Bentley, Farmington To Battle In Opener

Farmington vs. Bentley at Bentley High Friday evening.

It shapes up as an interesting high school football opener for both sides.

Reason: Both teams are hopeful of bouncing back on the prep grid scene after some tough going in recent years.

If there's an edge on the eve of the game it would appear to belong to Farmington, which has a solid backfield of veterans while Bentley is beset with some problems, especially at the quarterback slot.

Coach John Hayes at Farmington, who has seen his charges win only seven times in the last four years, presents a team that's two-thirds back from on his f-a-m and a murderous schedule.

Behind them are Dick Isbell, back and Ray Lardie, the latter back after missing the '63 season with a broken leg. Ron Short and Mike Wilcox could help — the Wilson young man with his fine passing.

Hayes also is grooming some "juniors" for the opposition. With capable runners and passers in the game at the same time — Johnson played some quarterback and headed the ball well a year ago — there's no telling who might be about to run or pass.

"Maybe we can startle our rivals that way," adds Hayes.

The veterans in the Farmington line will include Tom Mitchell and Terry Neilson as ends, a tall end in Tom Hoben, a left end in Tom Hoben and a North Farmington — on possible winning seasons.

Both coaches — Ralph Temby at Clarenceville and John Hayes at North Farmington — are nailing down their starting lineups.

"A 'winner' would be someone new at Clarenceville. When the school won its 1963 finals, it marked the first time in two years Clarenceville had trumpled on the gridiron."

"While we lost several boys to football, we have a new spirit on this team. The great number of new boys on the team seem to

FEW HOLES remain to be filled before Bentley High football coach Larry Jolner has his team ready for Friday's 1964 opener against Farmington under the lights on the Bentley High field. Jolner is shown with eight returning regulars from last fall — but there are three big gaps in the line. The group includes

Clarenceville To Greet N. Farmington Gridders

Something must give right off the bat Friday night when North Farmington invades Clarenceville (8 o'clock), to lift the lid on the 1964 football season for both high schools.

Both coaches — Ralph Temby at Clarenceville and John Hayes at North Farmington — are nailing down their starting lineups.

"While we lost several boys to football, we have a new spirit on this team. The great number of new boys on the team seem to inspire those who are returning."

Danny Freels is slated to guide the Clarenceville attack from the quarterback slot. He played the post during most of the '63 season. Right behind him are Dick Johnson and Chuck Watkins.

Jim Bedson, last year's speedster, is back. So is Chris Hanks, who worked mostly on defense in '63 but will go to offense this year.

Both sophomores, Phil Amick and Dennis Lopez, are in the backfield. Mike Freeman and King Cotton at the guards, and Mike Parry, a linebacker.

"I hope the rivals don't wear us down," adds Hayes.

Over at Bentley, where Coach Larry Jolner is eager to get his forces off the right foot and into the 26-3 season in '63, he still is in the dark between Nick Bonder, a junior, and Harvey Jaksch, a senior, as his quarterback.

"I think we'll just have to try both of them under fire," said the coach, who is the best man to handle the job.

There are nine veterans on the Bentley roster. They are Back Phil Maynard, Mike Materia, John Plumley, Dennis Lopez and Bob Lucas.
