Mr. and Mrs. William H. Engler

Engler-Hartt Says Vows

The children of two well-known Redford Township families were united in marriage Nov. 21 when Carol Hartt became the bride of William H. Engler. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Hartt and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Engler. The two Rev. Halbofs officiated at the 4 p.m. candlelight ceremony in Grace Lutheran Church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of white burnished silk with detachable train, empire bodice of lace. Her crown of seed pearls and lace, hand made by her mother, held in place her illusion, finger-tip veil.

Charlene Rae Williams served as maid of honor, wearing a low green tulle gown. The bridesmaids Sandra Lamerson, Judith Berger were identically gowned. Their baskets were filled with pink carnations and pink roses. Sharon Engler, sister of the groom, was a junior bridesmaid in a gown styled as the other attendants in carnation pink shade.

Edward LaBelle served as groomsmen and Larry Rackow, James Oliver seated guests. Mark Engler, brother of the groom, was a junior usher.

Following a trip to New York the young couple took up residence on Lemane in Redford Township. Both are graduates of Redford Union High School. The groom attended D.B.I. and the bride Northern Michigan University.
