Church to View Civil War Epic New Year's Eve

"Red Runs the River" Civil War Production of "Unusual Films" will be shown at the Southfield Community Church, 21122 Indian Street, (between Beech and Inkster north of 8 Mile) on New Year's Eve at 8:45 p.m. according to Pastor Raymond Bayne.

The 90-minute color film is more than a tale of secession and bloodshed. It is a powerful story of a soul in rebellion against God. Dr. Rob Jones Jr. plays the role of General Robert E. Lee, hard fighting hero of the Confederacy, a soldier who sees at religion until he is brought face to face with God on the battle field.

The true-life drama bears the conflict between the battle-hardened cynical Ewell and the Christian General Thomas Stone. Ewell is the clash of strong will and deep conviction develops against a background of market fire and booming cannons. All of the historical events, the battles—even the private lives of the principal characters—have been carefully documented. Costumes, weaponry, scenery and make-up are all quite authentic.

"Red Runs the River" was more than two years in the making. Some 600 actors—students, faculty and staff of the University—were involved in the production. Presiding will be Francis A. Kornegay, president of United Church Men and the Executive Director of the Detroit Urban League.

Mr. Kornegay issued an invitation to all Catholic, Eastern Orthodox and Protestant laymen of the metropolitan area to make reservations for the dinner, up to the capacity of the dining room. Michael Bida, president of the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Men, is also participating in this event.

The dinner meeting will be held at the Armentan Cultural Center, 17505 Winona, in Southfield, at 8:45 p.m.

Harold P. Koch, staff director for United Church Men, has given the following explicit directions: "From the intersection of 8 Mile and Southfield, go north on the Southfield service drive. This takes you right into the parking lot of the Center."

Tickets are $2.50 per plate, and reservations may be made by calling the Metropolitan Detroit Council of Churches, 902-0240, before Jan. 5.

First Commandment Slated for Discussion

Now the First Commandment gives purpose and direction to human endeavors will be a central theme at all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

The subject of the Bible Lesson is "God," and the Gold Text is from Deuteronomy (8:4): "Hear O Israel: The Lord our God is One Lord."

Correlative readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "Having no other gods, turning to no other, but the one perfect God, to guide him, is the wisdom of God, pure and eternal, having that Mind which was also in Christ" (p. 467).

He outlines the formal, seven-fold purpose of the meeting as follows:

- (1) To define biblical evangelism;
- (2) to expound the relevance of Christ's Gospel to the modern world;
- (3) to stress the urgency of evangelistic proclamation throughout the world in this generation;
- (4) to discover new methods of relating biblical evangelism to our times;
- (5) to study the obstacles to biblical evangelism and to propose the means of overcoming them;
- (6) to discover the types of evangelistic endeavor currently employed, in various lands; and (7) to summon the Church to recognize the priority of its evangelistic task.
