

Bond P.T.A. Donald Hossler To Speak Sept. 16

Donald Hossler, former principal of the Ten Mile School and now Assistant Superintendent in charge of Elementary Administration, will be guest speaker at the first Bond P.T.A. meeting, Monday, September 16, at 8:00 p.m. Mr. Hossler will speak on the plans and progress to date of the school program. Following his speech there will be a question and answer period.

Parents of children in Bond School are urged to attend this meeting as it will be highly informative regarding future plans and it will also be an excellent opportunity for them to meet Bond School teachers.

Refreshments, furnished by the Bond P.T.A. Executive Board, will be served at the end of the evening.

Did You Know That YOU FELLOWS and GIRLS

Can WIN a
$1000
U.S.
SAVINGS
BOND
Bowling
in a NAT NAST
SHIRT and MATCHING BELT . . .

SEE
Your Nat Nast Dealer
ED WINGARD
Co-Partner and Manager
DAVIS & LENT
33306 GRAND RIVER
FARMINGTON, MICH.
GR. 4-8030

METALMASTERS are PROUD to ANNOUNCE
That the REDFORD BRANCH Has Taken Occupancy of Its NEW and MODERN BUILDING Located at 26102 GRAND RIVER AVE. at the Corner of Wakenden . . .

BEAUTIFUL FORMICA DINETTES
AVAILABLE IN BLACK WROUGHT IRON AND CHROME

Tables made to order any size or shape, including round, square, rectangular and oval. All colors and patterns to select from. Tables are equipped with self-cleaning top. Chrome plated interior in Tazzeron Duran material—44 colors and patterns, in different styles. All chrome is triple-plated, including copper, nickel and chrome.

METALMASTERS MFG. CO.
26102 GRAND RIVER, Corner of Wakenden — KE. 3-4414
4600 N. WOODWARD, Royal Oak — LI. 9-3011

Around The Circle In Staman Acres

Mrs. Alexander Chadwick GR. 4-6865

The Staman Stitches met at the home of Jane Peterson of Belmont Drive on Thursday morning, September 5. Ladies who were in attendance for the first time were Aletha Cross, Mrs. Ralph Jenkins and Aileen Turner. The regular pinners included Joyce Thompson, Olive Henning, Florence Agnes, Zora Cross, Hazel McKee, Agnes Rusche and Bea Sisy.

Later that same evening the Staman Acres Civic Association met at the Farmington Savings and Loan Building.

Ray Warte reported on the road situation and indicated that petitions have been signed to start the wheels in motion so that by early spring all the red tape will be taken care of and work can be started on black-topping. As far as sewers are concerned, reports indicated that it will probably be a matter of years instead of months before work will be started.

Mr. Richard Schaefer reported that bowling will be delayed until September 16.

It has been reported that there are 118 lots in the subdivision with 73 out of 74 houses being occupied.

After the meeting adjourned refreshments were served by hostesses Norma Larson, Jean Lutz, Hazel McKee, Laudeup Maldonado, and Virginia Klopp.

Since Staman Stitches meetings fall on Wednesday, the notices have to be put in two weeks ahead of time. The next meeting will be held September 18 at the Farmington Savings and Loan Building with Jean Lutz as hostess. Mrs. James Henry will be guest for the evening.

Little Robert Hart had a household of relatives to help him celebrate his second birthday on Wednesday, September 4.

Dee Ware had a surprise birthday party for her husband, Ray, on Saturday, September 7. Attending were the Peter Klopps, the James Ellises, the Leo Sisy, the Jim Haines, the Vic Waskowskis, the Ray Unks, the James Botwicks, the Merl Trychles, and the Stanley Batyracks. At midnight the couples enjoyed a candlelight buffet.

The Kemp boys, Terry and Bob, enjoyed the labor day weekend as guests of Peter and Virginia Klopp at their cottage on Lake St. Clair.

The Adolph Maldonado family spent the labor day weekend visiting at the home of Mr. E. Barber, Michigan. Loudean's mother, Mrs. Florence Peters, accompanied them. Mr. Maldonado enjoyed a fishing trip while there.

Visitors from out-of-town recently included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vovinkle of Brookfield, Connecticut, who were guests at Mr. E. Barber's home. Mrs. Vovinkle is Marian's sister.

Mrs. Joseph Raker of Joliet, Illinois, was honored at a luncheon on Thursday, September 5, given by her friend, Gladys Hogan. The luncheon table was attractively set for eight. Cards were played and Mrs. Martin Potts and Mrs. Larry Kolb were the lucky recipients of the prizes. Mrs. Raker enjoyed a five day visit with the Hogans.

Charlotte and Vic Waskowski had as guests recently Charlotte's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Couzens and daughters, Linda and Lori. The Couzens home is in Evansville, Indiana.

