Paragons To Play
For Teen Toppers Dance

The Paragons Dance Band will provide the music for the Teen Toppers Teen Club Dance both this Friday and next Friday evenings at the American Legion Hall on Grand River at Lakeway. Dancing will be from 8 p.m. until 12 midnight and all teenagers of the Farmington area are invited to attend. Dances were resumed the first of this month following a summer recess and will be continued each Friday night throughout the school year, officials indicated.

AAUW Plans
Orientation
Tea Sept. 26

The Farmington Branch of the American Association of University Women will hold its annual orientation tea Thursday, September 26, from 2 to 3:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert Gringer, 28310 Halsted Road.

Program co-chairmen, Mrs. C. M. Timmons and Mrs. Kenneth Lachmann, state the purpose of the tea is to honor those who have become members during the past year and familiarize prospective members with the organization.

An invitation to all qualified women to join the American Association of University Women was issued by Mrs. Paul Calkins, membership chairman of the Farmington Branch.

The A.A.U.W. accepts as members all women holders of approved degrees from a list of over 300 colleges and universities. To be on this list, a college must have a high academic rating, provide a basic foundation of general or liberal arts education, make adequate provision for women students, give significant recognition to women on its faculty and administration, and maintain academic freedom in its administrative and teaching bodies.

The membership policy is thus centered, not on the qualifications of any individual women but rather on the qualifications of the college or university. Mrs. Calkins stressed. When a college is approved, all its graduates, regardless of the year of their graduation, become eligible for membership.

Twelve colleges in Michigan are approved by the A.A.U.W. They are Albion College, Central Michigan College of Education, Hope College, Kalamazoo College, Marygrove College, Michigan State University, Eastern Michigan College, Northern Michigan College of Education, University of Michigan, Wayne University, Western Michigan University and University of Detroit.

Information concerning other colleges on the approved list may be secured by calling the membership chairman or the Branch President, Mrs. Don Briggs.

Hostesses for the tea will be Mrs. Clarence Stoll, chairman; Mrs. C. W. Layton, Mrs. Donald McCracken, Mrs. James Cavanaugh, Mrs. Stephen Droege, Mrs. Robert Stone, Mrs. Jack Harrison, Mrs. Henry Otis, Mrs. A. M. Leach, and Miss Adella Minor.

MR. AND MRS. RONALD C. CLARKE

Lange-Clarke Exchange
Wedding Vows Sept. 7

At a candlelight ceremony at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, September 7, at the First Presbyterian Church in Farmington marriage vows were exchanged by Nancy Alice Lange and Ronald Charles Clarke.

The former Miss Lange is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Williams Lange of 22015 Maple Avenue and Mr. Clarke the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Clarke of 22800 Lakeway Avenue.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Reverend Richard Gieger before an altar adorned with white gladioli and candelabras on the floor. Several organ selections were played by Mrs. Donald Pierson with vocal selections including "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" sung by John Courville.

Miss Lange was lovely in a silk mist taffeta and imported lace gown trimmed in seed pearls and sequins and featuring a chapel train of lace over tulle. The bride's gown, as well as those worn by the attendants, were made by Mrs. E. Pettipiece, a friend of the family. The bride fashioned her own headpiece of lace covered with seed pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of roses and stephanotis with lace fill. Maid of honor was Sibyl Margaret Lange, a younger sister, who wore a floor length, peacock blue, "princess" style gown with the same as the bride's but with net to match her dress. She carried lemon yellow carnations. Bridesmaids were Linda Clarke, sister of the groom, and Barbara Annette who wore dresses identical to the maid-of-honor's. All wore crown-style caps with veils to match their gowns.

Ronald's twin brother, Roger, acted as best man. Ushers were Rudy Golla and Paul Hoonagle, both classmates of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Lange chose a beige lace dress and carried a beige clutch purse decorated with Rubrum lilies. Mrs. Clarke wore a toast-colored taffeta dress with brown accessories and a corsage of Pinocchio roses.

A reception was held at the John Knox House with punch, coffee, cakes, mints, and wedding cake being served. Refreshments were served by women in Mrs. Lange's Church Circle with Mrs. E. Moshammer in charge. Presiding at the guest register was Miss Nancy Morrison of Detroit.

Hostess was Mrs. Richard Schilbe, sister of the bride.

Out of town guests included the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Grand Haven, Michigan, Mrs. Nancy Gies from Howell and William Soper, the bride's uncle, from Detroit.

For a wedding trip to northern Michigan the new Mrs. Clarke chose a brown knit suit with snake skin shoes and a matching bag complemented with a rose corsage.

After October 1 the Clarks will make their home in Lansing, Michigan, while Ronald completes his education at Michigan State University. Nancy had been attending college at Central Michigan prior to her marriage.

Begin Collecting
