

3 Bands Making Festival Musical

FARMINGTON

Summer band concerts will grace the Founders Festival schedule of events on both Thursday and Friday nights, July 26 and 27.

Thursday night Dr. Conrad Lamb will take the baton and lead the Franklin Village Band in several light selections just before the queen crowning.

The Franklin band began 14 years ago when a group of people from the Franklin Hills section of Farmington began talking about those good old fashioned summer band concerts on the village green.

The Franklin Village Band was the result, and Dr. Lamb was coaxed into being conductor. Lamb, a surgeon who is a consultant at Henry Ford Hospital, plays cornet and his wife is the base drummer.

Musicians ranging in age from 18 to 73 make up the band roster, which is called a "full balanced brass concert band." The group plays once a week during the summer months—quite often at ice cream socials, according to Dr. Lamb.
