Four School Superintendents Back Kreger for Board

Four local school superintendents have endorsed the candidacy of John C. Kreger for a six-year term on the State Board of Education.

Superintendents Benton Yates of Livonia, Russell S. Hilbert of Redford Union, Russell Ishister of Plymouth and Merlin D. Roe of Southfield have given Kreger their backing.

Kreger, a Republican, has served 15 years as a member of the Flat Rock Board of Education, 13 of the years as the president. In addition, he has served as president of the Wayne County Association of School Boards and on the association's executive committee for six years.

The endorsement of Kreger, the Superintendents said, "is not to be construed as a reflection on other candidates. However, these school administrators are well aware of his untiring ef-

Democrats, Independents Join to Support Chandler

A group of Democratic and independent voters in the 14th district has announced it will support the candidacy of Paul M. Chandler for State Senate from this area. Chandler is the Republican nominee.

"We intend to split our tickets November 3," a statement by the group said. "We know it is important to have strong, effective and liberal leadership in both Washington and Lansing, and that's why we're voting for Chandler."

"Chandler, as State Representative, has distinguished himself for his strong support of education, human rights and other related issues in Lansing," the statement continued.

Persons identified with the statement thus far include Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Joyner of Livonia; Mr. Miriam King of Livonia; Mr. and Mrs. Thor Peterson of Sylvan Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Epps of Livonia; Mr. and Mrs. David Jones of Livonia; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. School Boards Invited to Visit Schoolcraft

Members of Boards of Education, from each of the five sponsoring communities in the Schoolcraft College district, have been invited to visit the campus on Sunday, Nov. 1 at 2 p.m., according to President Dr. Eric Bradner, acting on instruction from the Schoolcraft College Board of Trustees.

School Board members and their wives will have an opportunity to inspect the new facilities of the community college which opened doors for the first time in late August.

The College Trustees will be present to guide the visitors around the campus.

An open house for the citizens of the college district, which includes Livonia, Plymouth, Garden City, Clarenceville and Northville, has been scheduled for Sunday, Nov. 8 from 1 to 5 p.m.

All facilities on the campus will be thrown open for inspection and the general public is invited—especially those residents of the college district.

EVERYONE GETS INTO THE ACT —The Livonia TARS (Teenage Republicans) picked up signs from headquarters and formed a picket line marching in a circle in front of the Campbell home in Coventry Gardens. The Campbells were holding a "Coffee" for Democratic candidate for U.S. Congress, Billie Farnum. The young politicians were carrying Goldwater and Kuhn signs. When asked by The Observer reporter if someone had sent them they replied, "No, we heard of the meeting and desired to demonstrate against the candidate."

Boys' Fair Aids CARE

They cared enough. A club of ten boys in Livonia's County Homes subdivision held a CARE Fair to raise money for CARE.

The boys, members of SNCCCH (Science - Nature - Camping - Conservation and Hiking Club), solicited the neighborhood for used books. When they acquired enough books, they decided to combine some carnival features with the title "CARE Fair." They designed and circulated 300 fliers for publicity for the event to be held on Saturday, October 10, in the basement of David Stevenson, club president.

The carnival features included a "Swami" fortune teller, a bean-bag throw, a cupcake walk to the tune of Follow the Leader, refreshments and several other games. Prizes were purchased with funds from the club treasury. Mothers donated pop, kool aid, donuts, cupcakes, prizes, popcorn and candy for the fund raising event.

The results? The boys grossed $35.19. After expenses of $10 they voted to give $25 to CARE and retain $5 in the treasury. Treasury funds will be used to purchase a telescope.

Who benefits? CARE, of course. But, how about the boys? Their ingenuity, hard work and charity will prepare these kids as real contributors to our future society. The real beneficiaries? Our society.
