

O'Shea-Horning of Redford Wed

Rev. Donald C. Cripp of Redford Presbyterian Church joined Linda Lee Horning and Bernard Allan O'Shea in marriage July 10. The double-ring ceremony was performed at a 7 p.m. service.

Mark Jolly was the soloist accompanied by Bill Jones.

The bride's gown was of floor-length satin and a finger tip silk hand-made veil, fashioned and made by the bride herself.

Andra Chapple of Lexington and Doris Klippe of Delaware.

Redford Township, were bridesmaids and Mrs. Cheryl Sumner of Delaware, Redford Township, was matron of honor. Best man for the groom was Daniel O'Shea of Norborne, Redford Township; and seating party.

the guests was Norm Varga, Ponoma Drive, Redford Township; Thomas Mayle, John Zappitelli, Detroit.

The newlyweds motored to Florida for their wedding trip and are now at home on Strathmoor Avenue in Detroit.

A reception line with bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. John E. Horning, Kilmock, Redford Township, and groom's parents Mr. and Mrs. Bernard O'Shea greeted guests at a reception held at the VFW Hall on Lusher Road.

Both of the young people graduated from Redford Union High School. The groom attended Alma College and is a Delta Sigma Phi. He is presently a chemist for Home Juice Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard O'Shea

See You There!

Art Exhibit Open To Public August 23 In Farmington

Margaret Cramer, well-known artist on the Detroit scene, will judge the Farmington Annual Art Exhibit, opening Sunday, Aug. 23, at the Universalist-Unitarian Church of Farmington.

Mrs. Cramer, whose paintings and other works have been displayed in numerous shows in this area, has had extensive artistic training both in her native Germany and in this country. She makes her home in Wayne, Mich.

She is skilled in many media in the art field and thus well qualified to make awards in the local exhibit. It is attracting artists from a wide area, including Farmington, Livonia, Southfield, Northville, Plymouth, Redford, Dearborn, Lincoln Park, Garden City and Birmingham.

The show will open Sunday, Aug. 23, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from Aug. 24-29 will welcome visitors from 2 to 9 p.m. The church is located on Warner at Thomas, half a block north of Grand River.

Artists wishing to submit up to three entries may get more information from Stanley Hunch, 425-1130, or Mrs. Wanda Pusey, GR 4-5099. There is a fee of 50 cents per entry, and each must be suitably trained or mounted.

Prices will be awarded to winners. Mrs. Cramer selects, the amount depending on the number of entries.