Browsing Through Farmington Hills

MRS. DAVID KRINGS' GR. 4-9844

Little five-pound Rita Ann Willie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dorel of Powers Road, was baptized Sunday at Our Lady of Sorrows Church, with Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Johnson as godparents.

The Thomas Lane family has returned to the city after a three month stay at their summer home at East Tawas. Young Thomas, who was looking forward to a few games of baseball and football with his friends, will have to coach from the sidelines for he fell and fractured his wrist last Friday.

Also back in the subdivision are the Feys of Dohany Drive, after a summer's stay at their cottage at Union Lake.

Six Farmington Hills five-year-olds began the great adventure of kindergarten this past week. They are Dorene Hamill, John Richard, Suzanne Gregory, Tommy Hoelt, Judy Thomas and Brent Tipton.

We are very sorry to report the accident of Margaret Yenny, which happened at the corner of Broadway and Ten Mile Road. Margaret was seriously injured and is in the critical ward at St. Joseph Hospital in Pontiac.

Bruce Johnson, who celebrated his tenth birthday Sunday, was happily surprised by the George Beneduci family and his Godmother, Mrs. James Bergin, who took over cake, presents and all the merriment while his mother was in the hospital. She is at home again, trying to get in shape for two-year-old Tommy's birthday the last of September.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kelly and daughter, Linda Sue, of Shadyridge have returned from a vacation in Pikeville, Kentucky, and West Virginia.

Also back from an extended trip through the east and south are the Frank Himmlers of Dohany Drive and their sons, Frank Nelson and Dennis. They visited Mr. Himmler's brother in Butte, New York, and many of Mrs. Himmler's relatives in and around Lewisville, Pennsylvania, before motoring on to Washington, D. C.

Highlight of their trip was a five-day attendance to the District Assembly of Jehovah Witnesses at Baltimore, Maryland. Circling south, the Skyline Drive through the Shenandoah Valley, they toured the Smoky Mountains and made their last stop at Mammoth Cave in Kentucky.

The family of Don Chamberlin II of Dohany Drive is also setting back to routine after their vacation. They spent several days at Mrs. Chamberlin's mother's summer home on Lake Huron at Tawas. Leaving their three children in grandma's good hands, Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlin spent several days at Gratiot Inn before returning home.

Suzanne Johnson and Lillian and Shirley Duffy were among a group of 13 4-H Club girls who completed a sewing course September 4. They modeled skirts they had made before their mothers, their leader, Mrs. Martha Anderson, and 4-H judges. The girls were given badges for their work, 4-H certificates and pins. They presented their leader with a farewell gift as she is moving in two weeks to Pittsburg.

Strains of "Happy Birthday, Granny," filled the air Sunday, when about 15 members of the family of Mrs. James Brown of Dohany Drive gathered Sunday for a birthday picnic.

Also enjoying the good picnic weather Sunday were friends of the Krings of Dohany Drive. The William Hamiltons and Oliver Gays came from Dearborn and the Wendell Carters from Detroit.

On the previous week-end the weather men was not so cooperative. What was meant to be an outdoor picnic ended up as a breezeway supper at the home of the Krings. Special guests that evening were Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Jacobs of Leonia, New Jersey. Other guests were from Ferndale and Detroit.

A meeting of Cub Scout leaders was held last Thursday evening at the home of Gerald Burke on Floral. Mr. Joseph Gregory of Dohany Drive was in attendance.

With the beginning of school, return of vacationers and life as a whole falling back into a routine, I, too, feel the desire to bring to you again the newly little family interviews which I have found most enjoyable.

Fortune reports that "The appearance of a union of union organizers has caused some embarrassment among A.F.L.-C.I.O. officials." It is known as the Field Representatives Federation, and it wants recognition as a collective bargaining agent. Officers of the big union are said to be regarding its demands with cold eyes.

Accept 38 New Elks Members

A total of 38 candidates were accepted into membership in the Farmington Elks Lodge at a meeting held on September 5.

This is the largest number in the Lodge since the first installation in December of 1935. Elks officers said formal installation ceremonies will be held on September 18. Officials stated that each candidate will be notified by letter of his acceptance by Joe Brodie, club secretary.

A formal ceremony is being planned for October which will be attended by the District Deputy of the S. W. District and other dignitaries. A class of 50 Elks Club candidates is anticipated by this time.

Members having applications for membership are requested to forward them to Secretary Joe Brodie, in care of the Farmington Elks Lodge, Farmington.

In And Around Springland

MRS. ALVIN EVERT GR. 4-0278

The Springland Friendship Club will meet on Thursday, September 19, 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Vaira, 26104 Ridgeway Drive. Mrs. John Thomas will serve as co-hostess for the evening.

Cub Scouts in Den 14 will convene this fall for their first meeting to be held at the home of James Evans, 30754 Ridgeway Drive, on September 19 at 8:45 p.m. Mrs. Lawrence Evans and Mrs. W. McElchuterie are the Den Mothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Boucher and son Wayne, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Martin and family, all of Springland, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Morrison of New Jersey spent two weeks vacationing at cottages near East Tawas, Michigan, recently.

