The Clarenceville School Scene

By HAROLD W. KEVITT

Edgewood Class Duplicates First Thanksgiving

Clarenceville was selected to send two of the Special Education teachers to the first National Conference on "Careers in Rehabilitation." Mrs. Carolyn Lundy, Grandview Elementary, and Mrs. Lois Benedict, Senior High, were part of a group of twenty teachers from the Oakland and Department of Special Education who attended this program at Cobo Hall on Sunday, November 15, 1964.

A special part of this conference, Mr. Richard Chamberlain (TV's Dr. Kildare) starred in a dramatization in two acts entitled "Careers in Rehabilitation." The chairman of the afternoon session was Sumner G. Whittier, Executive Director, National Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

FLORAL PARK NEWS
 E. R. PHILLIPS GR. 4-6575

A new family recently moved into the home at 2308 Floral from their former home on Haggerty Road, Farmington. They are Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gibson. Mr. Gibson is a teacher of Special Education at the North Farmington High School.

The Andrew Betts family of 2310 Orchard Lake Road entertained company from out of town Sunday, Nov. 29. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Don Bachelor and family of Stockbridge, Michigan. Their family consists of Donna, Dean, Martha and Barbara.

Incidentally, Dean was one of the fortunate hunters, and managed to get a seven-point buck. WE ARE GLAD to hear that Ray Esper of 22500 Violet has had the cast removed from his broken arm and that it is improving as well as expected. Another new family has chosen Floral Park for their home. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Linje recently moved into the residence at 22792 Lilac. They are from Detroit. Mr. Linje is retired.
