STAMAN ACRES
MRS. ALEXANDER CHADWICK

Boys who will be entering into the Cub Scouts are Allen Hart, Tommy Donohue, Ronnie Cleveland, John Reed, and Beanie and Christopher Brown. The mothers of the boys will take turns acting as Den Mothers.

Thursday, July 25 the Teen Club held their meeting at the Sivy home. After the meeting the teens officially initiated the Sivy swimming pool. Needless to say the party was reluctant to break up.

Rabe Coutts and her son, Kenton, left Staman Acres and will make their new home in Beloit, Wisconsin. Her other son, Barry, will reside in Plymouth, Michigan, and will graduate from Eastern College in Ypsilanti.

We wish to extend a welcome to new neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jenkins, who are seeking in a home on 31746 Staman Circle. Their previous home was in Kalamazoo.

Patricia Catherine Patricia Burke was christened at Our Lady of Sorrows Church on Sunday, July 14 at 2 p.m. In honor of the baptism, her parents, Pat and Jack, held an afternoon party at 3:45 p.m. for friends and relatives.

Saturday, July 20, Terry Burke was pleasantly surprised by five of his friends who celebrated his ninth birthday. Don Williams, Keith Thompson, J. D. Haines, Kenton Coutts, and Henry Wowski were treated by Mr. Burke to the movie, "The Spirit of St. Louis" and to a dinner later at Howard Johnson's.

Tuesday, July 23 Kenton Coutts and Keith Thompson enjoyed a birthday luncheon at the home of Don Williams. It was Don's ninth birthday. Since everyone asked couldn't make it on Wednesday, July 24, which is Don's birth date, he had another party again Thursday with David DuMontier and his parents joining the celebration.

Terry Burke and Danny Wheeler are attending Camp Daja for two weeks and on the reports received by their parents, the boys are having a gay time learning to swim and participating in all the activities the camp has to offer.

The Robert Williams family spent a week recently camping at the Huxabara National Forest near Vanaduz. Catherine was a little dubious about her first camping trip but surprised herself and had an enjoyable time. Fishing was excellent. Since they were so close to Mackinac they took time out to watch construction of the Mackinac Bridge.

FAMILY PROFILE
Margaret and Leo Sivy and their three children—Susan 15½, Stephen, 12, and Stuart, 10, are one of the most versatile and energetic families in Staman Acres.

Margaret was very happy when November 8, 1955 rolled around as prior to that date she had been commuting between Strawberry Lake and Farmington so that the children could attend school here.

The Sivys have been married 17 years and have accomplished a lot in that time.

Their beautiful ranch type home is furnished in "Early American" enhanced by soft hues of beige, yellows and browns. Taffy, their boxer, is part of their menagerie as they also own two horses, Rusty and Patch. It is the boys' job to take care of their horses and they do a splendid job. Attractive Susan is an accomplished baby-sitter and is the secretary of the Staman Acres Teen Club. Margaret and Leo enjoy golfing as evidenced by their membership in the Lake-Land Golf Club in Brighton.

The Sivy family as you have guessed by now are an athletic family. Their winter home in Pompano, Beach in Florida will be unavailable for awhile at least until the newness of the Sivy swimming pool wears off.

Leo is employed at Ford Motor Company as Assistant Manager of Sheet Metal Tool Engineering of the Production Engineering Department at River Rouge. Leo attended the Detroit College of Applied Sciences. He is a member of the A.S.T.E.

The 23-year-old soldier was graduated from Clarensville high school, Livonia, in 1932. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Gault, live at 18614 Floral, Livonia.

In a year and a half, total consumer expenditures in this country have increased at an annual rate of $17,200,000,000. However, according to the First National City Bank of New York, "Fully half of this was an illusory expansion caused by rising prices."

Bel-Air Hills News Tidbits
MRS. H. ALLEN GR. 4-6141

The Bel-Air Hills Civic Association picnic, open to all residents of the Bel-Air Subdivision, will be held on Sunday, August 18, at the Farmington City Park. This is the day for all residents of Bel-Air Hills to gather together for an afternoon of races and fun for all ages. The races will start at 2 p.m.

The following is a list of the fun attractions and games planned, just released by Jack Martin, picnic chairman. A father and son wheelbarrow race for boys 8 and 9 years old and their fathers, a mother and daughter three-legged race for girls 10 and 11 years old and their mothers, a crawling race for all children under 18 months, a bubble gum and candy scramble for the toddlers to 5 years of age, a balloon race for men and women (the balloons will be filled with flour and water), a tug-of-war for the men and a bean race for all boys and girls over 13 years of age. There will be sprints and unusual races for all children. A shoe kicking contest is planned for the women, and a husband and wife potato dance.

Free lemonade and ice cream will be served the children.

Parents are urged to bring their children and a lunch and have fun with neighbors at the Bel-Air Hills picnic, Sunday, August 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wolf of 31894 Leanne Road announced the arrival of a baby girl, Karen Lynn, born July 23 at 12:15 a.m. at Mt. Carmel Hospital in Detroit. The baby weighed seven pounds, one ounce. Karen was welcomed home by her two sisters, Diane and Cynthia.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Apt of 24102 Broadview Drive announce the arrival of their first child, a baby boy, born on July 25 at New Grace Hospital. The baby weighed seven pounds, thirteen and one-half ounces upon his arrival.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hill and son, Kenny, of Leelanau, enjoyed a week vacationing in northern Michigan in their new Mercury. They visited Mrs. Hill's parents while up north.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Trombley and family of Leelanau enjoyed a wonderful northern vacation for two weeks. The Trombleys drove through northern Michigan and the Upper Peninsula, visited Brainerd in northern Wisconsin, and visited with Mrs. Trombley's folks at Glenco, Minnesota for a weekend. They also spent a day in Minneapolis, Minnesota, where they enjoyed the national Shrine convention. Some of the time was spent by the Trombley family camping out.

Ed Chabala was visited by his parents from Morgan, Pennsylvania, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kerns and family of Ely Court have been enjoying a vacation in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schikora and family of Ely Court have been enjoying a busy vacation schedule this summer. On June 27 the family left to attend the wedding of Mrs. Schikora's youngest sister in Pennsylvania, where they spent a few days. Upon their return, Mrs. Schikora's sister, Mrs. Joseph Macy, and two children came for a week. They left on Friday and on Sunday the Schikora family left for a week's vacation at a cottage at Woodland Beach on Lake Erie.

Some of the neighbors in Bel-Air living on Ely Court and Leelanau Road gathered together recently for an outing at Kent Lake. They left early on Saturday morning and all enjoyed breakfast together at the lake and a swimming party. Those who were along on the outing were Mr. and Mrs. George Ed Neoph and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schikora and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lamar King and family and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Prescott and daughter.

Political experts say the resulting uproar as the most damaging attack on Williams since he took office in 1949.

Whether or not it was, leaders of both parties are keeping in mind that Van Puseur was one of the early leaders in the fight.

What has happened to Van Puseur since he has done nothing to dim his rising political star.

MICHIGAN'S new Democratic highway commissioner, John C. Mackie, has found himself bound by some of the commitments made by his predecessor, Charles M. Ziegler.

Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh ruled the day after Mackie took office July 1, that bond issue money raised for limited-access expressways cannot be diverted to any other purpose.

That was a legal blow to Mackie, whose platform was to start afresh with the new funds available in Michigan.

The net effect will force the new commissioner to finish many of the jobs already started by Ziegler—some of the projects under heavy criticism from Democrats.
