Designed and built, by Sandy Hawthorne of Beaumont, the house features an open central section formed by the living room, family room and kitchending area. It has three bedrooms and two full baths and is privacy.

The contest judges particularly liked the restrained use of exterior materials and textures including charcoal gray asphalt roofing shingles.

A growing number of newhome builders are turning to mew, heavier asphalt shingles to add a greater feeling of substance and explessing texture to a roof.

Most people try to plan their homes to give family and friends the utmost in comfort and convenience. In terms of materially increasing the value of a home, as well as increasing convenience, a powder room is well worth considering.

worth considering.

It can save countless steps in any home, and is a particular blessing to elderly persons who find it strenuous climbing stairs to a bathroom on the second floor.

Another big point in its favor, says the Plumbing-Heating-A long, low and lean house in Beaumont, Texas, was rated one of the "best built" in a contest sponsored by American Builder The awards, according to American Builder, were based on "quality of design, materials and the use of modern building methods."

Check Home For Possible Hazards

In older homes, a check should be made to be certain that the home is adequately wired. This is especially important where major appliances have been installed without the supervision of an electrical contractor.

contractor.

Faulty furnaces, ranges, bot water heaters and other heating units should be examined carefully by a competent serviceman. They should be cleaned and repaired immediately, if necessary.