The Robert Tuckers of Ridgeway Drive are now owners of a beagle dog, "Chippie" became the mother of ten puppies.

On Saturday, September 7, a house warming party was given for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mallon at their new home on Springfield Drive with approximately 60 guests present. The Mallons son, Clarence, and family from Pacific Palisades, California, have been visiting their parents for the past two weeks were also able to join in on the fun of the house warming party.

B.P.W. To Hold First Meeting

The Farmington Business & Professional Women's Club will hold its first meeting of the current year Monday, September 16, at 6:45 p.m. Dinner reservations must be in to Ethel Foster, GR. 4-018 by Friday, September 15.

The club will salute "National Business Women's Week" at this meeting by having as special guest, Farmington's Businesswomen of the Year, Lois Anderson, Sister Kenny Foundation.

The National Federation annually sponsors "National Business Women's Week" to spotlight all women who work. The first National Business Women's Week was held in 1928, when there were approximately 10 million working women. Today there are approximately 22 million.

Also on the agenda for this meeting will be the presentation of the budget by the finance committee and voting on new members introduced by the membership committee.

The club will sponsor a booth at "Our Town" Day and will sell coffee and doughnuts. Proceeds will go to benefit the Farmington Area Community House Association.

Job's Daughters Install Council

Honored Queen Kathy Barnes presided at the first meeting and installation of new council members of the local Chapter of the International Order of Job's Daughters on Wednesday evening, September 4.

Succeeding the escorting of the flag, the gavel was presented to Miss Betty Radloff who installed Miss Marianne King as fifth messenger.

Springbrook Civic News

Mildred Hug GR. 4-1926

Residents of the subdivision spent the last official summer holiday in various ways, some staying at home, others taking to the road for one last trip.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ralston of Springbrook elected to stay at home entertaining neighbors David and Blaine Reed, Paul and Virginia Grand and Harry and Anabelle Fitzpatrick at a dinner party.

Ed and Willie Ulbrich and children, Raymond, Gayle and Rosemary visited relatives in Buffalo, New York and spent a day viewing Niagara Falls and Fort Niagara before returning late Monday.

Jim and Florence Sharpe and their family spent the holiday in Muskegon visiting the Schultman and Page families. Trips to Lake Michigan and the "drill ride" over the sand dunes at Silver Lake were highlights of the weekend.

Roy and Rene Hocking spent the Labor Day week-end visiting relatives at Indian River near Burt Lake.

The George Mullins and Donald Briggs were members of the Players Group of Farmington that recently viewed "South Pacific" at Music Circle.

A group of several couples that meet monthly got together recently at the home of Alvin and Kay Winkler on Lakeland. An evening of cards was enjoyed.

Helen and Jack Rickard and their children, Sandy, Ricky, and Jackie K., and the children's guest, Timmy Allen, have returned from a vacation trip to Calumet, Houghton and the Keweenaw Peninsula where they visited relatives. Viewing the new Mackinac bridge and for the happiest

KIDS in town!

smart and sturdy new clothes

Here's everything for a child's fall in handsome styles that make them happy in sturdy fabrics Mom will like.

IVY LEAGUE SHIRTS
In knits and cottons.
All the latest patterns.
$1.98 to $2.98

BOYS' 10% BAND OVERALLS
By Blue Bell — $1.89

GIRLS' DRESSES — for back to school wear. Plaids and ass't patterns. $1.98 to $5.98

JACKETS — for winter wear — Wools and Gabardines. Hooded Jackets. SWEATERS — Youths' and Boys' Orions. $2.98 to $5.95

PAJAMAS — Girls' Nitty Nitties. All sizes and colors and styles.

Visit OUR Basement Dept.

DANCER'S

DEPARTMENT STORES

STORE HOURS: 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 Daily — 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. Friday & Saturday week-end guests of the Donald Hogs of Wyandotte at their cottage at Point Pelee, Canada.

Don and Pearl Briggs spent a recent week-end in Avon, Ohio, visiting Pearl's mother, Mrs. C.P. Wilford.

John and Sigrid Tice of Lakeland spent the holiday week-end in Cleveland, Ohio, staying at the Lakeshore Hotel there. Entertainment planned for them by friends included a cocktail party on Saturday hosted by the Fred Grants and a dinner party on Sunday by the A. W. Lesperances. A splash party at the hotel on Monday ended a very pleasant weekend.

Eddie Smith, Ron Cervin and Pete Badalucco were the men from the Subdivision that worked and played last weekend in the K. R. Beahan Invitational Golf Tournament held at Bob-O-Link Golf Club, under the sponsorship of the Our Lady of Sorrows Men's Club.

The Richard Hug family were