and yellow, with the mod displays that are as sharp and eye-catching as the shoes they carry. The men's department is dignifiedly masculine with olive carpeting and matching leather chairs for a definitely masculine feeling. The display stands throughout are fine distressed oak furniture, sumptuous enough to be a welcome addition to any home. A pleasant place to view the latest styles.

Sears, with its burgeoning business is just completing its 2nd major expansion since 1969. Soon to be completed is a large area for additional storage which will enable Sears to further accommodate their customers and offer even better service.

Crowleys, after expanding their men's ready-to-wear, ladies lingerie department and junior department, will be newly carpeting their whole store this month.

Antique barnwood siding, enclosed window display areas and heavy wrought iron grille doors give a country gentlemen feeling to Shilman's new look. Attentive staff, excellent tailoring, "with it" styled clothes and a new measure of privacy make it a must for male shoppers.

Kresges has just completely remodeled their cafeteria with softer lighting, good food with faster service, and a more relaxed atmosphere. Now open at 9 a.m. they feature a Sunrise breakfast of a country fresh egg, strip of crisp bacon, 2 pieces of hot buttered toast with jelly, piping hot coffee and change yet on a half-dollar.

The new rage for handicrafters has found its match in Fletcher's Hobbies. Under new ownership the store has been completely remodeled for better customer convenience. The craft department has been enlarged with complete lines of decoupage, papier tole, and the new 'quilling' among some of the varied craft supplies carried. Fletcher's also has one of the largest hobby selections in the area with complete train and road race sets and accessories, rocket kits and supplies and everything to delight the heart of the insatiable hobby collector.

Many other stores in the Mall have already, or shortly intend to, update their stores to keep Livonia Mall the fashion Mall of the Northwest area.

OSCAR KAHAN ELECTED TO SHRINE POST

Oscar Kahan, President of the Livonia Mall Merchants Association, and a Shriner for 15 years, has been elected to fill a 3 year term on the Board of Governors of the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children, Erie, Pennsylvania unit. He has also been designated to be a layman representative to the National Hospital Association.

The Shrine takes care of any child with orthopedic disability whose parents are unable to provide the financial assistance themselves for braces, casts, orthopedic shoes or any other aid.

The Shrine Services are free. If anyone knows of any child needing such assistance, contact Moslem Shrine, TE 1-7600, or Livonia Mall Card Shop, 476-6837.
