Muskegon Park Has Dunes And Camping

EXPERIENCED CAMPERS ALWAYS CARRY TRAILER EMERGENCY GEAR, INCLUDING ROADSIDE FLARES, FLASHLIGHT, TRAILER JACK, SPARE TIRE, TIRE, JUMPER CABLES, TOWING GLOVES AND A SMALL TOOLBOX WITH AT LEAST AN ADJUSTABLE WRENCH, SCREW DRIVER, HAMMER, PLIERS AND A SMALL CROWBAR. CARRYING TWO GALLONS OF GASOLINE IN AN APPROVED CAN ALSO IS ADVISED.

Sand dunes, scenic Lake Michigan shorelines, and thick forest are the lure at two western Michigan state parks, but Muskegon State Park has the edge in everything except fame and size, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

Muskegon has many similarities with D.H. Day State Park near Empire, 149 miles north, but Muskegon has nearly three times as many campsites so there may be a better chance of getting accommodations there.

Muskegon State Park is four miles west of North Muskegon on M-213. Its 1,125 acres include three miles of sandy beach on Lake Michigan, two miles of Muskegon Lake shoreline, and three-quarters of a mile on Muskegon channel.

Campers have 346 sites at two locations to choose from. One is located at the north end of the park in a heavily wooded area along the Lake Michigan shoreline. This campground has 242 sites with modern facilities, bathhouse and a park store.

The other site is three miles south in a tract of jack pine growth along the channel leading into Muskegon Lake. There are 104 modern sites here with fair privacy and adequate but spotty shade. Swimmers must go to the day use beach on nearby Lake Michigan.

From the crest of some of the higher dunes, distant views over the tops of tall trees also afford a wide, sweeping view of Lake Michigan.

A boat launching site at Snug Harbor, on Lake Muskegon, provides access to the lakes and channel. Picnic sites also are available.

The park has many well-marked foot trails which make the interior interesting because of the different stands of trees covering the ancient sand dunes.

Fishing in Muskegon Lake is excellent for large and smallmouth bass, bluegills, perch, pike and walleyes.

Muskegon State Park's attendance last year was 465,579, making it seventh among the 32 parks in the Michigan Department of Natural Resources Region III, which covers the southern half of the Lower Peninsula.
