Important Reminder — The General Meeting is being held Thursday, October 22, at 8 p.m. at Boys Republic. Be sure to have your written questions ready to be presented to either Mr. Curt Hall or Mr. Aldo Vagnozzi for discussion at this meeting. Also be prepared to supplement the Nominating Committee's slate with your own nominations from the floor. Let's try to have a good turnout at this meeting!

So happy to report that Fran Spriggs, of Treadwell, is home and doing very well after two successive trips to Harper Hospital.

Will and Shirley Ann Strey, of Ontario, have two daughters, Cindy and Carol. Up until the time Cindy became a cheerleader, the Streys had no occasion to witness Little League Football. But recently, Will and Shirley Ann spent a Saturday afternoon at the Farmington High field watching their daughter help cheer the Rockets on to victory, and found themselves getting as excited as any football player's parents. After the game, they were so gracious as to invite the other cheerleaders from the subdivision back to their home for hot chocolate, which was a treat for these slightly-chilled, hard-working young ladies.

Karen Nolan, nine-year-old daughter of Marlene and Tom Nolan, expects to be back in the cheerleading section for next week's game following recent tonsillectomy.

The "Mahi" girls celebrated over three years of weekly making by inviting their husbands to take them out to dinner.

This resulted in a gay evening at the Kenwood Lounge and the Sing-a-Long for Brenda and Danny Waldman, Shirley and Dick Pretzloff, Roberta and Lloyd Schwartz, Dolly and Marshall Berison, and Elaine and Bob Cohen.

On Wednesday, October 28, the Garden Club will have two workshops to make the centerpieces to be used at the soon-to-be-held Fashion Show and Card Party. These workshops will be at 1 p.m. and at 8 p.m. at the home of Ella Schmidt, 5500 So. Brandon. All materials will be at Ella's and all members of the Garden Club should attend one of these two sessions. Also, anyone who still has not turned in their stamp books, please do so immediately, so they may be redeemed for door prizes for the November 12 fashion show and card party.

If you have not already been approached, look for your neighborhood cub scouts who will be selling fruit cakes and a good "scout" and buy one.

Ron and Beverly Rodda of South Brandon had more than their share of excitement the weekend of October 10 and 11. Ron was brought up in Canada and on that particular weekend, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Rodda, and his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Harst and their children, came in from Kitchener, Canada, to celebrate the Canadian Thanksgiving. About 12:30 or 1 o'clock Sunday morning a speeding teenager (not from our sub) lost control of his car, drove it over the lawn of Ed and Lucille Bin (who live next door to the Roddas), knocked down a tree, drove on across the Rodda's lawn, and smashed into the three cars parked at the Rodda's home, causing extensive damage.

Carl and Mary Jett, of Doreen, have sold their house and will be moving soon to their new home in Madison Heights.

The Teen Club has scheduled a Halloween Party for October 31. And you grown-ups, have you decided on a costume yet for our Fall Dance on November 6?

Diana Jourdan, 14 on October 21, celebrated her birthday with a king-size teen party on the 16th. Diana Nolan turned 8 on the 18th; Bob Rich, 14, on the 17th; Tom Pohlenz, 10, on the 18th; Bob Hoffman, 17, Jeff Huchbery, 10, and Ann Bedewitz, 9, on the 19th; Rubie Clifton, sweet sixteen on the 21st; and Scotty Webb, 3, on the 22nd. Happy Birthday all!

Celebrating their wedding anniversaries this past week, besides Ron and Beverly Rodda on the 16th as mentioned above, were Joyce and Howard Kopas, six years on the 18th; Phyllis and Dolph Anselmi, 13 years on the 20th; and Jane and Jack Ostlund, 12 years, also on the 20th.

Special congratulations to

Kendallwood Komments

By STEFANIE KUESTER 474-1420

The Al Little's of Ridgebrook Road have returned from a most enjoyable visit with the Don Robinsons of Atlanta, Georgia. Joyce describes Don and Marion's home as "perfectly charming."

Two couples spent a delightful week at High Hampton Inn and Country Club in North Carolina, playing golf, swimming and, of course, "eating."

MRS. DICK GIESWOLD entertained her bridge club at her Bonnet Hill home on Wednesday, Oct. 14. Two guests, Pat Clyde and Mary Case, subbed for regulars, Dena Shear and Len Heimforth. Other members attending and enjoying Marge's delicious dessert were Helen Snyder, Peg McIntosh, Shirley Otis, Marcia Wyatt and Helen Streng.

The Wayne Heydels of Mt. Prospect, Illinois, breezed into Kendallwood recently for an overnight with the Ed Carnes on Craftsburg Road. They saw a few friends on their quickie visit and then drove to East Lansing to see their daughter and attend the Michigan State-Michigan football game before returning home.
