Mrs. I. Knapp — MA. G-3833

Final preparations are now being made for the benefit dance to be held this Saturday night, June 8, by the Pernambuco Hollow Farm Bureau at the Granger Dance Hall at 27450 Eleven Mile Road. Proceeds from the dance will be turned over to the Sister Kenny Polio Foundation.

Mrs. William Knapp spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. A. Mercer.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Heliker and family spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heliker at Howell where a birthday dinner was prepared for Mrs. Richard Heliker and her daughter, Connie.

Dickie Heliker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Heliker, fractured his wrist on Memorial Day while playing with a group of other children. He was taken to Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital for treatment.

Mrs. May H. Pederson of 6230 W. Maple Road who formerly lived in this area, was buried Tuesday afternoon from the Spencer-Henry Funeral Home. She died Saturday at the age of 53. Left to survive her besides her husband, Otto, is one son, Harold, of Walley Lake, her father and two sisters in Norway. Burial was in North Farmington Cemetery.

The Pernambuco Hollow Farm Bureau met May 21 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Howard at 26245 Halsted Road with approximately 35 members attending.

A discussion on bills before the legislative bodies was conducted. Further plans were also made for the Farm Bureau Dance to be held at Granger's Dance Hall at 27450 Eleven Mile Road on Saturday night, June 8. Proceeds from the dance will be turned over to the Sister Kenny Polio Foundation.

Wallace Williams led members in attendance in recreational activities.

The next meeting of the Farm Bureau will be held on June 18 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Bachelor.

Club Celebrates Anniversary

The Guys and Dolls Teen Club, sponsored by the Clarenceville Optimists and Opti-Mrs., held a free dance last Friday to celebrate their first anniversary.

"The Mystery's" one of the teens favorite bands went all out to help them celebrate. A dozen top hit records and free passes were given away.

Marge Roberts presented Mrs. Ward Clemens with a beautiful corsage on behalf of the teens. Mrs. Clemens had been instrumental in putting the teen club into existence and is a favorite with the group.

These dances, held every Friday night at the V.F.W. Hall on 7 Mile near Grand River, will continue through the summer with live bands and entertainment. There will be no dance Friday, June 7, however, as all the Teen clubs are participating in a chartered moonlight on the Bob-Lo Boat. There will be two of the leading bands playing all evening and Jay Zee, the hypnotist, and other celebrities will present their acts. Tickets will be purchased from Mrs. Clemens at KE 2-1564. There will be a KARE bus to pick up the teens at the V.F.W. Hall and will return them after the cruise.

Art, Craft Exhibit Open To Senior Citizens Of Area

Men and women of retirement age who reside in Southeastern Michigan may enter the Senior Citizens Arts and Crafts exhibit again this fall.

Kundig Center, activities and counseling agency for retired citizens, sponsors the program. The exhibit will be held at the Detroit Historical Museum, 5401 Woodward October 18 through November 3. Entries may be made in such art and craft categories as painting, basket weaving, candlemaking, ceramics, copper, metal and leather crafts, crocheting, jewelry, knitting, millinery, needlework, novelties, taxidermy, weaving, woodwork — anything except food, plants or literature.

Price-winning exhibits from previous years may not be entered. Members of the Ecclesiastical Arts Guild of Detroit will judge, awarding first prize and honorable mentions for each category.

Application blanks may be obtained from Kundig Center, 2936 Ash at Lawton, or by calling TASH-moo 6-2455.

"Obviously, there is a point at which the returns from increasing tax rates and new forms of taxation begin to diminish. Certainly, for a state like Nebraska, which is trying to attract industry, the truth is crystal clear. A tolerable tax climate is as important as any of its natural industrial advantages." — Omaha World-Herald, May 7, 1957.
