This Is Kimberley

By JUDY BURNS

Continuing the review of Kimberley's past 12 months:
JULY: This month marked our fourth birthday, as the sub acquired her first resident in July of 1960. Three babies were born, the Churchills' 6th "D", Deanna, on July 1, the Lombardi's 3rd, a son named Steven, on July 7, and the Fladmann's 2nd, a red-headed daughter, on July 16. The Trambauers moved to Livonia, and we welcomed the Youngs and the Andersons.
Vacationers included Fairbairn families the Kalmeyers, Hansens, Pagnuccos, Forans, Trombleys and Kanos. To the west coast went the McChesneys, McGlades and the John Browns. Jean Gully took her first plane ride to North Dakota and the Kalmeyers journeyed into Canada and brought home a turtle that turned out to be the largest specimen of painted turtle on record in the United States.
An art exhibit was held at the sub pool on July 26, and a subdivision was amazed to learn that re-zoning of lots 259, 260 and 261 had been requested at the July 23 Township Zoning Board meeting.
During this month Al Vagnozzi announced his candidacy for township supervisor, the Shaws had a serious grease fire in their kitchen, and the Zahlers became grandparents for the 4th time.

AUGUST: Bud Olson suffered a heart attack on August 11; Darrell Colley, a kidney stone attack on August 9; and Grandma May underwent surgery on August 22. In addition, Debbie Barch, discovered her ulcer, little Julie Mingo had to take the rabies series due to a cat bite, Margaretta Hansen underwent surgery for a slipped disc, Betty Kovalevski broke her big toe and Sandra Baum was in an accident at 12 Mile and Telegraph.
On August 5 the Henrys welcomed their 5th, Joseph, and on the 20th the Clancy Dyes welcomed Randall Seward, their 4th. The Armstrongs announced the arrival of their 10th grandchild.
On August 8 there was a highly successful teen party at the pool, and on the 29th an intra-club swim meet, the second for Beechview Scout Troop 115 was selected for the 3rd consecutive year to serve as the Governor's Honor Guard at Manassas Island.
The Howards had returned from a trailer trip to New Jersey where they ran into the Monitons at the Fair, and the Colleys from a week at Bedford Springs. The LeBlangs went east, and the DeYungs to Canada, the Baums to Wisconsin.
We said goodbye to the Hectors and the Burkins, and hello to the Casanovas and Koteles families.
SEPTEMBER: The Ruffings were back from Ohio, where Ronnie, 8, broke his arm, and the Deets Back took a camping trip with tales of the fury of hurricane Cleo. Ilona Zimmermann returned from 7 weeks spent behind the curtain visiting her family for the first time in 20 years.
September was our biggest baby month, with the Toupin's 4th, Steven Lawrence, born on the 6th; the McClintock's 5th, Robert Francis, on the 22nd; and the Magee's 2nd, Susan, on the 27th. In addition, the Lanes adopted their 4th this month, a son named Larry born on July 8.
The primary election showed Al Vagnozzi as the Democratic candidate for supervisor, Byron Walter as the Republican candidate for justice of the peace, and Tom Williams, running for constable on the Republican ticket. The men's golf league banquet was held at Hillside Inn on the 26th, with Wally Barringer and Chuck Evans winning firstplace trophies.
The moving vans were active, as the Ardellans, Sheas, Duttons and Stearns moved in, and the Delaneys and Eichbergers moved out.
OCTOBER: A black month, clouded by the death of Helen Brown 2 hours after delivering a stillborn daughter on October 1. Nancy O'Malley was mauled by her boxer on the 6th, and rushed to emergency surgery at St. Mary. Keith Faure, 6, was struck in the eye by a ricocheting BB on October 16, and Don Ericson was hospitalized with a heart condition on the 26th. Barb Shotwell Maloy lay critically ill in Alabama.
The news brightened when Nancy O'Malley came home from the hospital on the 28th, and Gary Maloy was reported out of danger. The men began their gym nights at the school, and the Association held its first meeting of the new season on October 16. Control signs for the entrances were approved, and a Civic Action Committee formed.
The Provers returned home from Miami, and Wally and Marion Barringer from 10 days in the lumber country of Kamlooke, British Columbia.
NOVEMBER: Kimberley's news remained bleak, with Ray Butters fatally stricken with a heart attack on the 12th. Gerry Garrett underwent surgery on the 24th, David Atwell a hernia operation on the 19th, and Dick Rader the same on the 23rd. Ricky Allen had an emergency
