Middlebelt PTA to Hear Author

Members of the Middlebelt School P.T.A. are eagerly anticipating their meeting next Monday, November 2, when Robert C. W. Ettinger, author of the provocative new book "The Politics of Mortality," will talk to the group about his controversial new ideas.

The book, which deals with the subject of freezing the newly dead with the expectation that science of the future will be able to revive, restore, regenerate and reanimate the frozen to enjoy a glorious future, either has been or is being published in book form or serialized in condensed form in publications in the United States, Canada, France, England, Italy, Holland, Germany, Australia, Scotland and as far away as Australia and South Africa.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kanka. The groom is the son of Mrs. Kithleian and Edgar Voss of Plymouth.

Barbara Denski, sister of the bride, was a 1963 graduate of Plymouth High School and is employed as a teacher in Michigan. Both are 1964 graduates of Owosso High School and is employed by Dura-Corporation. Dennis were an olive green crepe, floor length gown with matching pillbox headpiece. The bridesmaids were gowned identically to the bride, however, the maid of honor was flower girl dress in a yellow floor length dress.

News From Girl Scouts

Hello everyone! We extend our sincere sympathy to Brownie Leader Ann Leach of Troop 327 over the serious accident involving her husband, Fred. We wish him a speedy recovery.

By chance we did not accompany my husband, Paul, last Friday night and he was involved in an accident. Fortunately he was not seriously injured but had been with him in the car the night the accident happened, so doubt we would have been.

I have 4 available Brownie uniforms—size 10. My new girls are smaller this year and need sizes six and eight.

The surprise trip of my troupe was a complete success. The girls did not find out till we were on the road that Mr. and Mrs. Louis Waack of Farmington where they were going.

The girls were thrilled by the visit. They visited the white deer and Mrs. Waack told the girls to taste ears of corn and feed them. My "mothers" meeting was held with great success, and all but one mother came. We had our "coffee brunch" Monday morning, Sept. 28th, at the home of our co-leader Mrs. Shirley Sloane, 20015 Ravencrest.

Our "committee mothers" are the following: phone Mrs. George Gatzdowski, driver, Mrs. Roberta R. Gatzdowski, mother, will be shared by Mrs. Wilbur Steinkamp and Mrs. Robert Scott. Party is to be with a group of mothers. Halloween, Mrs. Robert Scott; Christmas, Mrs. James Moremen; Mrs. Shirley Sloane, mother, will be co-chairman. Her daughter will come and teach the girls some dances. We will be busy with our service project as last year. We will make "tray favors" and remember the birthdays of the 16 ladies on the first floor of Highland and have many years of experience in drawing.

The five dollar program fee covers all materials and leadership for the eight week program. A YMCA Youth membership is also necessary for new members.

The start date is Oct. 24th. Call 474-3232 for more information and registration. A limited number will be taken.

It's better to have a two dollar bill in your pocket than fifty dollars on the ponies.

On Sept. 17th, Brownsburg, Anderson, Robertson, and her sisters Helen, Eileen, and Donna, became the first and happy bride of David James, Jr. who weighed 10 pounds, 12 ounces. The proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. David James Robertson of 26633 Powers Road. A good reason for not attending the "mothers" meeting!

Let me hear of news from other Scout Troops and I'll do my best to pass it along the Farmington Scout Column.

Airman Promoted

Charles W. St. John, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles St. John of 9914 Roseland, Livonia, Mich., has been promoted to airman first class in the U.S. Air Force.

Committee mothers will be Mrs. Don Bramlage, Mrs. Harry Ramsey, and Mrs. George Newland. Mrs. Kleinhans and Mrs. at Selfridge AFB, Mich.

"The House Detective"

At the first meeting of the year on Oct. 14, the PTA sponsored at "Get Acquainted" session at the Shiawassee School. A movie, "Crowded Out," furnished by the Michigan Education Association was shown. The film told of the problems of the school system. Parents are confronted with when a school is overcrowded and how and why it affects the quality of the teaching.

Harriet Wagenschutz Marries Frederick A. Anuita On Sept. 4

Harriet Jean Wagenschutz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Wagenschutz of Melrose Ave., and Frederick A. Anuita, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Anuita of Dalby Ave., Redford, were united in marriage September 4, at St. Peters Evangelical Lutheran Church in Plymouth. The Rev. Norman Brink officiated at the 7:30 p.m. candlelight service.

Richard Shafir, the church organist, accompanied the Rev. Mueller of Peace Lutheran Church, Livonia, who sang "The Lords Prayer" and "Whither Thou Goest." The maid of honor was Betty Wagenschutz, sister-in-law of the bride, with two high school friends, Judith Wilson and Jill Berryman, serving as bridesmaids.

The man was Michael Conti of Iron Mountain. Ushering the guests were Ralph C. Wagenschutz, brother of the bride, and William Graham, brother-in-law of the groom.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a floor length gown of peau de soie, with seed pearls and lace applique trimming the bodice and train. Her veil, which was white, was of lace, was of hand-made Belgian lace. The bride was held in place by a white hilano orchid and stephanotis on a white bible.

The newlyweds returned to Northern Michigan University, where they are in their senior year. The bride is a member of Phi Kappa Psi sorority on the campus, while the groom belongs to Tau Kappa Epsilon.
