God's Supreme Power To Be Emphasized
The supremacy and all-power of God - divine Life, Truth and Love - will be emphasized at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Selections to be read from the Bible in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God (19): 'Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed; for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.' "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will also be read.

Plan Bible School At Franklin
The 1957 Daily Vacation Bible School sponsored by Franklin Community Church will be held from July 8 to 19.

Sessions will start at 9:30 a.m. and close at 11:30 a.m. Mondays through Fridays. According to Mr. Richard Pass, director, pupils from 4 years of age through the sixth grade will be accepted.

Franklin children do not need to be members of the local church to participate.

Leaders, in addition to Mrs. Pass, are Mrs. Arthur Hays, Mrs. Robert Swift, Mrs. Robert E. Hays, Mrs. Earl Ramsey, Miss Connie Koch with Miss Janet Marucco being a helper. Registrations are being taken by Mrs. Pass.

Franklin Church To Hear First Guest Minister
The Reverend Charles Leber, Presbyterian Clergyman and pastor of Dodge Community House in Detroit, will be the Summer preacher on Sunday, July 7.

A variable preacher, he is the first of four guest speakers representing three denominations to fill the pulpit during the vacation of the minister, Robert J. Seals.

Because the church maintains an inter-denominational approach in its program it was decided to invite ministers of varying denominations for the summer months.

Summer worship starts at 10:00 a.m.

Nearly 100 To Attend Orchard Methodist Vacation Bible School

The annual Vacation Bible School of the Orchard Methodist Church, 3195 Thirtieth Mile Road near Orchard Lake Road, will begin on Monday, July 8, and will continue through the week of July 19.

The directors stated that a record registration of almost 100 youngsters will attend the school, which will meet daily from 9 to 12.

The theme for the nursery, beginner, and primary departments is "Journeying With Jesus." There will be worksheets, handcrafts, games, songs, and dramatizations, all of which are coordinated with each daily lesson.

The directors stated that because of the large number of youngsters and the limited church facilities, outside space had to be obtained. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Clappison of 4829 Greening have generously given the use of their large new garage, which will make an ideal classroom.

The Reverend Leroy L. Lord, pastor, and the Reverend Edward L. Kitch, assistant pastor, will conduct a special dedication service for the Bible School personnel on Sunday, July 7.

Eighteen enthusiastic leaders and assistants will be in charge of the youngsters through this important course. The department heads and assistants are nursery-Mrs. Dan Reynolds with Mrs. Barry Calhoun and Mrs. Richard Perry; beginner-Mrs. Leonard Perkins; beginners-Mrs. Dan Reynolds with Mrs. Barry Calhoun and Mrs. Richard Perry; intermediate-Mrs. Leonard Perkins; and advanced-Mrs. Dan Reynolds with Mrs. Barry Calhoun and Mrs. Richard Perry.

John Paul Green is home from the hospital now but wearing a cast on his leg. A leg operation which proved necessary was reported successful.

The Farmington Community Theater Association of Michigan, Inc. is sponsoring a one-act playwriting contest for residents of Michigan. The contest is available from Mrs. Nahstoll.

The Community Theater Association of Michigan is sponsoring a one-act playwriting contest for residents of Michigan. The contest is available from Mrs. Nahstoll.

Judges of the contest will be the executive officers of the Community Theater Association of Michigan.

J. F. Carriere, executive director of the Detroit City Theatre, Inc. is chairman of the Playwriting Contest Committee, and the committee are: Jean Henderson and Mrs. J. H. Miller.

At this time the "Our Town" Committee is attempting to contact the officers of all the community groups which may want to contribute to "Our Town."

Already many have been contacted and quite a number have already committed themselves to the contest.

The Farmington Home Demonstration Group holds picnic on Tuesday, June 25, with Mrs. H. McCague as hostess.

Each woman attending brought her chicken and smother dish to pass. Games were played and plans for attending the homemakers conference made. The conference will be held on 22, 23 and 24 of East Lansing.

Attending the picnic were Mrs. E. Marks, Mrs. William Thornton, Mrs. F. Larremore, Mrs. C. May, Mrs. Mary Crider, Mrs. Frank Platz and as a special guest, Mrs. R. Wilson of Homer, Michigan.

Bel-Air Hills News Tidbits

MRS. H. ALLEN GR. 4-6141

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Stowe of 3227 Marlehead Road announced the arrival of a new daughter, Denise Marie, born on June 1 at Mount Carmel Hospital in Detroit. Denise weighed seven pounds and two ounces at birth. She was welcomed home by her two sisters, Annette and Elaine.

Mrs. Stowe's mother, Mrs. Cass Weir, and her three brothers, Don, Dennis and Jeff, are visiting the Stowe family from Los Angeles, California.

Mrs. Ted Muir of Leelanau held an afternoon tea at her home for a few neighbors and friends. The purpose of the tea was to introduce Mrs. Muir's mother, Mrs. William Williams, to her guests. Mrs. Williams was visiting the Muir family from Flint.

Mrs. and Mrs. Ted Muir and sons, Jimmy and Teddy, are now vacationing at their summer cottage at Maceady Lake near Pontiac.

The Cub Scouts had a picnic Sunday afternoon at Farmington City Park. Mrs. Habicht and Mrs. Thomson are the leaders of the Den. Most of the boys in the Den are from Normandy Hills.

The Thomson family attended a birthday picnic supper for Ricky Nien in Kendallwood Sunday.

During the Garden Club Tour of Farmington a week ago, Elizabeth Greer, secretary, hostess at Knox House. Mrs. Steven Seyburn was a guest of the De Greys that week-end.

The members of the Board of the Bel-Air Hills Civic Association met on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Brainerd. A discussion was held on the forthcoming Bel-Air Hills picnic.

The proposal made by the Farmington Management Company which was voted upon and turned down by residents of Bel-Air at a meeting of the Bel-Air Hills Civic Association concerned the erection of a Gulf Oil Station at the corner of Leelanau and Cedar Roads.

It was clearly pointed out this week that the association was not opposed to all types of development on the corner, but was against having a gas station erected there.

For the second year the Farmington Community Theater Association will join the Farmington Garden Club in organizing a fair this year. It will be known as "Our Town" and will be held at the corner of Leelanau and Cedar Roads.

"Our Town" will consist of many concessions including entertainment, food and amusements. The proceeds will be placed in the treasury of the Farmington Area Community House Association.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson of Colchester and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Jones of Leelanau are visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank MacDonald, in the Upper Peninsula. Judy is planning to attend camp at the "Pigpen" in the Upper Peninsula, which will begin on July 7.
