CELEBRATIONS

Nine month old Laura Marie, daughter of Eleanor and Bill Weirman of Kendallwood Dr., celebrated her first Thanksgiving Day. Arriving from Farmington, Miss. was Bill's father, Ralph Weirman, and Eleanor's mother, Mrs. Lucille Larson of Detroit.

The David Morehouse's had a big family celebration. The reception room was attractively decorated and a lavish buffet prepared for approximately 20 guests. Helen Morehouse's twin sister Dorothy and her husband Vern LeBlanc will arrive from Essexville, Ind. Daughter Kathleen and her husband, Robert Zehner, of Livonia will be there with 82-year-old Mrs. Guy Zehner of Detroit.

BIRTHDAY HOSTESS

Miss Debbie Stevens of Hawberry Road is now a young lady so she planned every detail of her 12th birthday party. It was a paloma party and other young misses helping Debbie celebrate the occasion were: Kim MacClaren, Jill Kollins, Sheri Liebert, Cindy Crews, Pat Thamer, Joanne Fanton, Debbie Sams, Diane LeLonde, Kathy Linahan, and Marilyn Lennis.

CHANGE OF CLIMATE

Mrs. David Ellis of Gill Rd. has certainly experienced a change of climate. For the last month she was vacationing in Miami Beach. She flew both ways. The climate there was balmy and delightful. She and her companion for the trip, Mrs. Catherine McQuade of Dearborn, came right back to Michigan weather, snow, chills, and flu abounding!

JOHNNY WILL COME MARCHING HOME

This week with a Christmas mobile. (You remember Johnny, he is one of the retarded children who do not have the opportunity to make as many things to take home. On the days when the members of the Hill and Dale Garden Club visit them they take home a lovely gift.) Helen Mettel will be chairman of the group and on Dec. 3, the members will visit the classrooms with materials for a Christmas mobile. An aluminum pie plate will form the base and figures of marshmallows, holly wreaths of cranberries will decorate the plate. They can be suspended from a light fixture and make a most attractive decoration.

ANNE OSGOOD, publicity chairman for the Women's Club of Franklin Knolls is an editor's dream. Her copy is always on time and neatly typed. When she brought in her information of the Dec. 3rd meeting of the Franklin Knolls Women's Club she also brought in a calendar of their yearly events, it looks to be a most busy and most interesting year ahead. On Dec. 3rd the group will meet at 12:00 noon at St. Colman's Church on Middlebelt. Dessert and coffee will be served. Miss Marchek of the Reynolds Aluminum Co. will be the speaker. Her theme will be "Holiday Creations" and she will demonstrate the new Christmas gift wraps and decorations.

A SURPRISE!

Lee, and John Bamb, who used to be Kendallwoodites were surprised in their new home in Old Homestead subdivision by a housewarming visit from their old neighbors. They gifted the surprised Bamb with a money tree. Fifteen Thanksgiving guests sat down to the first Holiday dinner in their new home. Lee had her side of the family as guests for Thanksgiving, and John's side of the family will be guests for Christmas dinner.

GRANDSON ATTRACTION

JAMES LAURIE WILLIAMS is all of five months old and his proud grandmother, Mrs. Ethel Altemus of Cass Ave. flew to Hackettstown, New Jersey to visit him and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Williams. On all her trips, Ethel enjoyed shopping in New York, seeing shows, and visiting. But on this trip, her brand new grandson outshone all the other attractions!

NEW HOME FOR LIEBERTS The Norm Lieberts of Quail Hollow have purchased a summer home at Lewiston, Mich.

No summer cottage this — it has five bedrooms, is carpeted and has huge, floor to ceiling fireplaces. The Lieberts thoroughly enjoy it and spend every available minute there. Norm just returned from a hunting trip in time to get the family ready to spend the Thanksgiving holidays there. Norm, Irene, and their four children, Sherry, Denise, Norman, Susan, and Irene's sister Joan and her husband Ray Kiebas, and their children Wayne, Keith, Renay, and Shelley all enjoyed their holiday weekend at Lewiston.

STAMAN STITCHERS ARE HOSTS

Staman Stitches is the name of a very worthwhile subdivision project that manages to combine fun and charitable works harmoniously. Once a month, the pinners, as they are called, meet for brunch and pinning up the cancer pads (this is their project and nearly a hundred cancer pads are donated monthly) the Stitches meet in the evening, stitch the pads, then have coffee and dessert. The next meeting will be of the Pinners at Charlotte Waskowski's house on Staman Circle on Thursday, Dec. 3rd at 9:30 A.M. Their annual Christmas party will be held on Dec. 7th at 7:00 P.M. at the Farmington Savings and Loan Bank. The whole subdivision is invited. Mrs. Paul Scheff (president) informs us, and the affair is potluck. The decorations are secret as part of them are given as prizes. The entertainment is secret also. We have promised not to give it away so you will have to wait until Dec. 7th to unravel the mystery.
