

Evangelical Free Church To Hear U.M. Speaker

This coming Sunday, September 22, Melvin Hyberg from the University of Michigan will be speaker at the morning worship service of the Evangelical Free Church.

Mr. Ryberg is an architectural engineer with the university. He has also been in both full-time and part-time evangelistic work for the past 30 years. The public is cordially invited.

Last Saturday afternoon one of the largest crowds of people in the very young history of the church met at the Farmington City Park for the Annual Sunday School Picnic. Services are now being held in the Middlebelt School, at Ten Mile Road and Middlebelt Road.

Martha Marhofer Weds Michael Lynch. Aug. 24

Martha Jane Marhofer of 31841 Eleven Mile Road became the bride of Michael Lynch of Oroville, Washington, at 9 a.m. Saturday, August 24, at Our Lady of Sorrows Church. The double ring ceremony was performed by Father Thomas Beahan.

The bride wore a long white gown with lace and net in tiers over satin featuring a fitted bodice, short sleeves and a chapel train. A fingertip veil of nylon tulle fell from a crown adorned with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white spathulums.

Jean Marhofer, the bride's twin sister, was maid of honor. She wore a yellow chiffon, waltz length dress and picture hat and carried a bouquet of rust colored zinnias. The bridesmaids, Janie Marhofer and Antoinette Fikula, wore matching aqua outfits and carried yellow mums.

chiffon dress and carrying deep red roses, served as flower girl. Ring bearer was Jerry Marhofer.

James Polick was best man, with Dale Statuk and Dave Brauce serving as ushers.

For the wedding, the bride's mother, Mrs. William Marhofer, chose an olive green lace sheath over taffeta dress and wore a corsage of orchids and roses. Mrs. Ralph Lynch, the bridegroom's mother, wore a white and pink taffeta dress with pink accessories and an orchid corsage.

A wedding breakfast was served at Saratoga Farms following the church ceremony and a reception in the evening at the Farmington American Legion Hall.

For his wedding trip to Oroville, Washington, the bride chose a black sheath dress with white accessories.

A 1954 graduate of Ladywood High School, the new Mrs. Lynch was employed at the office of local architect, Charles D. Handan, prior to her marriage. Mr. Lynch, a 1952 graduate of Oroville (Washington) High, served in the Army after graduation.

Livonia Health Guild To Host County

The Livonia Health Guild will play host to the Wayne County Guild on October 3, for the first meeting of the fall series. The luncheon will be held at the St. Dominic's Church Hall at 30200 Joy Road at Melvin, west of Middlebelt Road, at 12:30 p.m.

Paul J. Schafer, Operations Coordinator of the Civil Defense Office, will be the speaker for the afternoon. The subject being "Disaster, Enemy and Natural."

All Livonia members are asked to be there together with anyone interested in the topic. Reservations are to be made by September 30 with either Mrs. LaFontain, 11300 Berwick, Garfield 4-8300 or Mrs. C. Lyke, 15410 Stamford, GA. 4-7104.

The Livonia Health Guild was organized 1945 as Unit One of the Wayne County Health Guild. A Loan Closet of Sick-room Supplies is maintained by the Guild. We now have four beds available and five wheel chairs. These are loaned free of charge to all Livonians. Mrs. Van Ripper, Sr. of 32222 Delwood — GA. 4-2771 is the new loan closet chairman. If you have any sick-room supplies which you no longer use the Livonia Health Guild will be glad to place them in their closet.

Youth . . . is undoubtedly the proper permanent and genuine condition of man, and if we look closely into this delusion of growing old, we shall find that it never absolutely succeeds in laying hold of our innermost convictions. —Nathaniel Hawthorne.

MR. AND MRS. TRUMAN C. MARTIN

Boyce, Martin Speak Wedding Vows August 24

Claudia Irene Boyce and Truman C. Martin were united in holy matrimony, at a double ring ceremony at Our Lady of Sorrows Church, August 24.

Rev. Richard Laninger officiated. Miss Boyce wore a gown made of nylon tulle and chiffon lace. The dress featured a fitted torso curve to a point, Queen Ann collar, long fitted lace sleeves and tiny buttons at the wrist. Her bouffant skirt with ruffles rippled to the floor.

Her tiara of lace was trimmed with sequins, and a fine French illusion veil flowed down to her finger tips. She carried a fan shaped spray of stephanotis, with a white orchid corsage in the middle.

Preceding the bride down the aisle as maid-of-honor, was Janet Loomis of Farmington. Her princess style crystal-encrusted, ball-length gown was a light yellow. She wore a picture hat and carried lilac glamelias.

Bridesmaids were Frances Plautz of Drayton Plains, and Patricia Roy of Detroit. Their gowns and hats matched that worn by the maid-of-honor, only in lilac. They also carried yellow glamelias. Niece of the bride, Cindy Grode, was flower girl. She was dressed identical to that of the bridesmaids and carried a basket of yellow and lilac glads.

Donald Boyce, brother of the bride, served as best man. Seating the guests were James Chalmers and Kenneth Nichols. Ricky Boyce, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. He carried the rings on a white satin, heart shaped pillow. The best man and ushers were all from Farmington.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Boyce wore a ballerina length, baby-blue lace dress with navy blue accessories. The groom's mother was dressed in yellow lace with white accessories. Both wore corsages of yellow glamelias.

A garden reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Robinson in Farmington, with approximately 200 friends and relatives attending.

Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Martin, parents of the groom; Mrs. Marvin Mason; Mrs. Martin, grandmother of the groom; all of Onaway, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rendmeier, Green Bay, Wisconsin; Mr. and Mrs. William Jarchow, Appleton, Wisconsin; and Mrs. Sarah Coy, Mrs. Michael Coy, of Terre Haute, Indiana.

For their honeymoon to northern Michigan, the new Mrs. Martin chose a charcoal gray taffeta dress with red accessories. The young couple will make their home in Farmington.

The former Miss Boyce is a 1955 graduate of Clarenceville High.

Bond-Eagle Area Seeking Donors For Blood Bank

Blood bank workers in the Bond-Eagle school areas are now in the process of soliciting donors and making other preparations for the Inter-Lakes Blood Bank. The Red Cross Bloodmobile will visit the West Bloomfield Township Hall at 4460 Orchard Lake Road on Wednesday, September 25.

Mrs. Jack Steyskal is chairman of recruiting for donors in the Bond-Eagle area. She indicated that donations would be taken from 2:00 to 5:00 in the afternoon and from 6 to 8:30 o'clock in the evening.

Mrs. Theodore Lapinski, and Mrs. A. Newton Cole are coordinators of the operations of the bloodmobile on this day, and Mrs. O. S. Koskinen is in charge of all recruiting for the Interlakes Blood Bank. Donations will insure supply to any resident of these districts when needed. Mrs. Steyskal and Mrs. Lapinski are release chairmen for the Bond-Eagle area, and must be contacted to secure the blood from the Red Cross.

The Red Cross of the Orchard Lake Community Church has volunteered to prepare and supply personnel to the Red Cross and volunteer worker personnel at this bloodmobile visit.
