Student Council Elections Held at Grandview School

GRANDVIEW: Student Council election, scientific discovery, nature center visit, and Veterans Day reports have kept Grandview students busy since last report. Some 400 students (grades 3-6) voted by secret ballot for Student Council candidates following campaigning and promoting speeches, winners included: Pres. Kyle Moller, Vice-Pres. Ricky Wilson, Sec. Gary Marshall, and Treas. Don Penskar.

On November 24 the Student Council will present the Ed Johnson's Marionette Show, "The Grass Forest." Mrs. Donald Butman's class has studied several questions which could only be answered by the scientific method of discovery. Facts were compiled by actual happenings and the outcome was then not affected by opinions or wishes. Several interesting results were learned by these students.

The first graders of Mrs. House and Mrs. Switzer visited Kensington Nature Center. They heard a talk about getting ready for winter. After the talk a short walk along the nature trail showed animals getting ready for winter also. Miss Beverly Rose had her class study six important military conflicts in the last one hundred years and small groups of children made reports about their event to the rest of the class. Courses, results, effect, and many were all part of the study. A special

Girl Scout Notes

Girls: PAPPY REGAN asked me to be sure and "Thank You" for dressing the 39 dolls, for the Goodwill, for him." The Senior Scouts Troop No. 258, Cadette Troop No. 317, Leader Mrs. STEWART and Cadettes, LEADER MRS. SCHULKINS, of South Eastern, and an added "Thank You" from Leader of Senior Troop, MRS. BRIDGET REAGAN.

MRS. WISSINGER, 474-4087, has some scout uniforms on hand, or if you have uniforms to sell, will be glad to help if she can.

Cadette Troop No. 332, under Leader MRS. BLANCHARD, and Treasurer and Co-Leader MRS. MILES TIERNAN, have been very active. Mothers Committee, Telephone Chair, man MRS. C. LINDBOM and MRS. W. TAYLOR. Transportation Chairman, MRS. L. LITZEN, Snack Chairman, MRS. GO. Calendar Chairman, MRS. LAYNE, Cookie Chairman, MRS. K. JAGIELSKY.

On Oct. 15 the troop had their activities Day, and spent it as follows: From 9:15 till 10 a.m. at Snial Hospital, heard three speakers, the topic, "Careers Other Than Nursing," 1, a dietitian, 2, medical records, and 3, social service. Then MR. PRADY, head of public relations, conducted a tour of all departments of the hospital.

In the evening supper was in a cookout at Proud Lake. Saturday, Oct. 24 was "United Nations Day" and 10 a.m. found the troop meeting the Third Riverside Company Girl Guide Troop of Canada in Windsor. The group of 52 people took a walking tour of Windsor. The group visited the "Babe House" historical museum, which was very interesting. The Girl Guide Chapel in All Saints Anglican Church, where they saw the pure gold thread cloth, which hung behind the altar. This beautiful hanging hung in Westminster Abbey during the coronation service of Queen Elizabeth II.

In cars the girls then visited the Wellsted Art Museum, and had lunch at St. Ardan's Church. A handmade plaque with the Girl Scout Promise in script was presented by the Windsor friends. In return they were presented with friendship pins, and hand made autograph books.

Then an hour was spent at the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Station, which is located in a mansion overlooking the Detroit River and Belle Isle. The officers that conducted the tour were in their dress uniforms.

From there they went to the Girl Guide Headquarters and grounds. Meeting another troop camping on this site. A Brownie and Guide Hobby Show was in progress, which was very interesting and inspiring.

After being served hot chocolate and cookies, they started for home at 4 p.m. This was a wonderful day to say the least. In the spring the troop will have their Windsor friends over for the day. Saturday, Oct. 31, their annual "Candlelight" holidays, beans, potato chips, cheese, and cupcake dinner at Leader MRS. FORD'S.

The girls received their canisters to collect for UNICEF. Saturday, Nov. 7 found the troop baking Christmas cookies at the Redford Baptist Church. These will be boxed and sent to Lower State Hospital. MRS. J. WILSON and MRS. LUTZEN are their supervisor, as these busy Cadettes go about their duties. (More about this group later, as I have other news already on hand.)

The following troops turned in "Halloween Candy": Brownie Troops No. 527 and 127, Junior Troops No. 216, 365, 504 and 711 and Cadette Troop No. 317. We thank all of you. We know how children love candy. My own children surprised me. My son STEVEN, dressed as a Wee Santa Claus, collected his loot, along with my daughter PAULA. Upon returning home they turned over all their candy. (I know you're saying to yourselves, she told them to. On my son's Honor I didn't.) I couldn't take all the candy, but I'm very proud of my little ones.

Clarenceville Hosts Student Council Session

Clarenceville High School was the center of activity on Friday, Nov. 5, for Student Council representatives from the Wayne-Oakland County League.

Each school in the league sent representatives to take part in this workshop which included the election of league officers.

Following the general meeting and election several small groups met throughout the school to discuss many areas of student interest. Some of these areas were foreign exchange students, dropouts, student dress, education beyond high school, and student smoking and drinking. From those discussions a report will be developed and sent to each school. The meeting was concluded with dinner at the high school.
