EQUIPMENT

Went out to Farmington Falcons varsity football hopefuls, the latter part of last week with opening practice sessions getting underway on Labor Day. Veteran halfback Dave Catherman, left, looks on as Head Coach Jack Hayes adjusts a pair of shoulder pads on tackle Jim Chalmers. At right, line coach Doug Race checks a helmet for fit on Ken Nikkila, varsity lineman and line-backer. The F.H.S. coaching staff will be counting on these veterans as well as nine other returning lettermen to form the nucleus for this year's team.

Falcons Hold Opening Workouts; 12 Returning Letterman Report

Labor Day proved no holiday for grid hopefuls on the Farmington Falcons grid squad as they went through both morning and afternoon practice session in opening workouts for the 1957 season.

Two-day sessions were held on Tuesday and Wednesday as Coach Jack Hayes and his assistant Richard Tyler make an all-out effort to mold a top notch team into shape for the season opener against Bentley High in L'Avonia on September 20.

A big building job is necessary since there are only 12 returning lettermen around which to build an entire new squad. Included among the 12 letter winners last year are five seniors and seven juniors.

Senior lettermen returning are: Dave Catherman, halfback; James Chalmers, tackle; Ed Fulton, end; Ken Nikkila, guard; and H. Waters, tackle. Junior lettermen returned are: Mike Ace, half-back; Frank Clappison, end; George Fawcett, tackle; Don Holloway, end; Jack Lawing, guard; Allen LeSage, quarterback; and Neal Stevenson, halfback.

Opening the season on September 20 in a non-conference game with Bentley at the new Farmington High athletic field the Falcons will take on Rochester the following Friday evening in another non-league tilt under the area at Rochester.

They will open regular league play on Friday, October 4, in a home game with Waterloo.

The complete season schedule is: Sept. 20-Bentley (here); 3:30 p.m. Sept. 27-Rochester (there); 8:00 p.m. Oct. 4-Waterford (here); 3:30 p.m. Oct. 11-Walled Lake (there); 8:00 p.m. Oct. 18-Berkley (here); 3:30 p.m. Oct. 25-VanDyke (there); 8:00 p.m. Nov. 1-Southfield (there) 3:30 p.m. Nov. 8-Clarencville (here) 3:30 p.m.

First Call Issued For Jr. High Gridders

First call for both Farmington Junior High and O. E. Dunckel Junior High football hopefuls has been issued for Monday, September 9.

Candidates for both squads are asked to report for physical examinations and to receive equipment following classes Monday. All boys are to report to the gymnasium at the Farmington Junior High.

Directing the Farmington Junior High candidates as coach will be Clayton Graham. Evan Sutherland will coach the O. E. Dunckel Junior High squad.

Normandy Hills Mrs. George Squires GR. 4-1415

Nineteen couples attended Music Circle Theater Saturday evening to see "South Pacific".

Some of the group enjoyed dinner first at Rosemont Hills and others attended a pre-theater get together at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morley Foster.

They were all invited to the Habichts for coffee and doughnuts following the show. Jack Hampton and Dorothy Thomason assisted Myra Habicht with the refreshments.

The Subdivision Plan Approval and Restrictions Committee have approved plans for Lot 62 owned by Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Stewart.

Kay Hampton's aunt, Mrs. Locke, returned by plane on Monday to her home in Greenville, South Carolina following a few week's visit with the Hamptons.

Rex McCane left Sunday for college in Virginia. He returned early for football practice.

Pat and Alma McCane spent the holiday week-end visiting relatives in Cincinnati and Lexington, Kentucky.

The De Gree's had as their house guests last week, Walter's mother, Mrs. George De Gree, and Mr. and Mrs. Finch all from Minneapolis, Minnesota.

On Saturday Hazel's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Schlobohm, and Mr. and Mrs. Beaulieu and their three daughters arrived from Cleveland to spend the holiday. On Labor Day, Commander Hanson S. Krebs drove in from Massachusetts to join his wife Nannette, the De Gree's daughter, and their two sons. They will all be returning home on Friday.

Continue Preparations For "Our Town" Program

Work is being continued by the "Our Town" committee of the Farmington Community House Association in preparation for the big community-wide Our Town Day program to be held at the McWilliams Barn on 12 Mile at Power Road, Saturday, September 14.

Electrical cable has now been installed and the parking area defined. This, along with the laying out of concession areas is presently engaging the attention of Robert Stone, committee chairman.

STAMAN ACRES MRS. ALEXANDER CHADWICK GR. 4-6865

The Staman Acres Civic Association meeting will be held tonight, Thursday at 8:00 p.m. at the Farmington Savings and Loan Building. Many important issues will be discussed, officials report.

There are still a few openings for bowlers in the subdivision's mixed league. Any couples that are interested should contact Stan Wilkins at GR. 4-7223. Norwest Recreation is the place on Monday evenings at 9:00 p.m. is the time bowling gets underway. September 9 is the starting date.

Just an added reminder: Have your white elephant items ready on Monday, September 9.

The Staman Acres meeting will be held on the third Wednesday instead of the second Wednesday this month only. September 18 the stammers will have as a guest Mrs. James Henry of Orchard Lake Road. Those ladies interested in flower arranging are urged to attend.

Hazel McKee and her mother, Mrs. Agnes Rusche, attended a luncheon recently in honor of Mrs. Rusche. The luncheon was held at the home of Mrs. Edward Price of Delaware Avenue, Southfield Township.

Entertainment consisted of a pinocle game.

The Township Players of West Bloomfield gave a Workshop Play on Thursday, August 21. The one-act play was called, "The Angel" and Maurice Caillouette participated as an "excitable" Frenchman.

Mary Caillouette enjoyed her husband's performance from the audience.

The next night Maurice and Mary celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary by dining out at "Saratoga Farms" and taking in a late show at a downtown theatre.

The Caillouettes spent the Labor Day week-end visiting Mary's sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. John Tintinalli in Sandusky, Ohio.

Al and Joyce Thompson had Joyce's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. Bratton from St. Petersburg, Florida, as guests recently. The Thompsons with sons, Fred and Keith, spent a week at their cottage near Indianapolis recently.

The Derald Katterman family spent the week prior to Labor Day at a cabin in Orinda. Other than the fact that sons, Lee and Jimmy, had a siege of tonsillitis the weather was cold and rainy and Derald caught only one fish the vacation was reported to be a fine one.

Mrs. Gladys Hogan held a luncheon recently. Attending were Mrs. Ralph Williams, Catherine Williams, Mrs. Agnes Rusche and daughter, Hazel McKee, and Alice Oben.

Words should be employed as the means, not the end; language is the instrument, conviction is the work.
