Mock Election Held at NFHS
Mock elections were held October 28 in which all members of the student body cast their votes according to their choice. ID cards were the only requirements for the voters. Both main parties, Democrats and Republicans, were represented in the school. Sandy Haviland, Sherri Beemer, and Roger Min to headed the Republican party and the Democrats were led by Jim McWhin and Cheryl Thompson.
Other parties that voters could choose were Socialist Workers, a Communist party, Socialist Labor, a socialist party, and Freedom Now, a group of Negroes for Civil Rights.
Campaign was at a high point in the school from decorating the walls to Johnson demonstrations in the cafeteria, by Julie Knahl and slyly getting into lockers and sticking on Goldwater posters by Roger Mingo.
Voting was handled by class officers of Mr. Steele, Mr. Kevinighan, Mr. Herrington, Miss Johnson, and Mr. Voss in the special education room during the day.
Results of the major political contests were as follows:
President - Johnson, 343; Governor - Romney, 488; Stabler, 102; Secretary of State - Harte, 328; Attorney General - Kelly, 284; Warshawsky, 283; U. S. Senator - Hart, 330; Peterson, 240.
MR. AND MRS. SPRINGMEIER of Birchwood had company this past week from St. Louis, Missouri. Their visitor was Mr. Springmeier, District Chairman of the planning consultant firm of Villan - Leman, Southfield, to prepare texts and maps and provide other planning services necessary to begin a program of up-zoning the Township's present zoning ordinance.
The planning program will be conducted over a three-year period at a cost of $1,500 per year. It was indicated that the Township would be eligible for government funds.

BETTE J. WILLARD 476-3863
The witches, goblins, fat men and bunnies that invaded our neighborhood with familiar cries of "Trick or Treat" and "Please help members of the band are a little surprised when they encountered a tricked pumpkin on the Willard's front porch.
Did you notice all the brave-hearted Red Scouts that passed the area, hoping to defer Halloween pranks. They were the Scouts from Troop 118 who have expressed a desire to attend the forth coming Women's Civic Club card party at First Farmington Savings, Monday, Nov. 9, at 8 p.m. Many tickets by contacting one of the following women from our subdivision. Hazel Federpel, 20918 Birchwood, 476-3847; Dolores Springmeier, 20915 Birchwood, 474-7587; Bea Hamilton, 20943 Robinwood, 476-1492; or Joan Bambas, 32329 Kirby, 476-019. Mrs. Federpel reports that we may make up as many tables as we wish but it would be helpful to let her know the exact number, ahead of time. This will enable them to have the correct number of table prizes on hand.
The next meeting of the Farmington Meadows Association will be held tent (Nov. 25th), at the home of Mr. George Strelezuk, 21289 Birchwood, at 8 p.m. If you haven't received your latest bulletin from the Association, please contact your District Director, Mr. Robert Smith, 476-0837.
Brownie Troop 267 had an "Investigate" at P.L.A.N.D.'s School, on Thursday, October 29, at 7:30 p.m. Newly invested Brownies were Patty Begoske, Sheila Biggers, Gail Dunn, Sherry Douglas, Kathy Green, Nancy Guyette, Mary Kay Hanbury, Karen Jaske, Colleen Kreitz, Barbara Leakey, Robin Rankin, Kathy Schell, Peggy Steolan, Debra Stewart, Linda Veen and Carol Washburn. Girls that renewed their Brownie promise were Eugenea Brandt, Deborah Burns, Lisa Burrell, Claudia Cook, Mary Sue Bonsor, Fern Greenberg, Susan Greenberg, Denise Greiner, Sally Isles, Kathy Jensen, Pamela Rankin, Kim Winston and Terri Zimmerman. Mothers who were newly invested were Lynne Kreitz, assistant leader; Mary Hanbury, telephone chairman; and Mickey Bonsor, transportation chairman. Mothers to renew their promise were Nancy Brandt, refreshment chairman; Yvonne Leakey, chairman; Elaine Greenberg, talent chairman; and Stephanie Burns, Brownie leader. After the investiture the girls entertained their parents by singing favorite Brownie songs. They also participated in a narrated pantomime written by Marian Orol, the P.A. assistant leader.
Girl Scout Troop 659 will collect wrapped Halloween candy, from the Meadows, to distribute to the girls at Plymouth State cars were entered. Lynn, the
