LADIES STEP FORWARD

"ELEGANCE" Is the Word For the All New ...

Today's Woman of Over 45. She no longer looks the part of the "matron" she was inevitably labeled a few short years ago. With the emphasis in beauty and in fashion on youth, today's daughters look barely younger than to-day's mothers.

MEMO: For lasting style and curves Jean's has a custom perm to impart the precise support needed for the type of curl desired.

THE CURLY LOOK. An adaptation of the curly look that features controlled curls with flare and a clear brow rather than all-over tumbling curls is more likely to enhance the features and throat line of women who are classified "Over-45."

Hurd-Wasvary Speak Nuptial Vows in Sept.

At a candlelight, double ring ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church in Royal Oak, Michigan, Patricia Anne Hurd of 23500 Middlebelt Road, Farmington, formerly of Royal Oak, became the bride of James Wasvary of 22115 11th Mile Road, Royal Oak.

A rosebud brocade satin, floor length gown with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves which was designed and sewn by the bride herself was lovely. One dozen rosebuds to match the dress with pearls cascading from each gathered up in a floor length veil of silk illusion. She carried two dozen white rosebuds.

THE MATRON of honor was Mrs. Thomas Drake of Lansing, sister of the bride. She wore a royal blue, floor length gown with elbow length sleeves and carried a nosegay of yellow and pink roses. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Kenneth Wasvary, sister-in-law of the bridegroom; Mrs. Paul Rakaczky and Mrs. Charles Thomas. Junior bridesmaid was Christine Bricker of Yale, cousin to the bride. They wore gowns very similar to the matron of honor's.

Kenneth Wasvary, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and Lawrence Wasvary, brother of the bridegroom; Carl Hurd, brother of the bride; and Edward Love were ushers.

Betsy Hurd, sister of the bride, was flower girl and Jay Morgan, cousin of the bride, ring bearer.

MRS. RUSSELL HURD chose a floor length dress of shocking pink with matching hat and eggshell colored gloves and purse. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds. Mrs. James Wasvary, the bridegroom's mother, wore a floor length gown of blue with matching hat and eggshell colored gloves and purse. Her flowers were yellow rosebuds.

Following the church ceremony, a reception was held in the church hall with sandwiches, cookies, punch and coffee being served as well as a four-tier wedding cake. The cake was made by an aunt of the bride, Mrs. Lloyd Morgan of Yale, Michigan.

The newlyweds honeymooned in New York City, at the World's Fair, in Washington, D.C. and Niagara Falls.

The newlyweds are now making their home at the Pine Grove Terrace Apt. 316, E. Hill Street in Ypsilanti, Michigan.

The Women of Kendallwood Farms

By JOAN HARRIS

Plans are being made for the next event on the social calendar of the Women of Kendallwood Farms, the annual Telephone Bridge and Pinocle Party is scheduled for Thursday evening, October 22, at 8 p.m.

The proceeds of this project will be used to supplement the funds for the year's program—an excellent series of speeches by outstanding personalities in varied fields such as art, drama, medicine and humanities.

PROGRAM CHAIRMAN Mrs. Ralph Lennis has been very fortunate to secure the services of Dr. Margaret Starn of the University of Michigan, Dr. Richard Straith, John Parker Glick, Malcolm Dooley (brother of the late Dr. Tom Dooley) and Dr. Jack Benner.

As chairman of this annual affair, Mrs. John Lovett is busy making plans for a successful evening of cards and prizes. Members will open their homes to their friends for an evening of bridge or pinocle, dessert and prizes. Card play starts at 8 p.m. and continues until 10:30 p.m. with a heavy one.

Standardized rules. At 10:30, each hostess will phone in the high score from her party to Mrs. Lovett who will then award a first prize of $5 and a second prize of $2 to the overall high scores in both bridge and pinocle. Each hostess will award individual prizes in her home.

