

Halloween Goblins Will Rule At Masquerade

By JERRY WENDT

THE WITCHES WILL RIDE AND THE GOBLINS HOWL

... on Nov. 6th, at the Knights of Columbus Hall on Middlebelt when the Forest Park Home Owners Association will hold their Fall Masquerade Party. The committee for this party, composed of chairman Joe Zuchowski, Mrs. and Mrs. Joe Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cridle, Mr. and Mrs. Don Oliveto, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Huebner, Mr. and Mrs. Dana O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Nolan have been working hard and have come up with some truly original decorations. When the gaily costumed guests enter the hall they will see Halloween type decorations throughout. Individual tables of 10 will be placed about the room and in the center of each table will be a hollowed out pumpkin lined with a plastic envelope to be used as individual ice buckets. Placed next to these ice buckets will be a small can of paint and a brush. The guests will be encouraged to try their hand at painting a face on the pumpkin. Prizes will be awarded for the funniest face. Orange and black candles will also center the table. A tempting buffet featuring spaghetti, meat balls, fried chicken, etc. will be served. Beer and mixes are furnished. Ray Korth will provide the music. The festivities will be capped by prizes being awarded for the various costumes, the most original, funniest, etc. Time is 9 p.m., five dollars per couple. For reservations call Joe Zuchowski, 474-5052.

TAKE ME TO YOUR LEADER

Patrons eating a late lunch at the Parker House last week were astounded to see a huge metal object drop from the sky into the parking lot. A door opened in the side and out came, no not Martians, but two smartly clad gentlemen who calmly proceeded to enter the restaurant and then leave before anyone could get their names! Inquiry proved these gentlemen were the owners of a helicopter and frequently landed in this fashion. The next time this happens will someone please call the Observer, GA. 2-0900, so we can interview these gentlemen.

DICK KUHN

will be at the Republican Headquarters tonight at 7:30 p.m. to Meet the People.

FROZEN AND THEN BROUGHT BACK TO LIFE!

this will be the subject of the talk at 8:00 Monday, Nov. 2, at the meeting of the Middlebelt P.T.A. Mr. Ettinger wrote "The Prospect of Immortality," which has been printed in many countries. He teaches at Highland Park College and his wife, teaches at Middlebelt High. This book was featured in the book store in the Farmington Center all last week. It has also gone into several printings both here and abroad. After his speech, Mr. Ettinger will fly to NYC to tape some interviews and appearances on TV programs. I hope the people they revive will have some voice in the matter. As one who maintains a brisk pace of 40 m.p.h. on Telegraph Rd. during the rush hour, I don't want to find myself revived, and strapped into a suit equipped with jet propulsion and zoomed out into space for a quick trip to Mars.

FORMER FARMINGTON STUDENTS

dot the campuses of colleges and universities like autumn leaves this fall. Carol Raus, Jim Cate, Don Bramlage, and Forrest Hayford attend University of Michigan. Cheryl Flehman, Marsha Heyn, Laurie Cairns, and Sue Abrams attend Michigan State. Central in Mount Pleasant has claimed Joan Cogdill, and Ruthie War-lanti attending Eastern College. Mary Warner is at Ypsi-Ruthie and Mary Warner are the granddaughters of Joseph Himmelsbach.

CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hoffman on their 25th wedding anniversary. They celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary. They celebrated this event with their two daughters, Denise and Barbara, and 25 friends and relatives Oct. 21. Dinner was at El Stefano's. Later more friends joined them and their party at home for a beautifully decorated cake and coffee.

NOTRE DAME IS UNDEFEATED

and Harold and Doris Freeman Robert and Lois Allen are hoping they will hold that record this Saturday. The Allens and the Freemans leave for Benton Harbor on Friday where they will make their headquarters attend the game on Saturday then return home Sunday. Sounds like a terrific weekend.

DISC JOCKEY TERRY FRISCO

will host the dance program for the teen-agers Halloween party the Junior Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring on Oct. 31st at the Senior High School on Shiwassee. Refreshments will be served. THERE IS NO ADMISSION CHARGE. All teen-agers are invited. Time 7:00 to 10:00.

DISC JOCKEYS Skip Griffin (left) and George Uxa, and their dates, kept things swingin' at the first dance sponsored by FATAAC—The Farmington Area Teen Activities Council. The group will hold dances on the first and third Saturday of every month, at its recreation house on Grand River and Drake Road.

AN ALL REQUEST MENU

will be served by Agnes Goodrich on Saturday, Oct. 24, to her former Farmington neighbors. When Agnes and Claire Goodrich lived in Farmington their neighbors enjoyed many of Agnes' delicious food specialties. Therefore, when she invited her former neighbors to a party on Saturday night, nearly everyone asked her to cook their favorite dish. So far she has promised to make a double batch of her rich chocolate fudge and her "Scotch" tarts, a concoction of raisins, nuts, and flaky pastry. Arriving for a calorie-laden evening will be Jack and Peg Dallen, Barbara Halch and Henry Halch, Mary and Earl Stevens, and Bert and Margaret DeHann.

VISITORS FROM FLINT

Jen and Harold Alarie were the guests of the Jack Dallans this weekend in their home on Hawberry Road.

AUCTION FUN

The auction at the Centennial Farm of the Gibson family drew many of the local residents to rummage and bid on the articles offered.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ackery of Old Homestead Subdivision were on hand most of the day buying for their summer home on Higgins Lake. They missed bidding on some iron fencing they had an eye on but did come away the proud owners of an old horseshoe lounge.

Beve Seger was delighted with some rusty old cultivator wheels which she claims will make absolutely beautiful wall decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurd and children were happily rummaging through the barns. Mrs. King and Faye Kupferschmidt were seated waiting for some goodies to appear on the auction block. Others seen were Christ Harris, Helen McMillen, Mrs. Flambert, Bert and Betty Herring, Ray Sherpatia, Ken and Kay Humm, Mrs. Janice Whyte with a group of ladies from Livonia.

SENIORS MEET

The Senior Citizens Club of Farmington will meet for a business and social afternoon at the First Methodist Church on Thursday, Oct. 29 at noon. The club extends a cordial invitation to join them for fun and refreshments. Members and guests are asked to bring their own snack.

November 6th is World Community Day of Service and on October 27th the women of the Trinity Episcopal Church will meet at the church to mend and get clothing in order for this important day.
