LADIES STEP FORWARD

There's No Style Without Curl

JEAN'S RESPONSIBILITY TO YOU — THE PATRON

What are the essential qualities of a hair style? ... Whether it is a period of the newest line, arranged with utter simplicity or elaborate swirls, a hair style to be professional must have movement and design. Behind these two essentials, as every hairdresser knows, is curl. The curl can be extremely wide or very narrow, but it must be there to create the desired silhouette and design.

A setting will, of course, provide the curl—quickly and effectively—needed for the patron's coiffure. The style you give her may stay in an hour, a day or a week, depending upon the care she gives it, the weather, the hair's natural body and several other varying factors.

For a lasting style, a coiffure that will withstand humidity and wintry winds and requires only a minimum amount of care to retain its graceful looks, your patron should have a permanent wave. Once, not so many years ago, this meant the same tight curl for every head of hair.

The result was that many women decided to forego the important advantages of a permanent wave in order to avoid the fulsome curl. To-day, however, no woman need worry about receiving too much, or indeed too little, curl.

MEMO: Realistic Wave Selector will help you select the prescription wave for your individual hair and hair style.

Newlyweds to Reside In Warren Community

Nahcy Lynn Niemisto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley W. Niemisto of 21925 Walden Ave., Farmington, was united in marriage recently to William John Foss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Foss of 13399 Mansfield in Detroit.

The double ring ceremony was denoted at St. Mary's Church with Father K. Untener saying the High Mass.

The bride wore a white satin street length gown which she designed herself. The dress had long sleeves and an A-line skirt with the only ornaments being buttons the full length of the dress in the back and at the sleeves. She wore a bluish veil and carried a cascade of pink roses.

The maid of honor was Yvonne Mann. She wore a street length dress of rose satin with two tiny bows at the waist and carried a bouquet of colonial nuptials.

The bride's mother chose a pink brocade sheath dress with matching accessories and had a corsage of dark pink carnations. The bridegroom wore a medium blue sheath dress with lace trimmed jacket. Her corsage was pale yellow carnations.

Best man was Henry Murawski; ushers were William Niemisto and Edward Murawski.

A reception was held in the evening at the Colony Hall in Southfield.

Both the bride and bridegroom are employed at the General Motors Technical Center in Warren. The bride attended Farmington High and Wayne State University and the bridegroom the University of Detroit and Lawrence Tech.

The newlyweds are now making their home in Warren. For their honeymoon they traveled to Miami Beach, Florida.

The highest of distinctions is service to others.

Local Garden Clubs to Prepare For Big Christmas Show

The Players Barn, 32322 Twelve Mile Road, will be the meeting place for the Farmington Garden Club on Monday, November 2.

A workshop will begin at 10 a.m. Mrs. Vincent Kirchner will instruct the beginners class and Mrs. Harold F. Brown, the advanced class.

The members are requested to come prepared to work on arrangements they have selected to enter in the December Flower Show. "The Enchantments of Christmas" or arrangements of their choice.

Opera Comes to Franklin Knolls On November 5

The Franklin Knolls Women's Club is presenting "An Afternoon of Opera" on Thursday, November 5, at 12 noon at St. Coleman Church, Middlebelt between I-4 and North-Western.

Singers Shirley Zaff and Edward Kings, with pianist Lawrence Laore, will do scenes from La Boheme by Puccini, Die Fledermaus by Strauss, Romeo and Juliet by Gounod and La Traviata by Verdi. They will answer questions for any who would like to know more about opera.

DESSERT AND COFFEE will be served by November's Hospitality Chairman, Almeda Gibbons and her committee. Mrs. Wm. Benson, Mrs. Gene Richards, Mrs. Robert Campbell, Jo Wright and Mrs. Walter Lusky.

The business meeting will precede the program which will start at 1 p.m. Since this is a larger program than usual these will be a donation of $1.00 per person. This is an excellent time to bring a guest. For more information and tickets, please call Rosemary Silver, Blk. 6, 6205 of Sue Brooks, MA. 6-6508.

