

Livonia Schools Expect 2,250 Suburban Residents to Enroll in Evening Program

Young and older adults will be given opportunities to brush up on old skills or learn new ones in Livonia's evening business education classes this fall.

EVENING SCHOOL CLASSES will be offered in a number of Livonia locations this fall, as shown by this map. However, all registrations will be made at Bentley High School from Tuesday, September 22, through Friday, September 25, from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Classes start the week of September 28. Persons living in Redford Township, Farmington, Plymouth and other western suburban areas are invited to attend Livonia night classes upon payment of the same fees as Livonia residents.

Franklin High Schools.
Registrations for all business education courses will be taken at Bentley from 7:30-9:00 p.m. from Tuesday to Friday next week. Included in the fall program are:
Beginning and Advanced Bookkeeping and Accounting; Fundamentals of double entry bookkeeping. Books and work materials are extra.
Business English: Is your speaking ability helping you to get ahead? Is your writing ability pushing you to the top? Is your spelling and use of words correct? Improve your speaking, writing, and spelling by taking Business English. Correct, effective speech and writing are powerful tools to success. In these classes adult students are taught the right words to use at the right time in both spoken and written English. And before you know it, you'll be heading toward the top!
Business Machines: A course designed to familiarize students with some of the more common business machines. Available in our laboratory are the following:

ing: Burroughs key-driven calculators (comp); the Marchant, Monroe, and Friden rotary calculators; ten-key and full key-board adding-listing machines; Burroughs Director accounting machine; Remington-Rand printing calculator; I.B.M. Executive (transcribing) machine; mimeograph and spirit duplicator and I.B.M. key punch machine.
Introduction to Data Processing: An introductory course in the basic principles of I.B.M. data processing, including discussion of the punched card design, machine functions, block diagramming, and electronic computers. (Theory Only).
Advanced Data Processing: Learn computer concepts and programming. Includes numbering systems, block diagramming, computer characteristics, and in-put, out-put media. Introduction to programming the 1400 series of I.B.M. Computers. Lecture and laboratory sessions are a part of the course. Advance knowledge of data processing necessary. Limited enrollment.
Investment in Stocks: Designed to provide information on the function of the stock exchange and how to invest wisely. Offered in the Fall and Winter terms only.

Beginning Gregg Shorthand: Basic principles of Gregg shorthand. For those just learning to read and write shorthand. No dictation. Class meets twice weekly. Text is extra.
Gregg 40-60 Dictation Shorthand: A complete review of basic theory principles. Beginning First Semester book used.
Gregg Refresher 60+: Short-Class meets two nights each week. Text books available first week of class.
hand: Reviews shorthand theory and dictation starting at 60 w.p.m. Class meets one night weekly.
ABC Stenographic Shorthand: This is an ideal course for a great many people. For the college student, or other person wishing to take rapid notes, or for anyone wishing to learn a shorthand system in a limited time. Not a substitute for Gregg Shorthand, but adequate for most situations. Class meets one night weekly. There is an additional charge for the text book.

Beginning Typing: For those without previous experience. Students gain a good, basic foundation of how to operate the typewriter by the "touch" system. Class meets twice weekly. Text and supplies are extra.
Intermediate Typing: The course is designed for persons who already know how to type, but wish to increase their speed and accuracy, and review such procedures as centering, tabulation, better writing, etc. Work will be done to perfect the techniques and habits of the students who advance at their own rate of speed. Books are available first week of class at an additional cost.
Electric Advanced Typing: This is an advanced review refresher course with primary emphasis on speed and accuracy on the "electric" typewriter.
