CURTAIN GOING UP

By WALLY ROBERTS

Santa burdened with his bulging bag of goodies is getting his watch to the zero hour and before too long he will whiz off in his jet-propelled sled for the Detroit area. Parents will likely inundate the homes of our fair city.

Old Wally feeling quite munificent takes it upon himself at Yule time to give out lavish gifts. Last year we noted with glee neatly-stacked packages under the tree. This year old Wally will merely pull them out of Santa's bag and let them fall where they may.

First item out of the bag is rather bulky since it is a color TV set. Makes little difference which kind. As long as the tube has a variegated hue you'll be sure to see a real good "shune." Color programming is coming in large doses. The video o-lanes have that rainbow effect. Take it from old Wally it's real treat to see color. Quality has not changed, but at least it's more interesting when you can see the gory color of the blood when these rednecks bite the dust. So my first gift as a literary Santa to all readers is an eye-dazzling color set.

Next best large gift is a new black and white set that will bring in UHF channels 50, 56, and 20. You can have educational TV, Sports, and Hill-billy music with these three UHF channels. All TV sets purchased now have reconstituted innards so you can get the UHF channels.

Channel 56 has been with us for the past nine years. It continues to have some of the finest educational programming around. Of course, it is highly intellectual and you have to be some of the programming in small portions.

Channel 50 will be on the air sometime in January. This TV station promises to have sports, sports, and more sports. All the Red Wing hockey games, local high school basketball games, and college sports of all kinds have already been contracted. The Kaiser Broadcasting company has invested over a million dollars in remote pick-up equipment and is ready to give the Detroit area some thrilling athletic contests.

Channel 20 plans to be on the air by early March with ethnic telecasting. Minorities will have full sway over the TV policies of this station. Some of my advance information indicates that country and western music will be quite popular. Personally, I can't stand such musical drivel on radio. I hate to think what I will do when I can see as well as hear such insipid caterwauling.

Digging deep in Santa's bag among a maze of small presents, old Wally came upon a whole section of small, but important gifts. Reading the labels on the packages will give you a good idea of the gift.

To the Fisher Theater for its continued prosperity... bring in more thoughtful plays like "Luther." Although Al I dragged a hint, the rest of the show kept your mind razor-sharp as you attempted to discover what made Luther act as he did when he did. A most provocative play and it can be seen at the Hill Auditorium on Jan. 26 if you missed it at the Fisher.

Dean Jagger... TV principal on "Mr. Novak"... sorry to hear you have acquired an ulcer. Maybe the new principal, Burgess Meredith will be of harder stock. Take the enclosed bottle of milk faithfully to soothe that ulcer.

Livonia-Redford Players Guild... use the ticket plan enclosed wisely. It has been developed by experts. Hope you have S.R.O. at your next attractions.

Hilberly Classic Theater... stop your rehearsals long enough to drink a toast from the bottle of "moxie." I have sent you stronger fluid material, but it is all I could afford. Your first season was a winner and I know season number two will be even better with "Taming of the Shrew" opening on Jan. "Macbeth" follows a week later on Jan. 13.

To all local community theater groups struggling to find actors, workers, and patrons in the Livonia-Plymouth-Farmington-Redford area... all wrapped-up in a green tissue paper... is a twenty page plan as to how you can combine forces and become one large, local community group. You need each other. No need of competing for your audiences, your workers precious time, and the talents of many people.

Musique theater... inside your gift box you'll find some special perfume that you can spray on the walls of your indoor theater. This wild odor will waft its way out into the Detroit and surrounding suburban areas and attract thousands of folks to your theater. Let's hope you can seat them all on the weekends.

To the Mai-Kai, Terrace, Penn, and P.A. theaters... a box of TV commercials that you can insert in your next movie. Make the patrons feel at home by breaking up the movie at least three times. Think of the business your candy and popcorn counter will do. Our American audiences are so conditioned to go to the kitchen and get food during the commercial you should clean up.

Well, old Santa Roberts didn't get all the way to the bottom of his sack. Maybe it's just as well that he should leave something for Christmas 1965.

THE BILLBOARD
FISHER THEATRE - "DEAR ME, THE SKY IS FALLING" Getrude Reis featured in a new comedy. Fans of Molly Goldberg will enjoy this native humor. Opens on Dec. 21 for a four-week run.

HILBERLY CLASSIC THEATRE - "TAMING OF THE SHREW" Shakespeare in the classic tradition at Detroit's finest auditorium, the Hilberly Classic Theatre. Opens Jan. 6 for a six-week run in repertory with "A Night of a Thousand Anticorns" and "SCHOOL FOR WIVES." Classic repertory all opens weeks after holidays for a final week-end of performances. Second poster bill of plays in preparation.

DISCOTEQUE - "CAT ON HOT TEN HOOF" Bill Patent and Ace Azar featured in WUOL's exciting drama. Plays until Jan. 30 on weekends only.

Hold Party For Youngsters Sunday

Santa Claus arrived a few days early Sunday when members of the Plymouth Fire Department entertained more than 40 children at the third annual Christmas party in the Township Hall.

The youngsters, all children of volunteer firemen, received gifts from Santa after a period of games and entertainment.

The event was in charge of Capt. Barney Maas, general chairman of the Christmas party committee.

The Christmas Star Special demonstrations in the planetarium of Cranbrook Institute of Science will be given Dec. 23, 29, 30 and 31 at 2:30 p.m. The regular demonstration at 4 p.m. on Dec. 30 will also be held.

The timely topic is "The Christmas Star."

Bentley Opens Doors Today

The annual Christmas Alumni Open House sponsored by members of the senior class at Bentley High School, Five Mile and Hubbard, is today, Wednesday, December 23, from 12:30 to 3 p.m.

Raymond and Meiers, senior staff teachers were interested in having Bentley graduates return to visit them and to take a tour to see the many new facilities which have been added in the last few years.

Active tuberculosis now afflicts or seriously threatens 610,000 Americans. Help counteract TB by responding now to the Christmas Seal appeal of the TB and Health Society, 153 East Elizabeth. Phone Woodward 1-6897.
