Jr.-Sr. High PTA Dinner, Sq. Dance Planned Sept. 27

A pot-luck dinner and square dance has been planned by the Farmington Jr.-Sr. High PTA for Friday, September 27, at 6:30 p.m. at the Senior High School on Shawassee Road.

Dave Palmer will be on hand to call for square dancing. Those attending are asked to bring with them a plate setting, a dish to pass and a small fee to cover PTA expenses and hopefully make it possible to build a reserve fund to provide for future teachers.

All parents are urged to attend but requested to leave the kiddies at home. The program is being designed to provide an opportunity for parents to meet the parents of their fellow students as well as teachers at the school.

Trojans To Open Season Friday

The Clarencville Trojans will begin the 1957 football season this Friday evening at 8 p.m. when they meet Bloomfield Hills under the lights at home.

Comprised of 29 members, this year's team is under the direction of new head football coach William Waters. Waters replaces Nick Lantini, who served as assistant football coach last year, who has also coached reserve basketball at C.I.S. for the past five years.

Waters has been molding his team around 15 returning lettermen. Returning lettermen are: Fred Campbell, Carl Fox, Larry Andrews, Tom Wilson, John Hicks, Bill Kelly, Elton Paulucci, Gordon Wilcock, Dave Makee, Paul Stevenson, Harry George, Dave Findlay, Barry Forsyth, Jon Nelson, and Clifford Wellman. Larry Andrews and Clifford Wellman will serve as Co.-captains.

Falcons To Meet Bentley Friday

The Farmington Falcon football team will be put to its first test of the season this Friday afternoon when they meet the Bentley High Bulldogs of Livonia in a home contest starting at 3:30 p.m. at the new high school athletic field.

The Falcons will be without the services of one of their stellar backs, Mike Agee, who was injured in a practice season earlier. It was indicated, however, that he should be ready for action within the next week or two.

Athletic Director Jack Cotton stated that bleachers were going up and that stands at the new field should be ready by Friday.

A SPECIAL award was presented to Jeff Barth at the Farmington Baseball for Boys Banquet Monday night as leading batter in the Little League during the past season. He is shown above right, receiving his award from Charlie Gehring, honored guest. Daryl Allen also received a special award as batting champion in the Babe Ruth League.

Over 200 Boys, Fathers Attend Baseball Banquet Monday Night

Monday night the Farmington held their seventh annual banquet with over 200 Little Leaguers and their fathers attending guests of the Farmington Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Detroit Tiger's Hall of Fame member, Charlie Gehring, was guest of honor.

Calib Moore, vice president in charge of the Babe Ruth League then introduced the many men that were in the Babe Ruth organization. Umpire - in - chief Jim Warner and Charlie Gehring then handed out the trophies. Max Hawkins accepted a large team trophy for the Edgar S. Mather Dodgers who were League champions. Following this the individual trophies were given out. A special trophy to the leading batter of the League was Daryl Allen who batted .419. Harvey Chapman was awarded the pitching trophy.

John Berling, vice president of the Little League, introduced the players who were awarded trophies in the Little League section. Manager Bill Wall of the Curt Hall Cardinals accepted the championship trophy on behalf of Curt Hall. His team was then awarded 44 individual trophies.

Jeff Barth of the Tigers was awarded the batting championship trophy which he won with a .572 average. Co-pitching trophies were awarded to Cardinal pitchers Tom Thomas and Jeff Greene who each had a 5-1 record for the season. All the graduating 12 year olds from the four teams were given a medal for participation. Following this, Commissioner Hub Barth introduced Jim Byrne, vice president in charge of the Little League Farm Section who was awarded certificates for the two winning teams in the farm group. Harry Lapham and Farley Thompson then accepted the certificates for the outstanding 8 year olds in the League.

Harvey Chapman, who is one of the original five men who started Little League in Farmington 7 years ago, then awarded Jim Warner a certificate of merit signed by 45 former members of the Little League, past presidents, managers and co-workers in the Little League for the time and devotion that he has put into Little League for the past 7 years in the capacity of umpire - in - chief.

Prior to the showing of a film on the 1956 All - Star game, Hub Barth introduced Bob Brown, President of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and Jaycee members that worked to put this banquet on and they were given a standing ovation.

First O.L.S. Grid Game Set Sunday

Fielding a football team for the first time this year, Our Lady of Sorrows School graders will play their first game this Sunday when they take on Roseville.

The game will be played at Roseville Memorial Park and will get underway at 2:30 p.m.

This is the first year that Our Lady of Sorrows is offering a full four year high school program. Prior to this time, however, O.L.S. teams have competed in basketball and baseball athletic events with other schools in the area on a non-conference schedule.

Yvon Durelle To Fight Willi Besmanoff, Sept. 25

British Empire light-heavyweight champion Yvon Durelle will battle Willi Besmanoff at Olympia Wednesday night, September 25.

Durelle is a slightly different way, great resemblances to Jake La Motta in his heyday. He, like La Motta, believes in wading from the opening bell, punching with both hands and keeping on punching until something gives. He also resembles LaMotta in his readiness to meet anybody at any time and likes to fight often.

"There are two ways of spreading light—to be the candle, or the mirror that reflects it."—Edith Wharton.

Plan Antique Fair At Will-O-Way

The Michigan Animal Rescue League will sponsor its Fifth Annual Antique Fair, September 26, 27, 28 at the Will-O-Way Playhouse on West Long Lake Road near Telegraph, Bloomfield Hills.

The usual colored glass, brass, copper and pewter will be seen along with some other unique pieces. Primitives to the elegant will be displayed in the furniture line, as well as books and other decorative items, officials stated.

The Animal Rescue League will turn over all proceeds for shelter for pets. The building is located on Featherstone Road near East Blvd., Pontiac, specifically for the proceeds to furnish cages and equipment for the shelter of the building. It is the first shelter run entirely by a humane society to be located in Oakland County.

Tea will be served by the inside and a baked sale will go on for the three days. Hours are from 11 a.m. thru 10 p.m.
