Protestants Asked To Support Aid Program

Protestant organizations throughout the United States will be asked to contribute $1,072,850 during the giving season to finance the annual Share Our Substance program through which millions of needy persons overseas receive life-sustaining food.

Church World Service, the overseas agency for the National Council of Churches of Christ, announced that during 1963 approximately one third billion pounds of foodstuffs donated from U.S. Government stocks and valued at $10,000,000, in addition to 5,000,000 pounds donated by the Christian Relief Program (CROP), will be sent to areas of acute need in many parts of the world.

Church World Service conducts programs of relief and rehabilitation in 42 countries in Africa, Asia, the Near East, Latin America and Europe.

The big Protestant agency works closely with the Division of Inter-Church Aid, Refugee and World Service, its counterpart branch of the World Council of Churches with headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland.

Kinds of foods shipped to the needy are principally wheat flour, bulgur (a wheat com-

Lecture Tells Us "To Awake"

A man's awareness of what is really going on around him depends upon the element of "spiritual perception," said a Christian Science lecturer in Livonia on Nov. 5.

"True sight is spiritual," said Martin N. Heffer, and without this "spiritual sense" man is for all practical purposes asleep.

Most of us are somewhere in the process of gradually waking up, he indicated, quoting the Bible: "It is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed" (Romans).

Books Sought for College in India

Libraries are the backbone of colleges and the library for the Neuman College now being built in Kerala, India, is no exception.

The Rev. Paul Tharanayil, who is currently in the country, seeking to obtain 10,000 volumes as a start for the new library.

What the Rev. Tharanayil desires is texts and hardback books which can be used as reference materials by the students.

To date he has collected 4,000 books, but he needs the additional six thousand volumes by December. He promises that the college will be responsible for the shipping costs of the books.

The Rosary Court of the Catholic Daughters of America is assisting Fr. Tharanayil in his quest.

If you have any volumes that could be donated or wish further information contact the Chairman of the Catholic Daughters, Mrs. Jerome A. Mallett at GA 2-1222.

Study Sessions Scheduled at Ascension Lutheran Church

Mrs. Mark Hinderlie, Janesville, Wisconsin, will be the instructor in a special study session on the Ascension Lutheran Church, 3301 Five Mile Road, Livonia, during a series of study sessions Nov. 14 through 23.

Mrs. Hinderlie is a resident counselor on the Stewardship of the Ascension Lutheran Church. He will be in Livonia for ten days to direct the stewardship-education program in Ascension Lutheran Church.

Purpose of the program, according to Pastor Arnold H. Jahr, is to "increase the spiritual vitality of each of the members of Ascension Lutheran Church through a series of congregational meetings, Bible studies, and home visitations."

The entire program is oriented around a system of Bible study which involves every member of the congregation.

Members of the congregation who are serving as committee chairmen for the program are: Eldon Avery, 14805 Country Club, general chairman; Gerald Grosh, 30840 Westworth, vision chairman; Mrs. Zelma Orna, 30130 Iloy Road, arrangement chairman; and Mrs. Glenn Grosh, 30840 Westworth, hostesses chairman.

The calendar of events at Ascension Lutheran Church during the next two weeks includes: Worship Services on Sunday, Nov. 15, 10:45 a.m.; Sunday, Nov. 22, 10:45 a.m., and Thanksgiving Eve, Nov. 23, 7:30 p.m.

At the Pastor's Office will be a series of three sermons: "Stewardship of God's Gifts is by God's Grace" (Romans 11:35-12:8); "The Practice of Christian Stewardship is To God's Glory" (Matthew 5:14-16; John 15:4-8); and "We Fulfill Our Stewardship as 'Good Masters'" (2 Corinthians 9:1-15).

Two Bible Studies will be conducted by Mr. Hinderlie: Sunday, Nov. 15, 7 p.m.; Tuesday, Nov. 17, 7:30 p.m. He will also be in charge of meetings with those in charge of arrangements and the hostesses for the Loyalty Dinner, and those who will make the visits in the homes of members.

Ascension Lutheran Church, organized on March 13 this year, has almost 300 members, and is presently one of the fastest growing congregations of The Michigan District of The American Lutheran Church.

Unitarians To Hear "Talkback"

A "talkback" on the subject "Can You Afford To Die?" is scheduled at the 10 a.m. service Sunday, Nov. 15, at the Universalist Unitarian Church of Farmington.

The talkback gives an opportunity to church members and others in the community interested in the subject to air their views and pose questions on subjects previously discussed from the pulpit.

Present for the discussion, along with minister Robert M. Eddy, will be Mr. Pat Thornton, recording secretary of the Detroit Memorial Society, and her husband William Thornton, representative of the legal community of the society.

Mr. Eddy discussed the subject several weeks ago, detailing in part the work of the Memorial Society and its work in offering members alternatives to current funeral practices in this country.

The first of Sunday morning, at 9:30 a.m., and the same material on Thursday evenings at 7:30 p.m.

The "Comparing Christianity" series begin with the topic: "The Bible As the Basis," a view of the Word of God as it is used by various Christian denominations.

Risen Christ Lutheran Church, a Missouri Synod congregation, will conduct the series of lecture-discussions at its chapel, 41233 E. Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth.

Lutherans Warned About Compromise

A faculty member of the Milwaukee Lutheran Teachers College told 600 members of the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod that the Lutheran Church is in "danger of losing its strength" when it compromises with the verbally inspired in-herent scripture.

Dr. Siebert Becker told delegates to the Seventh Annual Reformation Rally at St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Plymouth that just as Samson lost his strength when deprived of his locks by Delilah the Church loses its power in compromise.

He pointed out that in the current trend of Church mergers the necessary compromise results in a loss of the power of God's word.

The Lutheran doctrine of "inherent scripture" holds that the scriptures are the divinely inspired word of God and as such are without error, in every part. The current approach to scriptures (often holds that it is merely a word of man and therefore, fallible. The Reformation Rally com-
