THE NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS
"Twas the night before Christmas our Dad bought a house
With fireplace and mantle (but no hole for the mouse)
There are cabinets & plenty in the kitchen for Mom
And a place in the basement for our old cat, Tom.
A house, insulated from ground to attic,
Water heater and furnace, both automatic.
There are three spacious bedrooms and closets galore
And our faces reflect in the fine hardwood floor.
Just off the hall is a shiny new bath
And this takes the place of that well-trodden path.
The storm doors and windows installed with care,
Keep out the dirt and the frost bitten air.
The plumbing is good — and the wiring is, too,
No repairing at all for daddy to do!
Attached to the house is a heated garage
(Could this be a dream? Or, perhaps a mirage?)
'Round the house is a lawn with shrubbery and trees
And room there to play whenever we please!
While there from the den all paneled in birch
Is a view of the tower above our own church.
This, I know, is the best of Christmas of all —
For Daddy is pleased with the payments so small,
So to God we give thanks for our home snug and dear,
Such a nice place for Santa to visit this year,
And you, too, have a Christmas of love, mirth and fun,
And a Happy New Year, to our friends, everyone.