AMONG THOSE who will be hostesses are Mrs. Stanley Malen, Mrs. Ralph Lennis, Mrs. Thomas Shearer, Mrs. Theodore Skones, Mrs. Fred Uhl, Mrs. Jack Crews, Mrs. Robert Miller, Mrs. Max Wayne, Mrs. Paul Robinson and Mrs. Richard Wright.

If you would like to be a hostess for this worthwhile project or if you would like to participate as a player, please call Mrs. Lovett, 476-2559.

The initial meeting of the season on September 22 was a delightful affair that was well received by the large crowd who attended. A tip of the hat to the chairman of the fashion show, Mrs. William Pendergrass, for a job excellently done. The models, members of Women of Kendallwood Farms and their daughters, displayed the latest in casual and dressy fall fashions in a professional manner.

MISS SHIRLEY GONDA did the commentary on their attire and also gave special fashion tips in regard to hemming, colors, etc. for the coming season.

Good tires are a vital factor in traffic safety, according to the Automobile Club of Michigan. Check your tires regularly to be sure the tread isn't worn dangerously thin, to be sure they are inflated to the proper pressure, and to be sure they are not wearing unevenly.

Our special thanks to the Country Junior for their lovely fashions and to Robert and Charles Salvo for the charming hairdos for the models.

The second meeting of the Women of Kendallwood Farms will be held Tuesday evening, October 27, at O. E. Dunkel Junior High School. President Mrs. Ralph Harris will call the meeting to order at 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria. We will be privileged to host Mrs. Margaret Sterne—a dynamic personality and outstanding speaker. Circle the date on your calendar and please note the change of meeting place for this meeting only.

The membership in the Women of Kendallwood Farms is limited to those women residing in Kendallwood and Westbrooke Manor. If you are interested in joining, please call Membership Chairman Mrs. Edward Curme, 474-2996.

After local competition, winners advance to state finals and the state Junior Miss then competes nationally for the title "America's Junior Miss."

Farmington's Junior Miss Pageant will be held this year on November 22 in the Junior High School auditorium. For further information, contact Al Sittnick, GR. 6-3075, or Norm Fotts, GR. 4-3342.

SAFFLOWER MARGARINE FOR WHITE SAUCE

Everyone has at some time in life known a really superb cook. If you know more than one you may be indeed fortunate; and it just might be that you are one of these people yourself. Cooks perform their magic with the simplest of ingredients and plenty of imagination.

One kitchen magician I know says she starts off with a white sauce and con- thins from there. A good basic white sauce can go on to be cream soup or a base for the casseroles. It can be gravy or the difference between plain green beans and Green Beans Parisienne. Let's start with the white sauce itself, remembering that the recipe is in the choice of ingredients. You use Shedd's Safflower Margarine as a spread and use it for baking. Make the white sauce with Shedd's Safflower Margarine, too.

Melt ¼ cup Shedd's Safflower Margarine in saucepan over low heat. Blend in ¼ cup flour. Gradually add 2 cups milk. Always use low heat or make the sauce in a double boiler to keep the delicate flavor. Use a large spoon for blending.

When thickened, stirring as you add the milk. When thickened, add the sauce hot over boiling water. Add salt and pepper to taste. Cook 2 cups cooked, diced potatoes; 1 tsp. chopped chives and a little more milk makes potato soup. Slice up some sharp cheese in the sauce and pour over the hot melted macaroni for a casserole. For a dip, simply add the basic sauce to the hot meat.

pin drippings after the meat has been removed. Put a little curry powder in the sauce and serve on hot-over lamb curry. These beans? The white sauce, plus ¼ cup chopped onion and a small can of drained mushrooms with cooked green beans. The white sauce must be smooth which means stirring constantly and you can start with the "beef" ingredients, which simply means Shedd's Safflower Margarine.

Now you can get even the fussiest members of your family to eat all those vitamin packed vegetables. Use Shedd's Safflower Margarine to add fine flavor to everything you cook and bake. And Shedd's Safflower Margarine is GUARANTEED lower in saturated fats than any margarine available in grocery stores.