CANCER SEWING sessions will be held the second Wednesday of each month. The evening group will meet at 8 p.m., the first meeting at the home of Mrs. Stanley Cloutier.

Two of the members are in the hospital, Florence Thomas at Mt. Sinai and Renee White at Detroit Osteopathic. If any one knows of a member who is ill, contact the Sunshine Chairman, Mrs. George McCourt.

Woman's Club Meeting Nov. 4

Mrs. George K. Chacketa will be hostess to the Farmington Women's Club at her home, 33306 Oakland Ave., at 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday, November 4.

Program chairman of the day, Mrs. Forrest Dickerson has secured Mrs. D. H. Briggs as speaker. Mrs. Briggs will give a book review of "African Creeds I Have Been Up." The story, by Sue Spencer, is humorous but has much food for thought.

The quote of the Club Year Book for November is a statement by Calvin Coolidge—"All growth depends upon activity. There is no development physically or intellectually without effort, and effort means work. Work is not a curse; it is the prerogative of intelligence, the only means to manhood, and the measure of civilization."

Since our October meeting, one of our long-time members, Martha Spallier Schroeder, passed away.

My eye is like my shadow in the sun—follows me flying. When I pursue it.

Elks Ask for Dolls to Dress

The Farmington Elks are making a request for dolls — new dolls, old dolls, small, medium or large — to give them, paired and dressed for the Goodfellow Christmas gifts to needy families.

Each year the Elks have made doll-dressing and toy repairing a major project. P. E. Bill Everhart, said that last year at this time they had already received many dolls; but this year they have had none so far.

"We have had several calls from women who want the dolls to dress," said Everhart, "but we haven't any to give them. If anyone can donate one or more dolls, drop them off at the Elks Lodge, 33300 Grand River, in Farmington."

SMOOTH WHITE SAUCE IS UNIVERSAL BASE

Everyone has at some time in life known a really superb cook. If you know more than one, you are indeed fortunate and just might be that you are one of these people yourself. Cooks perform their magic with a minimum of pots and pans, the simplest of ingredients and plenty of imagination. One kitchen magician I know says the starts off with a white sauce and continues from there. A good basic white sauce can go on to be cream soup or a base for the casserole. It can be gravy or the difference between plain green beans and Green Beans Parisienne. Let's start with the white sauce itself, remembering that the magic is in the choice of ingredients. You use Keyko Margarine as a spread, have Keyko on the table and are off for baking. Make the white sauce with Keyko, too!

Melt 1/2 cup Keyko in sauce pan over low heat. Blend in 1/4 cup flour. Gradually add 2 cups milk. Always use low heat or make the sauce in a double boiler to keep the delicate Keyko flavor. Use a large spoon for blending the flour and keep stirring as you add the milk. When thickened, keep the sauce hot over boiling water. Add salt and pepper as needed, of course. 2 cups cooked, diced potatoes, 1 cup chopped chives and a little more milk makes potato soup. Slice up some sharp cheddar in the sauce and pour over cooked macaroni for a casserole. For gravy, simply add the basic sauce to the pan drippings after the roast has been removed. Put a little curry powder in the sauce and serve on left-over lamb curry. Those beans! The white sauce, plus 1/4 cup chopped onion and a small can of drained mushrooms with cooked green beans. The white sauce must be smooth, which means stirring constantly and you must start with the best ingredients, which simply means using Keyko Margarine. You supply the imagination yourself.

Troop 421 Girl Scouts Hike at Proud Lake

The girls in Troop 421 enjoyed a beautiful autumn day outing at Proud Lake, Friday, October 16.

They met at William Grace School about 10:30 a.m. Five cars drove out to Proud Lake. There they enjoyed their noses in the bushes.

After "fleeing" the area, they hiked about two hours. They then sang songs, played games and cooked their dinner.
