Church Holding Sunday School Teacher Course

An eight-week training course for Sunday School teachers and Christian workers will be held at the Calvary Baptist Church, 2835 West Seven Mile Road, Livonia.

The classes, which began Wednesday, September 18 at 7:45 p.m., will continue each Wednesday evening for the remaining seven weeks.

During the course she will be teaching such subjects as, "How to prepare a lesson," "How to lead a child to Christ," "How to use the Bible," "The Object Lesson," "Story telling," etc.

Interested friends from other churches have been invited to attend these classes.

India Missionary To Speak Sept. 26

Miss Rebecca Bibbee, Methodist Missionary to India, will be guest of the Orchard Methodist Church on Thursday, September 26, at 7:30 p.m.

Miss Bibbee will show color slides and relate interesting highlights of her seven years as a Missionary in India.

Mr. James Penhale, president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, stated that the program will be open to all who wish to attend, and that there will be no admission charge.

Pope Pius XII recently addressed 30,000 young Roman Catholic workers at the greatest international labor rally ever held in Rome.

Invite Catholic Boys To Retreat

Catholic Boy Scouts in the Farmington area are invited to attend the eighth annual Boy Scout spiritual retreat at the D-Bar-A Ranch near Metamora on the weekend of October 4-6.

"We strongly urge all Catholic boys in Scouting to attend this retreat," stated Father Arthur H. Krawczak, archdiocesan chaplain. "No matter what troop you belong to, this retreat is for you. The conferences and the spiritual exercises will benefit every Catholic boy."

Catholic Scouts who do not belong to parish troops or posts are invited to contact the downtown office of the Detroit Area Catholic Committee on Scouting, 305 Michigan Avenue, WO 3-7175.

The retreat offers spiritual refreshment first. Every boy will have an opportunity to go to Confession and receive Holy Communion. The conference sessions are designed to offer guidance and direction for all Catholic boys.

In addition, all the retreatants will enjoy the fun of camping out for a weekend. D-Bar-A ranch will become a small city of tents. The Scouts will be required to pitch their own tents, police their area and prepare their own meals.

Officials estimate that more than 3,000 boys and adult leaders will attend.

Church Board Makes Fall Plans

The Church Board of the Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church met last Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl D. Wheaton on Alta Road.

Plans for fall activities and church repairs were the major items discussed at the meeting. It was revealed that new chairs have been procured for the Sunday School Department which has been moved into the old parsonage temporarily.

Harry Farmer was inducted as a member of the Church Board to replace Elmer Rapp who recently moved to Livonia.

Co-hostesses with the Wheatons at the Church Board meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Layton.

"I think a man and woman should choose each other for life, for the simple reason that a long life with all its incidents is barely enough for a man and a woman to understand each other; and to understand is to love."

Your judicious application of foresight is the other fellow's lucky guess.

Lutheran Group To Hold Initial Meeting; Plan Opening Service

An informal meeting for all persons interested in the new Lutheran congregation, being organized in the Kendallwood area, Franklin Township, is planned for Tuesday evening, September 24 at 7:30 p.m. at the Bond School located on the corner of 13 Mile and Orchard Lake Roads.

Although this meeting will mark the official beginning in the life of the young congregation, it is not merely for people who have already indicated a desire to affiliate with the new congregation.

Pastor James Henneberger said the meeting is not intended to be an organizational one but rather an informal opportunity for families interested in learning more about the Church to become acquainted with one another.

Plans for regular Church services beginning on October 6 in the new Dundee Jr. High School on 12 Mile Road will be discussed.

John Starkey, Sunday School Superintendent will outline a proposed Sunday School program for both children and adults, and other members of the Steering Committee will tell of the progress already made.

Indications are that many are planning to attend this initial meeting, Pastor Henneberger said. Any one who has not been notified but who is interested is very welcome to attend, he added.

Additional information about this initial meeting of the new congregation or about the work of the United Lutheran Church in the Farmington area may be had by contacting Pastor Henneberger at 28578 Eastfield Avenue, Farmington, or by calling MA 6-5550.

Church To Hold Pilgrim Series Preview Session

The North Congregational Church at 2600 West 10 1/2 Mile Road will be host to the Pilgrim Series Preview Session for the Fall Quarter of the Detroit Congregational Church. It will be held on Monday, September 23.

Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. There will be a roll call of the Detroit Association Churches. Rev. Gene McCormack of Mayfield Congregational Church will give the first report for the fall quarter.

All members of Congregational Churches interested in Religious Education in the Detroit area are invited to attend.

Schedule Adult Night Courses

For the second consecutive year Kingswood School Cranbrook will sponsor a night school for adults.

The evening courses available for study are all non-credit, and include Spanish conversation, French conversation, fundamentals of music, ceramics and badminton.

Classes will meet at Kingswood every Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m., beginning September 24. Each session will last two hours. The closing date is December 18.

Persons interested in enrolling or obtaining further information may write or telephone Kingswood School.

program for both children and adults, and other members of the Steering Committee will tell of the progress already made. Questions about the United Lutheran Church in America, the largest Lutheran body in the country, and the purpose of this local congregation will be answered. Representing the United Lutheran Church, Pastor Henneberger will be present to guide the action taken.

Following the meeting, everyone is invited to an open house at the congregation's parsonage on Eastfield Avenue near the Bond School.

Indications are that many are planning to attend this initial meeting, Pastor Henneberger said. Any one who has not been notified but who is interested is very welcome to attend, he added.

Additional information about this initial meeting of the new congregation or about the work of the United Lutheran Church in the Farmington area may be had by contacting Pastor Henneberger at 28578 Eastfield Avenue, Farmington, or by calling MA 6-5550.

Franklin Church Choirs To Be Honored Oct. 13

Choirs of the Franklin Community Church will be honored at a service October 13 at 10:00 a.m. as part of the Layman Sunday observance.

This recognition will be in the form of a Choir installation for both the Chancel and Junior Choirs of the Church. Following the service at 11:00 there will be a reception in honor of the choir members, sponsored by the Music Committee of the Church.

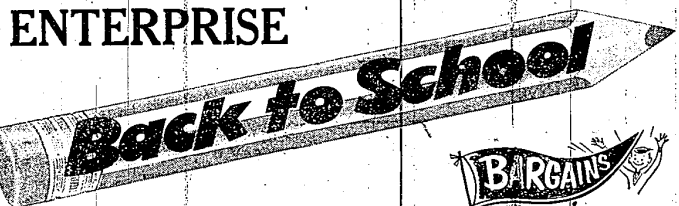

The directors of the Choirs are Mrs. Lynn E. Balch. Organist is Mrs. Gerald G. Wright and chairman of the Music Committee is Mr. Win C. Hinman.

Christian Science Topic Sunday Titled "Matter"

Man's God-given dominion over discord and will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Repeating the Lesson - Sermon entitled "Matter" is the Golden Text from 1 John (2:15): "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him."

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (381:20-21): "Think less of the enactments of mortal mind, and you will sooner grasp man's God-given dominion."
