League of Women Voters Man Registration Booth

To encourage voter registration during the last few days prior to the Oct. 5 deadline, the League of Women Voters of Livonia has set up a registration booth at Sears in the Livonia Mall, 7 Mile and Middlebelt. The registration drive is part of the League's "Your Vote Makes a Difference" campaign, a non-partisan effort to encourage all citizens who are not registered to get their names on the books and then go to the polls in November.

Located on the main floor at the new Sears store, the LWV booth will be open from 3 to 9 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 1; Friday, Oct. 2 and Monday, Oct. 5. Registrars from the Livonia City Clerk's office will be on hand during these three days to enable unregistered Livonia citizens to qualify to vote in the November general election. In addition, local residents may register at the City Hall weekdays through Oct. 5. The League has also announced plans for a "Meet Your Candidate" program scheduled for 8:30 p.m., Friday, Oct. 30, at the Franklin High School Auditorium in Livonia.

Among those who have been invited by the LWV to speak and answer questions from the audience are candidates for the office of governor, Lieutenant Governor, United States Senate, 19th Congressional District, 14th State Senatorial District and the 33rd and 35th State Representative Districts.

Livonia's Miss Siren Of '63, Weds C. Fogliatti

Lawrence C. Fogliatti and shoes and a silver crowned veil Lynn R. Ford were married on Sept. 5 at St. Priscilla's Parish, Livonia. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard H. Ford of Brookwood, Livonia, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Fogliatti of Detroit. Lynn's gown was a floor length gown of silk with a lace bodice. Sent pearly lined the bodice and front panel of the gown. The bouffant shoulder length veil was highlighted by a scalloped crown tipped with the seed pearls.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leeds

Leeds-Donnelly Repeat Vows

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Donnelly, Collingham, Farmington, was united in marriage to Robert Leeds, Dearborn, Livonia. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Leeds. The candlelight wedding ceremony took place at Grace Lutheran Church, Redford Township, Saturday, Aug. 22, of pink sweetheart roses and with Pastor Victor Halboth, Sr. officiating.

Mrs. Bruggman accompanied Fred Gallmeier singing "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." The bride chose a bell-shaped formal length gown of white silk organza over tulle with a bodice of chandelier lace accented with tiny seed pearls at the neckline. The same type of lace adorned the skirt front and chapel train. Her bouffant silk illusion veil was held by the bride, Thomas Leeds, brother of the groom, seating the guests. The wedding reception was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall on Schoolcraft in Livonia. The bride is a graduate of Clarenceville High School. Her groom is a graduate of Wayne State U. Presently he is white roses and stephanotis, working on a graduate degree at Purdue University.
