The Women's Christian Temperance Federation picnic will be held on Wednesday, August 7, at Cass-Benton Park in Northville.

The Pernambuco Hollow Farm Bureau was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Lapham on Haggerty Road last week with a picnic supper being served in their yard.

The children enjoyed pony rides and Mr. Anderson showed pictures to the group of work being done to aid polio victims.

The picnic was attended by approximately 45 people.

Mrs. Lawrence Gieger called on Mrs. Irvin Knapp on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Niemisto of Walston Avenue have returned from a week's vacation visiting friends and relatives in the Upper Peninsula and the Porcupine Mountain area.

FARMINGTON'S NEWEST shopping center, "Farmington Plaza," located on May Street north of Grand River, is beginning to take final shape as workers step up construction on the modern store units. The center is expected to open during the last week in August. Plans are already underway for a gala Grand Opening celebration. A total of eight stores will be included in the new shopping center.

Start Work On Fourth Lane To U.S. 16 Between Farmington And Kent Lake

Highway Commissioner John Mackie reports work underway on the south side of the road from Ten addition of a fourth lane to U.S. 16 Road, west of Farmington, easterly to Kensington Park. This, combined with a four-mile section of the Brighton-Farmington expressway, bypassing Farmington on the south, will be open its full length from Farmington to Brighton.

Commissioner Mackie said he had arranged for Oakland County Road Commission maintenance crews to do the grading operations which will relieve traffic congestion on the route.

Commissioner Mackie said he had arranged for Oakland County

Road Commission maintenance crews to do the grading operations which will relieve traffic congestion on the route.

Mackie said that if necessary,

the Oakland County crews would work overtime to make sure the

grading and shaping work are finished for the contractor so the project can be ready early in August.

The fourth lane will be added to

Local Boys To Attend Merchant Marine Academ

Thomas M. Kosty of 20425 Lilac Street, Ste. 100, Maywood, Mich., on August 19 at the U. S. Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, to begin a four-year course of training.

Announcement of the two local boys' appointment to the academy

was made recently by Congressman William Broomfield (R-Michigan).

Training will include all requirements for a bachelor's science

degree as well as 11 months of actual sea duty and training. Upon successful completion of the course of training the boys will be awarded commissions.

Interment was in Oakland Hills

Memorial Gardens, Novi, Michigan.

Nancy Niemisto is now spending

some time with relatives at South

Ridge, Michigan, while Richard

Niemisto was as his guest here

his cousin Ronne.

NOVI NEWS

By MRS. GEORGE WAITE

Phone 180-811

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkoph returned home from East Tawas Friday.
They have been there for the past three weeks taking care of their cherry crop.

The Oather Pounds have now
moved to a new home near Fowler-

Mrs. Dolph Robideau and daughter, Mrs. Clarence Fischer, and two children were visitors at the Waite
home on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Evans entered their home and his brother and his wife and family as well as his sister,
all from Canton, Ohio, over the weekend.

Little Carol Ann Donnelly of Ten Mile Road, Novi, was born and was laid to rest at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. She had been ill for 11 months.
She leaves, besides her father and mother, a brother, several other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dingman of 14 Mile Road are the proud parents of a baby daughter, Julie Ann.
Maternal grandparents are the J.
D. Mitchells.

A leaky faucet is a sure sign that
the home handy man is out of spare
washers.
