Mr. and Mrs. Hilmar Pike of Broadview held a combination birthday and going away party at their home on Saturday evening. The party included a steak fry in the back yard in honor of Mrs. Pike's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Lachmann, on their birthday and her brother, Paul, who was leaving for college at Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lachmann and Doris attended.

Mrs. Pike had quite an experience recently. She was stung by an insect in her back yard and two days later a reaction began. Mrs. Pike evidently was very allergic to the poison in the sting as it caused considerable swelling and made her very ill. Mrs. Pike had to visit a doctor four days in a row for shots before it went under control.

Tom and Esther Harris of 31928 Leelanau Road recently sold their home here. The new owners are Joe and Kay Hommel.

Girls of Brownie Troop 819 gathered at the home of Mrs. Sandy Nelson on Lamar last Thursday evening for their first meeting of the season.

They held an election of officers and Candy Carlin was elected president. Candy is the only new girl in the troop this year and it was quite an honor for her. Loretta Gafarian was elected vice president, Sandra Simonsen, treasurer, and Linda Moss, secretary. Meetings will take place from 3 o'clock until 4:30. It was announced that the troop would be holding the Indianwood Day Camp which they attended the first two weeks in August.

Brownies Maureen O'Connor, Pamela Nelson, Laura Hunt, Alex Larson, Cathy Williamson, Barbara Brom, Andrea Guinan and Linda Moss also attended so they all sang songs that they had learned at the camp for the rest of the troop and told of their experiences. Maureen's sister Karen, also had gone along to the nursery where Troop 819 has its limit of 18 Brownie members at this time.

There were about 15 ladies from the Altar Society present at a corn roast held at the home of the Elmer Barlow on Thirteenth Mile Road last week. Mary Jo Brown and Mary Nemeth attended from Bel-Air.
