President of the Ford Players in Dearborn, it was disclosed this week.

After the disappointment of being rained out four times before, Brownies Troop 519 finally went on a full fledged cook-out last Friday to Kensington Park.

They met by pre-arrangement, Brownies Troop 122, under the leadership of Mrs. Richard Leiby, on the Sassafras Trail in the Spring Hill picnic area.

The two troops sang songs and enjoyed a square dance together and then Troop 519 continued on their cook-out.

The Brownies pulled capers for their different jobs. The four cooks named out to be Pamela Edmonds, Sherry Charboneau, Carol Paulson, and Alexa Larson. The fire builders were Susan Bliss, Linda Moss, Barbara Brown and Pamela Nelson. Hostesses were Sandra Simonsen, Maureen O'Connor and Andrea Guinan and ground keepers were Pamela Davis and Cathy Williamson. Sufferers (dishwashers) were Laura Hunt, Sherry

Democratic Club To Meet June 5

The next meeting of the Farmington Democratic Club will be held Wednesday, June 5, at 8 p.m. at the Eastford Inn.

State Representative Ed Carey of Detroit, minority leader in the State House of Representatives, will be guest speaker. President Ted Zukosky said. Representative Carey is an accomplished and entertaining speaker, he said, and those attending will have an opportunity to learn more about the legislative processes of State government in Lansing.

Everyone is welcome to attend.

William Iloff of Mayfield Avenue, celebrated his 68th birthday Thursday, May 23. Although still a patient in Providence Hospital, relatives and friends did not forget him. He hopes to be home soon.
