

STAMAN ACRES

MRS. ALEXANDER CHADWICK
GR. 4-6965

Wednesday, September 4, Randy Haines celebrated his fifth birthday. Invited to his party were Debbie Wiles, Debbie Burt, Debbie German, Gretchen and Chris Smith, Jimmy Ellis, Terry Hind and Chris and Lois Durando. Randy started school the very next day.

Sunday, September 8, Jean and Jim Haines were busy preparing for their birthday party. The party was in honor of Jim's mother, Mrs. Babe Haines. Twenty-five of Mrs. Haines' friends were invited to a happy occasion. A buffet dinner was served. The birthday cake was beautifully decorated with Mrs. Haines' home on the lake and her pet dog.

Mrs. Elsie Bradfield of Grand Rapids was a visitor at the home of Marie and Benjamin Schotten the weekend of September 7. Mrs. Bradfield is Marie's mother.

Bev Ellis, President of the Stamans, reported that the proceeds from the "white elephant" booth at the "Our Town" Fair netted $118.04. Bev extended "thank you" to all the ladies and men who helped contribute their time and efforts to make the booth a success. The "play-it-wagon" wagons were very helpful indeed, she added.

Ed and Margaret Wheeler invited Charlotte and Vic Waskowski out for dinner Saturday, September 14. After their return to the Wheeler home, Millie Unks invited Charlotte over. It was Charlotte's birthday and she was totally unprepared for what was to befall her before the evening was over.

Millie casually invited Charlotte into the basement to view some wallpaper. As Charlotte descended the stairs she heard someone reading, "This is Your Life Charlotte Waskowski." Forty-six of her friends were gathered to honor her.

When she calmed down from the excitement Ray Unks took over as the narrator and began telling the story of Charlotte's life. Slides were shown of Charlotte at the age of 4 months, 5 years, her First Communion, graduation, her marriage, and her three children. Millie prepared the famous "This is Your Life" album.

Charlotte was given a charm bracelet and a gown to wear for the evening. Vic received a miniature Eldorado Cadillac.

Two surprises were in store for Charlotte. First, through pre-arranged appointment Charlotte's mother called at 11 o'clock to see Charlotte's "This is Your Life." As surprise guests were Charlotte's oldest friends, Kay and Berne Elzerman from Detroit. Jean Haines was dressed as one of Charlotte's girlfriends and Jim Ellis as one of her boy friends. The guests who sat down to dinner were: the host and hostess, Ray and Millie Unks, their son Dennis and his fiancee Margaret Duffy, Ed and Margaret Wheeler, Bill and Joanne Smith, Jack and Vicki Burke, Gerald and Shirley Kress, Jim and Bev Ellis, Jim and Jean Haines, Stan and Madeline Hajduk, Deral and Barb Katterman, Peter and Virginia Klopp, Larry and Jean Lutzen, George and Hazel McKeon, Stan and Kay Noyes, Ned and Ethel Kressell, Mike and Louise Sildsky, Ray and Bess Sisty, Leo and Margaret Sivy, Ron and June Taylor, Ray and Dee Ware, and Bob and Martha Bacon.

Charlotte is known as the "Queen" of hostesses in our fair subdivision.

FAMILY PROFILE

Our honored family this week, in my estimation, would be classified as one of the friendliest families in Stamans Acres. Every car that passes their home on Rocky Crest receives a friendly wave. Their friendliness is so contagious, even their pets are catching it with every passing car.

Al and Joyce Thompson have been happily married for over 20 years. Their sons are Fred, 19, who is a sophomore at Michigan State and is majoring in business administration, and Keith, 11, who attends the Ten-Mile Grade School. The Thompsons have had school days when Al carried Joyce's school books. As the romance blossomed into adulthood the Thompsons were married in Indianapolis. Before moving to Stamans Acres in January, 1956, the Thompsons resided on Fenmore Street for the Thompson family. Neither family knew the other family had purchased lots in Stamans Acres until they "accidentally" met while viewing their property. The Thompsons have a family cottage in Monticello, Indiana, where they often hold family reunions.

Joyce likes Earth, American furniture, and American colors are grey, turquoise, and pink with red used as accents. Her hobbies include gardening, needlepoint, embroidery, and knitting.

Al studied and graduated from Indiana University. He is now treasurer at Y.M.C.A., a Division of General Motors. He has been with General Motors for 21 years. His hobbies are gardening and woodworking.

The Thompsons reside two doors from the Chadwicks.

Kroger Opens Modern, New Store In Shopping Center

Doors will be open to the public Thursday morning, September 19, at 9 a.m. for the grand opening of the new Kroger company store in Farmington Plaza.

Manager of the store is Joe Smith, a Kroger man whom many Farmington people will remember from the years he was with the old Kroger store here.

The large store has been fully stocked in the last week, according to C. Olaf Talla, vice president Detroit division, Kroger. In calling attention to the new store, Mr. Talla expressed regret that Kroger was forced to move from the former location prior to opening the new store.

"We have been proud to serve the food needs of Farmington residents for these many years, and the new Kroger store will help us do an even bigger job," he said.

Some of the store's conveniences in the new Kroger store include parcel pick-up, stations where customers may have their packages placed in their cars for them. The store also has seven speedy check-out stands, magic carpet doors, air conditioning, complete self-service, large spacious aisles, and many other conveniences.

There are about 50 employees, many from Farmington. The store will be open from 9 to 6 Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and from 9 to 9 Thursday, Friday and Saturday. It will be closed Sundays.

Manager of the Kroger meat department is Lawrence Paul. Larry has been with the company since 1942 as meat clerk and meat cutter, and was recently head meat cutter at the Kroger store.

Bill Swanson is head of the produce department, coming from the store at Oakman Boulevard and Grand River. Dairy department head is Barbara Berry, and head cashier is Mrs. Louise St. James.

A Farmington woman is a food display clerk. She is Mrs. Dorothy Cassell, a Kroger employee for some time.

Big State Grape Crop Reported

A Michigan grape crop that is smaller than the bumper crop of 1956 but still the third largest grape crop in the nation has begun to find its way onto retail markets.

This year's grape harvest is estimated by the Michigan Department of Agriculture to be slightly less than 52,000 tons. Last year's totaled 60,500 tons.

Norris Hill was taken to the Redford Community Hospital on Friday morning with a severe case of flu. She is reported recovering slowly.

Miss Barbara Schramm of Birmingham Road left on Sunday to resume classes at Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Fockler and daughter Sharon of Lexington, Michigan, spent the weekend with the latter's sister and family, the Lyman bushes.

James Inman of 12 Mile Road, accompanied by his father, Willard Inman of Southfield, flew to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, on Wednesday to view the 1958 line of Simplicity Garden Tractors.

The christening of Laura Louise Leonard, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Leonard of 12 Mile Road, took place on Sunday at Our Lady of Sorrows Church. Mr. and Mrs. Arved A. Cox of Chicago, Illinois, acted as Godparents.

A family dinner was enjoyed afterward, with Mr. and Mrs. John Kiel of Richmond, Michigan, as guests.

For the retail trade most Michigan grapes are packed in containers of less than 12-ounce size for Michigan fancy table grade, and in baskets of 12 quarts for Michigan No. 1 or Michigan No. 2 grade. The former grade includes, grade, contents, and name and address of the grower or packer must appear on the container.
